J. W. Cusick and wife, who have been in Southern California for three months, will return this afternoon to their home in this city.

L. L. Swann, a prominent young attorney of Albany, was a Salem visitor yesterday afternoon returning home on the evening express.—Statesman.

Recorder J. S. Van Winkle was called to Halsey today by the dangerous illness of his sister Miss Bertha, and left this noon for there accompanied by his family.

Mr. Henry Clark, one of Albany's early brick masons and ex chief engineer of the fire department, now of Eugene, has been in the city on a visit with friends here.

Mr. Frank Whitton, a former Albany boy, has been in the city on his way to his home in Washington after an absence of fourteen years, the last two of which have been spent in California.

The death of Frank Foster, of Walla Walla, is greatly regretted by several Albany friends. He was a leading business man and a thorough gentleman. While in Albany a few years ago he was the guest of Mr. F. M. French.

Another Oregon man has a plum. Hon. H. B. Miller, a brother of F. J. Miller, of this city, has been appointed consul at Chungking, China. This is a second class consularship and pays $3,000 a year and the emoluments of the office.

Mrs. Rachel, who with L. E. & H. J. Hamilton during the spring trade of last year, has been re-engaged by them and will have charge of their millinery department during the coming spring and next fall's business. Mrs. Rachel is expected here from St. Paul this week, coming by way of Colorado Springs.

The Telegram says of Miss Hansen who is to assist Miss Brownell in her coming recital: "Miss Rita Hansen, of this city, who is teaching music in Eugene, at the University, has organized a 'Juba Club' among the students. She is becoming a great favorite in musical circles, and her voice has attracted considerable attention."

The Home Forum gave their first public entertainment at the Maccabees hall last night with a big attendance. It was a lively affair. There were games, sociability, orchestra music, a delicious lunch and a program. The latter consisted of a recitation by Mrs. Gray, a piano duet by Flossie Knecht and Arlene Train, a guitar solo by Dr. Collins, a piano solo by E. na Howard and a vocal solo by Ethel Redfield.

Death Of Mrs. George Knox.

Mrs. Maggie, wife of George Knox, died at her home in this city, at 5 o'clock this morning, of paralysis, at the age of 45 years.

She leaves a husband, two sisters, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Ed Knox of Portland, and one brother Mr. J. H. Cox of Crook county.

Mrs. Knox was a native of Ireland, coming to Oregon about twenty five years ago. She was an estimable woman who will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

Funeral services at the residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, to which all friends are invited. The remains will be buried in the Knox Butte cemetery.

LEG BROKEN.—Walter Dswall, a boy residing at Thomas, yesterday had been riding on a flat car at that place when he jumped from the car to the ground. One of his feet caught between the rail and tie throwing him in such a way as to break one of the bones of the leg just above the ankle. He was brought to Albany for care, and Dr. Davis set the bone.
