The Patterson Case.

From the Roseburg Review :

Hugh Patterson is now on trial for the clime of rape upon the person of Winnie Thorn, who is under the legal sge of consent. Patterson is but 22 years of age, a son of George Patterson, a respected cit- ering. isen of Albany, Oregon, and has hereto-

isen of Albany, Oregon, and has hereto-fore borne a good reputation himself. He was braking on an S. P. freight train between Roeburg and Junction City when the alleged crime was committed. The case will be a botly consented one, District Attorney Brown and his deputy, Mr. Harris, of Eugene, representing the state, and L. Bilyeu, of Eugene, W. R. Bilyeu, of Albany, and J. H. Medley, of Cottage Grove, the defendant. The court room is crowded to its utmost capacity with spectators, who are seemingly much interested in the evidence. Miss Thorn makes a poor witness for the state, being slow to answer and quite frequently refusing to answer and tells of Harvey's connec. On with the case s good deal as she did at the 170 iminary exam-ination. nation.

From the Review:

Miss Thorn made a heaitating, uneatisfactory and weak witness for the state, and her long, tedious, direct and indirect examination brought out only substantially the facts heretofore testified to at preliminary examinations.

The principal testimony against Pat-The principal testimony against Pat-terson was alleged statements he made to the railroad employes. Conductor Minkler, who went back on the train the day following the Thorn episode, H. W. Stewart, station agent at Comstocz, Chas. Hedrick, track-walker at Divide; T. J. Brown, brakeman, testified to admis-sions of guilt, more or less direct, made by the defendant. It seems that the trainmen made up a purse of 15 and toid him to go to Latham and see the girl's parents and smooth the affair over, even parents and smooth the affair over, even if he was compelled to marry the girl. Patterson, himself testified that the oth-er members of the train crew told him er members of the train crew told him he would be mobbed if he went to Rose burg, and that he had better marry the girl whether he was guilty or not. That they all had families and could not do so. He declared that he had no cr.min-al relations with the girl, but was scared into doing the sumpt form the set and March 10.-Jurction Times. Miss Annie Flinn, who recently re-ceived her degree from Stanford Univer-sity, returned home this morning ac-companied by Miss Farnham, daughter of an old Vermont friend of Judge Flinn, who will spend several weeks here. Capt, Heath of McMinnville, was in into doing the suspi fous things he sub-sequently did. Judge Hamilton charged the jury briefly, and his instructions were regarded as perfectly fair by the defense, and if either way, more favorable to the deif either way, more favorable to the de-fendant than the state in constraing the law in the case. The jury retired about 2 o'clock this afternoon and one hour later brought in a verdict of guilty as charged. All voted for conviction on the first informal ballot. This was con siderable of a surprise, as most people who took an interest in the case expect-ed a hour jury mark than anothing. ed a hung jury more than anything, owing to the doubtful character of much of the evidence. The sentence will be from 3 to 20 years.

County Treasurer Jack yesterday received from his son Glen a member of the 35th regiment now in the Philippines the 35th regiment now in the Philippines one of those famous balos, the close quar-ters weapon of the Filipino, which is also good for nearly everything else.
