Big Tidal Wave.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 7.—A big tidal wave here resulted in lots of damage to shipping along the wharves, but no lives were lost.

Must Be Stopped.

LONDON, April 7.—At Shanghai the French, German, English and American consuls have notified the empress that unless "Boxers" is suppressed within 40 days the countries represented will land troops and march to the interior.

Owens Its Electricity.

MEFORD, Or., April 7.—The Electric plant of this city owned by Mr. R. A. Prandfee was purchased last night by the city of Medford for $8000. The city owns the water works and will operate in connection with the electric light plant.

Engls ad Gloomy.

LONDON, April 7.—Got a word regarding the disaster at Keddensburg has been allowed to come through, except the dispatch to Lord Roberts. It is, therefore, impossible to form any notion as to what has happened. Meanwhile, the British public is beginning to realize the immense difficulties to be overcome even before Pretoria is reached, and if even premature ideas with respect to the time when she war will be over.

How It Happened.

BLOEMFONTEIN, April 5.—Another unfortunate occurred, resulting, I fear in the capture of a party of infantry, consisting of three companies of the Royal Irish Fusiliers and two companies of the Ninth Regiment of Mounted Infantry, near Reddersburg, a little eastward of the Bethane railway station within a few miles of this place. They were surrounded by a strong force of the enemy with four or five guns.

Will Make a Statement.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Admiral and Mrs. Dewey returned to Washington at 3:30 tonight from their brief visit to Philadelphia. In response to a question the Admiral said that he expected in a few days to have ready for the press a statement as to his plans for the future.

Starving Porto Rican.

POKES, April 6.—An announcement having been made that the Puerto Rican Benevolent Society would relieve the poor of Ponce the town is simply overwhelmed with an army of starving and pauperized folk. No fewer than 200 men, women and children, sick and starving, are living in the corridor of the City Hall and in a kloek on the plaza.

HOME AND ABROAD.

M. Zan, one of Portland's prominent business men died yesterday.

C. G. Rawlings, city ticket agent, tickets to San Francisco, Cape Nome, Eastern Oregon and all points East. Office foot of Broad/albin street.

The O R & N Co. will make round trip rates of $2.40 to parties wishing to attend the democratic and prohibition conventions to be held in Portland.

Have You Seen Smith drew a good sized audience last night. These attending saw Smith and more too, and heard him and more too.

A carload of about one thousand cattle passed through Albany this noon from Reno, Nev., to the Sound. The Albany experts picked out a steer that was a monster. It weighed 1919 pounds.

The second stereopticon entertainment at the Presbyterian church given last evening by Dr. Finks was as pleasing and satisfactory as that of the first night. Strange scenes in our own land were given in a vivid manner.

The Carter delegation lent the Tongue delegation in the Jackson county republican convention 54 to 53. It was a steady fight, and the men elected are decidedly anti-Tongue.

The U of O track team will meet the Washington track team in Seattle on May 19 in an interstate contest. On the previous evening there will be debate between the two colleges. The U of O will be represented by Jackway, Whitteley and Goodall.

M. C. Bennett, a traveling man, Mr. Burdell, an insurance man, and E. B. Duffy and Clarence Brown the railroad men arrived in Albany last night on a wood rack. They had had a break down on the way to Albany from Corvallis.

A sneak thief recently stole Glenn Winslow's cornet from the mechanical hall at the college. The owner was in Albany on Bryan day and while passing a second hand store espied his missing instrument. It had been pawned by the thief for 75 cents, for payment of which Mr. Winslow recovered his instrument. —Corvallis Times.

A special election held at Grant's Pass, authorizes $9000 in sewer bond and $69,000 for the construction of a water and light plant. Both propositions were carried, the sewer bonds by a vote of 224 to 52 and the water and light bonds by a vote of 170 to 125. Grants Pass will soon be spending most of its receipts for interest.

Mrs. Julia Temple, widow of the late W. K. Temple, died at her home near Plainview, Wednesday evening, April 4, 1900, aged nearly 62 years. Deceased was born in Illinois on July 4, 1838. She came to Oregon in 1852, and since 1867 has resided on the home place near Plainview. She was an excellent woman, esteemed and respected by all who knew her. She leaves seven children, four girls and three boys.—Lebanon E. A.

NIT! Not In The TRUST.

THE OLD 1900 RACYLE WILL DROP IN PRICE WHEN, LIKE OTHER WHEELS, IT DROPS ITS QUALITY AND STOPS WINNING RACES.

Your dignity will never be lowered by mounting a Racyle, and you'll never come in last in the Sunday spin you take with your friends. Don't go and buy a wheel with a repair shop ring about it when the same money or a little more would get you a Racyle.

NO OIL CAN NECESSARY. MAGAZINE SELF-OILER WARRANTED TO RUN A FULL SEASON WITHOUT REFILLING. CATALOGUE FREE UPON APPLICATION. FOR SALE BY:

E. L. KING

AN EXPERT MACHINIST SAYS OF THE RACYLE

"So simple it's a wonder no one ever thought of it before. Can't get out of order. Bound to hold the lubricant. Will run the season without refilling and yet it can be refilled at any time a rider desires in less than a minute. Does away with bushings, pins, sleeves, and even separate cones."
