

DR. HILL HOME.

Dr. J. L. Hill returned this morning from New York where he had been to take a post graduate course in surgery.

Carl Carlson has been admitted to citizenship.

William Currier, of Roseburg, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. D. Bristol, of Cottage Grove, has been in the city.

Hon. R. A. Bensall came over from the Bay this noon.

T. G. Hendricks and wife, prominent Eugene people, have been in the city.

Mrs. Henry Godley arrived in Albany today on a visit, and is the guest of Mr. Romine near this city.

Mr. William Toner, the express messenger on the C. & E., came up from Salem last night and resumed his work on the road.

The Examiner contains a portrait of Miss Oza Waldrop and announces that she is now an actress.

The daughter of the well-known Baptist preacher.

License has been issued for the marriage of William Currier of Roseburg, and Miss Maggie Burkhardt, daughter of J. W. Burkhardt, of Lebanon.

The ceremony was to take place today at the home of the bride's parents at Lebanon.

The Salem Journal says: One Oregon Philistine hero in public life says the candidates for office who expect to be elected on their late war record will be beautifully left, and he shows his faith by declining a re-nomination.

In Roseburg tonight Nellie M. Lambson, Deputy Supreme Commander Ladies of the Maccabees, and Dennis H. Stovall, Deputy Supreme Commander Knights of the Maccabees, will give lectures on the orders of Maccabees.

The young ladies of the Y. W. C. A. of the Albany College will give an entertainment next Friday evening March 16, in the College Chapel. All are cordially invited to attend. 10 cents admission.

Rev. F. W. Parker, pastor of the Congregational church, yesterday tendered his resignation as pastor of the church to take effect March 31. He has an offer as lecturer of the Woodmen of the World and will probably accept the same.

Miss Flora Mason has returned from her California trip after a pleasant experience.

Miss Marguerite Hopkins who went with her in Phoenix, Arizona, the guest of Mrs. Bates a former Albany school teacher, and Miss Pfeiffer is at Oakland, Calif.

Hon. G. A. Waggoner, custom's agent of the U. S. at White Pass, beyond Skagway, arrived in Albany this noon accompanied by his wife and will remain for a day or so as guests of Mrs. Houch, Mr. Waggoner, for many years one of Benito county's leading citizens, doesn't like the cold of the north, but it is business to be there now.

William Stevens left on the Ruth this morning for Portland and thence to Cook's Inlet, where he will assist in erecting a cannery for Capt. Lutzens, who came over from the Bay today and went to Portland to join him. Stevens is an old time seal fisher and he was long to see salt water again. He will be gone several months.

A new lodge of Rathbone Sisters was organized at Brownsville last Friday night by Deputy Organizer Mrs. G. W. Hochstetler assisted by fourteen Rathbone, of this city. It starts with a membership of about forty-five. The Albany ladies had a fine time and were treated royally.

Hold your breath while you read this from a Eugene paper: What a busy spot the northern end of the mill race is. What a whirl and buzz of machinery; what a rushing and singing of strong water as they turn the machinery of the mills.

This portion of Eugene is a manufacturing district of no mean proportions, but there is water power going to waste of sufficient strength to turn many wheels of commerce.

MARRIED.

WASHBURN-HULL—On Sat. evening March 10, 1900, at the Rever. House, in Albany, by Rev. A. J. Sturtevant, of the Baptist church, Mr. N. B. Washburn, a prominent merchant of Shelburn, and Miss Nettie Hull, a popular young lady of Scio.

They have the best wines of many friends.

DIED.

SHEA.—In Albany on Sunday morning March 11, 1900, of heart disease, Walter R. Shea, second son of Mr. John Shea.

The deceased was born in New Zealand, Sept. 7, 1881 and came with his parents to the United States shortly afterwards. They resided in Brownsville for a number of years, coming to Albany a few years ago. Walter was messenger boy for the Postal Telegraph Co., at one time, and was a steady, reliable young man, well liked by all knowing him.

The funeral service will be held at the Catholic church, of which the deceased was a member, tomorrow at 9 a. m.

BORN.

BUOY.—On Monday morning, March 11, 1900, at Toledo, to the wife of the pugilist agent of the C. & E., a boy, weight 8 pounds.

The admiring friends of the family as an expression of their interest in the new comer this afternoon sent over to Toledo a cradle made by them, a big nursing bottle and a barrel of soothing syrup. There will be joy or consternation in the Buoy household when they arrive.

Stayton's Creamery.

From the Mail: The work on Stayton's creamery was begun yesterday morning. A site 100x200 feet has been purchased of Leo Brown on what is known as the Har'en place, convenient to the business district and the foundation work is proceeding.

E. Shepherd, a competent mason, in charge of the brick work.

As soon as the foundation is completed Henry Bruer will erect the building, will be 20x28 feet in dimensions with 12x20 addition. Cement floors will be laid.

E. J. Seely, the projector of this new enterprise was here Wednesday from Albany, and made the arrangements. The machinery, all new and first class, has been ordered, and it is expected the plant will be in operation very soon after April 1.

M. S. Titus, one of the prominent stockmen of Linn county, near here, says he thinks the milk of not less than 100 cows will be furnished this creamery from that side of the river this present season.

Drowned in Washington.

The DEMOCRAT has received a marked copy of the Cathlamet, Wash., Gazette, with an account of the drowning of J. W. Savage, a young man 23 years of age, while working on logs near that place.

He fell from a log after working two and a half days there, was swept under a raft of them and was drowned, though gotten out in about ten minutes. The Gazette says:

His name was learned from a bundle of letters addressed to him at Russellville, Multnomah county, Or. He has two sisters in Albany, Or., and a brother in Eastern Oregon. Sol Insel says it is possible Mr. Savage's parents live at Antelope, Or. Judge Kelly has written to the marshal of Albany in hopes of finding the drowned man's sisters.

The saddest event in connection with the death of Mr. Savage is the manner in which he was neglected by his employer after he was drowned and of no use to him. The Star Logging Co., through its manager, treated the dead employe and his funeral with cold-blooded indifference.

Clyde McCoy is carrying a hand in a sling the result of a fall, that caused a sprain.

The annual school election was in progress this afternoon with L. M. Curl and J. M. Ralston in the field for director and Virgil Parker for clerk.

A small boy says a man across the river tried to commit suicide, but the item cannot be traced to a head.

The free delivery system is to be tried around Halsey and Shedd, and the people in that part of the county are anticipating great privileges from the innovation. Wherever tried it has been received with great satisfaction by the farming community.

The flambon Club will be out tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock and present a drill on First Street previous to the entertainment at the A. O. U. W. hall. It will be worth witnessing. The Club has been well trained by Capt. Phillips.

F. McCarty, of Gates, was brought before Justice Johnson this morning on a charge of selling liquor to a minor. He waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court under $250 bonds, which he furnished.—Salem Journal.

The following ticket was being voted on at Stayton today, with certainty of election: Mayor, E. F. Bennett; Councilmen, W. J. Richardson, G. B. Traek, W. W. Eider, Lee Brown; recorder, W. H. Queener; treasurer, W. H. Cooper; marshal, J. E. Yeoman.

W. W. Waite, a miner, was recently found murdered near Sacramento, Calif. The Examiner is devoting a good deal of space to the matter in an effort to ferret out the murderer. Waite was a resident of Corvallis for a number of years.

TUESDAY.

His Valise Back.

Among those who attended the Foresters of America excursion to Corvallis recently was our friend Mr. Finch, of the Herald. On coming home he forgot his valise, which followed him today and has been inspected by several of the curious at the St. Charles Hotel.

The Democrat man didn't have time to see it but Mr. Tarnet, of the C. & E., whose word can be relied on says it contains some cigarette packages, two beer bottles that are empty, some oyster cans, etc., with 50 cents charges to collect. When Mr. Finch sees it tonight there is said to become fun in store for the audience.

Peculiar Accident.

A very peculiar accident happened at Lebanon last Saturday evening. Blonde Carlton was sitting on a horse rack smoking a pipe, when he slipped and fell forward upon his face. The pipe stem was driven up through his nose, making a hole that caused the use of eight or nine stitches in dressing it.

A large class of students was given a practical lesson this afternoon by being permitted to attend court in a body. They were present when Judge Burnett gave his excellent speech to Percy Farrell on stealing, and during some of the trial of ex-County Treasury Morr, charged with a worse kind of stealing.

R. J. Hendricks, editor of the Salem Statesman, business manager of the Pacific Homestead and chairman of the congressional committee, was in the city last evening on his way home from a trip to Corvallis. He had his famous typewriter along.

Mr. and Mrs. William Currier arrived in Albany last night from Lebanon and left on the overland for their future home at Roseburg. Mr. Currier and Miss Maggie Burkhardt were united in marriage at Lebanon yesterday in a very pretty wedding.

The bride is a bright and popular young lady who has many friends in Albany as well as in Lebanon who will unite in extending their best wishes to the happy couple.

For fruit men report a splendid outlook for fruit generally, and particularly for prunes, with the season sufficiently advanced for it to be safe. The Willamette valley will be itself this year according to present indications.

Delicious clam bouillab at the Sugar B. at 2nd street.

Oregon agt P G Morris, larceny public money, '98-'99, On trial.

Samuel Hayden and H. O. Watson appear for the state, and H. M. Hewitt and J. K. Weatherford for the defendant.

Considerable pains was taken in the selection of a jury and sixteen men examined were rejected before a jury was secured.

Following is the jury: A. J. McClure, John Cochell, Geo. Alford, E. L. Plummer, Jas. Morgan, J. D. Griffin, W. A. Bartley, G. B. Splawn, S. S. Leeper, C. O. Rice, Josiah Weddle, H. Karsiens.

A M Cannon admr agt John Meinert, rec money, will be tried Wednesday March 21.

D A Terhune agt John Tweedie, rec money. Continued.

C E Brownell agt J J Spalinger, rec money. Jury trial. Verdict under instructions of court for plaintiff, for $130.16.

The Plano M'lg Co agt F Ackerman, recovery of money.

Simonds M'lg Co agt D C Smith, rec money, attachments. Judgment for plaintiff.

Upon motion Max Baumgart was admitted to citizenship.

Oregon agt Percy Farrell and Elmer Hatcher, larceny from a dwelling. Indicted by district attorney. Will plead tomorrow morning.

By consent Percy Farrell was permitted to plead guilty of simple larceny, and Judge Barnett after giving him some splendid advice to never steal again and to get out and stay out of such things, better putting his hand in the fire than stealing, he gave him the light sentence of two months in the county jail.

J. W. Thompson, the printer, after presenting evidence of his condition when he committed forgery, was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary. Whiskey is undoubtedly the cause of his fall like that of many others who touch it.

The district attorney presented a true information against J. P. Hahn of Sweet Home on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon on A. L. Weddle last October. The case was continued by consent, after the defendant had plead not guilty.

College Notes.

The Y. W. O. A. will give a social next Friday evening.

Miss Dora Page, '98 of Oakland, is taking a course in music.

Pres. Strong, of the U. of O., made a talk to the students in chapel Mar. 9.

If Julius Caesar was now alive he would be 2000 years old this year.

If this good weather continues it will soon be time to organize a baseball team.

Several of the young ladies enjoyed a party at the club last Friday evening in honor of the birthday of Miss Perry.

The U. of O. delegates to the oratorical contest were visiting with Mr. S. Prof. Straub made an interesting and humorous talk in chapel.

BRYAN COMING.

Hon. W. J. Bryan will speak in Albany on Wednesday March 23, and at other places in the north west following.

He will arrive in Albany on the morning train and will probably speak in the forenoon, go to Salem on the afternoon train, where he will speak in the evening.

Arrangements and the hour of meeting will be made hereafter.

Mr. Bryan will arrive on the morning train from California and return east by California.

Another Round Up.

The Salem Journal gives another round up of the votes of members of the legislature in the last session. As usual according to the opinion of the Journal the Linn county members, that is Palmer and Whitney, lead in good voting in the interest of the people. Jones, as usual, gets a low record.

The Journal says: In the table, Palmer, of Linn, is again at the front. He makes a record of 15 good votes to 1 bad ones and 1 absence. This gives the palm to Palmer as he stands at the head in all three round-ups, being tied by Stump and Whitney in the special session, and by Palmer in the last table.

Whitney again comes in the third row, having 13 good votes to 5 bad.

For low place Stanley and Moody are practically tied with 2 good votes each.

Of the union members, McAllister falls lowest with 6 good votes to 10 bad ones and 4 absences.

Donnelly, Jones and Sherwin each come in with 8 good votes as the second worst union showing. Jones vote was 8 good, 7 bad and 5 absences.

Sheriff Sale.

By virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Linn, to me duly directed, delivered and dated the 13th day of February, 1900, in a certain suit in said court wherein S V Ownbey was plaintiff and M E Brink and Rora Brink were defendants, in which said suit the said S V Ownbey as plaintiff recovered a judgment against the said defendant M E Brink, on the 20th day of November, 1899, for the sum of $427.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the date of said judgment together with the costs and disbursements taxed at $10.00 ordering adjudging and decreeing that the real property described in plaintiffs mortgage and complaint to-wit:

Block No. Two (2), in Blakman addition to the city of Albany, in Linn county, Oregon, be sold to satisfy said judgment and costs.

And as recommended therein I will on Saturday the 24th day of March 1900 at the hour of One o'clock p. m. of said day, at the front door of the court house, in the city of Albany, Linn county, Oregon, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, subject to redemption according to law, the above described real estate to satisfy said judgment and all costs.

Dated this 16th day of February, 1900. I A MCKENNA.
