Kentucky's War.

FRANKFORT, March 10.—Secretary of State Rogers and Capt. Dav's, for whom warrants have been issued for the murder of Gobel, are secreted in capitol. The building is barricaded by Taylor's militia and the sheriff is refused admission. Several warrants have been issued and the excitement is high.

Warlike Proceedings.

FRANKFORT, March 10.—Governor Taylor calls the militia to the capitol and will flee to London, Ky., where the state Arsenal is located. Warrants are out for the officials for complicity in the Gobel murder. Taylor wants troops to defend him. The police have surrounded the Executive mansion with the military aide.

A Mean Thing.

LONDON, March 10.—Government considering the proposition to banish Cronje to Island of St. Helens.

A Big Threat.

LONDON, March 10.—A correspondent of the Daily Mail at Lourenco Marques, telegraphing Thursday says: "I am reliably informed that high officials openly avow that the British flag shall never fly over Johannesburg. The place will be razed to the ground, and its mines put in readiness to be electrically exploded from the fort, as occasion requires."

The Canal.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The senate committee on foreign relations today agreed to report the Hay-Panchoffley treaty, amending the Clayton-Bulwer treaty with an amendment granting authority for the defense of the canal by this country when constructed. The committee was practically unanimous in favor of the amendment. It is the opinion of members of the senate that the change will but little delay the ratification of the treaty as amended.

Gage's Plan.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—At the cabinet meeting today, Secretary Gage outlined his plan for carrying into effect the new financial bill which it is expected will pass the house next Tuesday and be approved by the President soon thereafter. The secretary explained that in all probability 34 or 45 per cent of the outstanding bonds which may be refunded under the new law will be presented for exchange within a comparatively short time.

Our War.

MANILA, March 9.—Generals Young and Hood are asking for reinforcements, and a battalion of the forty-eight has been sent to Aparri. Other troops will follow. The rebels recently persistently attacked Aparri for several hours but were finally driven away. Details of the affair was lacking.

Social Democrats.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9.—For President, Eugene V. Debs, of Indiana; for Vice-President, Job Harriman, of California. This is the National ticket of the Social Democratic party, which will absorb the Hilquit Harriman faction of the Socialist Labor party by agreement.

Phelps Dead.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Mar. 9.—Hon. E. J. Phelps, ex-Minister to England, died at his residence, on Humphrey street, late this afternoon. He had been ill since early in January with an attack of pneumonia.

Funeral of Capt. Geary.

From the Eugene Guard:
 The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church, conducted by Dr. E. Thompson, of Corvallis, assisted by Rev. J. B. Cleland, of this city. The casket was decorated with the American flag, and a profusion of flowers. A picture of the deceased soldier was on the pulpit. The sermon by Dr. Thompson was one of the most impressive ever listened to by a Eugene audience. L. G. Adair sang a beautiful solo, "Nearer My Home," during the exercises. The church was packed to the doors, for this was the boyhood home of Capt. Geary, and his personal friends here were many. Woodbridge Geary entered West Point as a cadet from Oregon in 1878 and graduated in 1882, being assigned to the Nineteenth Infantry, stationed in Texas, where he met and married his wife, who, with two children, survives him. The procession from the church to the cemetery was led by the Spanish war veterans, as a guard of honor, while the G. A. R. and company O Third regiment also attended. The services at the Masonic cemetery were of a military character.

The Weather.

Tonight probably showers, Sunday fair, stationary temperature. River 10.5 feet.

Judge Whitney for Congress.

From the Eugene Journal:
 Judge J. J. Whitney, of Albany, was one of the leading Union members in the last legislature. He has had experience as a legislator and in other important positions, and has always acquitted himself well. During the last legislative session and since he has steadily favored a union of democrats, populists and silver republicans against the Hannaites who have fastened themselves on the republican organization and made it the tool of the combined syndicates and grafts of every nature and size. He is a man of fine presence and unquestioned ability and could make a rattling campaign for congressman in the First Congressional district. He would be acceptable to all parties. He is popular and well liked by all who know him, and having resided a long time in Linn county has many personal friends scattered over the district. The state is represented in a lopsided manner. The Willamette valley has nothing, Tongue resided in the suburbs of the Second district where the other congressman and both senators belong. Whitney resides in the center of the Willamette valley and about in the center of the Congressional district in point of population. What is still better, he represents the ideas and interests of the masses of the people instead of a favored few. Should he be selected as the candidate of the democrats, populists and silver republicans, his election would be reasonably certain by a larger majority than Tongue received in 1896 and probably larger than he received in 1898 when the Spanish war elected the whole republican state and congressional ticket, without any regard whatever for local interests or the fitness or merits of candidates. And the Journal then shows up the record of Congressman Tongue.

Lebanon.

From the E. A.:
 E. F. Ramp and Judge Whitney, of Albany, spoke in this city last evening on the political issues of the day.

Prof. W. S. Mayberry finished a term of school in the Cheadle district last Friday. He has taught nine months in this district during the past year. He will leave in a couple of weeks for Umatilla county, where he will spend the summer.

Mr. Scroggin has purchased from the Settle estate the two-story brick building, the lower part of which is occupied by Hiram Baker, the merchant.

John Carroll has sold the Lebanon-Foster stage line and mail contract to Thos. Noland and son Charles, who will take charge tomorrow morning.

Samuel M. Garland is being urged by his many friends to accept the nomination for county judge on the democratic ticket. Mr. Garland, while appreciating the kindness of his friends, positively declines to accept the nomination, if tendered, for the reason that his practice requires all his time.

 The charge of larceny against Hilda Hobson, alias etc., whose real name is Swame, was dismissed and Miss Swame was discharged by the Corvallis justice. Her case is a pitiable one.
 For a Presbyterian deacon and member of the faculty of an Oregon medical college, Justice Frank Moore showed great liberality and toleration in presiding at a Christian Science seance.—Journal.

The counties of Linn, Benton, Douglas and Polk were named after Americans who championed the act of Congress which made Oregon a territory of the United States. Polk was President, Benton, Douglas and Linn were members of Congress at the time of the adoption of Oregon.—Ex.

Mr. R. R. Riley went cat fishing across the river yesterday afternoon. On his way home in the evening he stopped at a meat market to get some meat to go with the fish, leaving thirty five cat fish out side. When he went out the fish were gone. They had been stolen.

A joint Linn and Lane teachers institute will be held at Harrisburg next Friday. Among those down for papers or addresses are Superintendent McDonald, Miss Luella Brewster, Prof. Allingham, Miss Minnie Evans, Miss Sorenson, Miss Lula Bradley, Miss Fannie Griggs and Miss Grimes.
 Transformation of Prineville is illustrated in the following: Twenty-one years ago I. L. Ketchum, went into the shoemaking business in Prineville and has followed that occupation ever since. Of all the business firms at that time in our city, Mr. Ketchum alone remains.
 The Brownville Times is running timber land notices signed by the register at Roseburg for forty-five different persons through western Oregon, among the following from Linn county: Rufus Drum, E. C. Brandenburg, of Albany, W. J. Drickard, of Halsey, H. C. Barr, Harry Saltmarsh, Charles Farrel, O. I. Barr, of Albany, John Harrison, H. H. Blakeley, Henry B. Blakeley.

From the Editorial Review in the March "Review-of-Reviews." The war is a hideous mistake for both belligerents. The English were wrong in provoking it and the Boers were wrong in precipitating it. No English man has ventured to suggest any possible outcome of the war that would be valuable enough to justify the loss of British blood that has already occurred.
 In anticipation of the passage of the Indian war pension bill blank applications for pensions have already been prepared and are being circulated among veterans. Each applicant will have to give full name and correct service, name of captain, company, regiment, etc. If the bill passes as it will a worthy lot of men will receive pensions for some splendid service done this country.

Don't Use Big Words.....

In promulgating your enteric cogitation or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your conversations possess a clarified conciseness, comprehensibility, consistent consistency and a concentrated cogency.
 Chew all conglomerations of flutulent garrulity, jujube balblement and assinine affections. Let your exemporaneous descantings and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity, without rhotonotade or thrasoonical bombast. Sedulously avoid polysyllabic prolixity, pompous prolixity, ventriquoal verbosity and vaniloquent vapidty.
