Up to date a few more postmasters have endorsed the Porto Rican tariff bill.

John L. Sullivan has gone back to the prize ring. Naturally! Old men are usually talkative.

When Hawaii came in she did not know how near she would come to being kept "outside the Constitution."

Eastern democrats are having lots of fun devising combinations for the defeat of Mr. Bryan for the nomination this fall.

When Russia and Japan finally lock horns, which one of them will claim to be fighting for civilization and humanity's sake?

Mark Hanna and the administration have "benevolently assimilated" several of the erstwhile free traders of the senate.

Both the republican and populist parties in Texas have split. The democrats now have some slight chance to carry the state this fall.

A western scientist has declared that western girls have smaller feet than eastern ones. It is suspected that he is desirous of running for office.

Meers, Flush and Straight are opposing candidates in West Virginia. According to Hoyle the pot should go to be first named.

If the feeling in regard to Porto Rico goes on increasing, Teddy Roosevelt may have to accept the second place on the Republican ticket to save the party. It would be too bad to shelve him this way.

Speaker Henderson says that the President was heart and soul with him passing the House bill. Yet the President's friends declare that he still stands by his plain duty proposition.

It is worth noticing that the representatives of the German press of ten states have met at Chicago and decided to oppose the republicans this fall because of their subservience to trusts and monopolies.

A paper that opposed Bryan says. Bryan will make a speech in Portland on April 1, next Wednesday. Thousands will hear him, Bryan is a great man. His opponents admit that.

Carnegie-Frick $180,000,000 Company will receive protection as one of the infant industries, and at the same time charge the government $545 a ton for armor plate.

Now that the automobile ice wagon has made its appearance, we may expect that "How would you like to be the Ice Man?" will run through another summer easily without wearing out.

The Porto Rican tariff question seems to be settled until next Congress, when the successors of those who voted for a tariff will have the pleasure of voting for free trade.

Well, what does the administration think of Consul Macrum? Wasn't he a pretty fellow to pick out for a post of such importance? The only reason for choosing him seems to have been that he was an Ohio man and a personal friend of the President.

Director Merriam has caused a great stir in Congress by notifying the members that he wants 1,500 women to operate punching machines this summer. He says they do far better work than men. This, however, does not content congressmen who retort that women have no votes and that this is a campaign year.

Here is the way Queen Victoria was guarded on her recent trip from London to Ireland.

Train started at 9:30 P. M. Pilot engine half hour ahead.

Tracks absolutely clear.

Cars had been over route in rehearsal.

All appliances scrupulously tested.

Every rail on lines examined.

Every switch tried.

Every signal inspected.

Every lamp watched.

Every railway official on duty.

Every station-master, telegraph operator and train hand on the alert from half an hour before train is due until it passes.

A correspondent of the Brownsville says:

My correspondent attended the Bryan campaign in Albany last week and received great inspiration therefrom. The arguments of the great orator were delivered in a forceful manner in which he delivered was a revelation to the audience assembled at the square. Democrats and populists were converted in the faith, re-

Our Ticket.

It is customary after an election to review the ticket put in nomination by a party, showing the fitness of the men running for the positions for which they have been nominated. These are generally taken according to the politics of the reader, and yet some times there is something in them that is appreciated even by those opposed to the ticket.

Our ticket is representative in its character in double sense. It is composed of men taken from among the people. It is not a ticket of politicians. And second it represents the different sections of the county fully. The twelve men on the ticket are from ten different precincts, only two places having two candidates. Notice how they are spread over the county: Seio, Lebanon, Sodaville, Orleans, Brownsville, Albany, Syracuse, Harrisburg, Shelburn, Shedd and Crawfordville. Could a convention have treated every part of the county more fairly with twelve candidates for thirty one precincts. The great need in office now is honest, upright men, who can be depended upon to do their duty, and who will account for every cent that passes through their hands, as well as administer the different offices in a business way. We present a ticket of this character.

The representatives are men who cannot be bought or traded into endorsing bad legislation. Col. C. B. Montague is a fine speaker and will work for economy and against graft. Mark Perry is a native Oregonian, a young man with a clean record and fine address. He will do at Salem just what he says he will before he goes there. That is his past record, and the DEMOCRAT will bank on it. Mr. W. H. Ingram, a former republican who left the party because of its shortcomings, is a man of worth according to the reports from Sodaville, his home, is a fair talker and a good reasoner, who will be found on the right side according to his judgment of every bill that may come before him as a representative from so important a county as Linn.

The judge of an Oregon county, should be an upright man who knows the needs of the county and who will work in the interests of the people and not merely of his pocketbook. A man of good judgment, economy and discernment. Mr. H. M. Palmer, our nominee is such a man. He is in the prime of life, a man of splendid habits and good attainments. His record in the last state legislature as passed upon by the Salem Journal heads the list of the entire membership. The position he took on the different bills will endorse the judgment of the Journal. The lowest levy in the state with a farmer at the head of the court indicates that a farmer can make a good county judge.

Mr. George McFargue, of Brownsville, the candidate for sheriff, is a pioneer resident of the county. Brownsville people speak in high terms of him as a neighbor and a citizen. He is a fearless man and a rustler, a man capable of filling the position well.

W. F. Hammer, a resident of Linn county for nearly twenty years, is a young man of excellent character, faithful in all that he does. He possesses good clerical ability and is one of the nearest persons in the city. He is in every respect deserving of the position. Ed Meeker, is another Linn county pioneer, and though a farmer, is entirely capable of filling the position of Recorder. He is a good penman and is a reliable man. Some of our best recorders have been from the farm, and Mr. Meeker will be one among them.

Our ticket is particularly fortunate in having a man of the character of T. J. Anderson, of Harrisburg, on it for assessor. He has been a clerk in the store of May & Sanders for about fifteen years, and is peculiarly well fitted for the position besides being popular faithful. He is about forty years of age, is a married man with five or six children and Harrisburg people cannot say enough in his favor.

Mr. R. B. Miller, of Shelburn, nominee for treasurer is an old resident of the county, a man who has been reliable in all things. His accounts will be kept correctly according to the opinions of those knowing him well.

The Democrat has never met the candidate for county school superintendent Prof. W. L. Jackson, of Sodaville, does not even know him by sight, but his record is sufficient to give him a good standing as an educator. He is a teacher of several years experience, is said to be a bright young man of good appearance, and is spoken of in unqualified terms by those where he has taught.

A better selection could not have been made for county commissioner. H. B. Sprenger is a live, up-to-date farmer of Shedd precinct, successful in his undertakings. He is in touch with the people of the county, and can be depended upon to work in the interest of the county.

T. A. Riggs, renominated for surveyor from Crawfordville precinct, is one of Linn County's most reliable pioneers. He has shown his efficiency as a surveyor during the time he has filled the office and there is no better test than that.

Mr. J. G. Norman, renominated for coroner, is a resident of this city. He has attended to the office correctly. The Democrat has noticed that he has had other things in view than simply getting his fees, in several cases saving the county the expense of an inquest where considered it necessary. He has attended to the duties promptly and with judgment.

The Democrat will keep its readers posted as the campaign progresses, endeavoring to treat all men fairly whatever ticket they may be in.

MISFITS.

Mrs. Dewey is now completely out of the presidential race. It is a dull day when Mrs. Dewey does not cause a sensation.

Senator Clark, of Montana, it is reported will be unseated. But he has had a million dollars worth of fun and notoriety already, and that is about all senatorial life amounts to. Statesmanship is rarely the goal these modern days.

Dewey has been nominated for sheriff of Douglas county on the union ticket, and stands a good chance of being elected. Is there anything in a name.

The present congressional horoscope is as the DEMOCRAT has predicted right along, that Tongue will be nominated. It even looks now as if he might get it on the first ballot. The republicans have said enough against him to entitle him to defeat.

The Salem Statesman republican endorses the nomination of the F. E. Finzer, on the union ticket of Marion county, for county clerk, and says it hopes to see him elected. This is something new in Marion county politics.

An Oakland man, who is too modest to permit the use of his name, returned from Albany yesterday evening and reports that Oakland is away ahead of Linn county's metropolitan. Oakland Owl. He had better keep his name out of print if he wishes to keep out of the asylum.

The Boers are having their day now, and a live one. In warfare as in other things it is not always well to count chickens before they are hatched.

The Portland Telegram is making a specialty of reporting gold strikes in the Sumpter district, and the Sumpter district is making a specialty of furnishing them.

That is a funny situation in Marion county. The Statesman, republican, is opposed to the re-election of the republican candidate for county clerk, and the Journal, anti republican, is in favor of him.

The Portland University is to be consolidated with Willamette after being separated from it several years. This is proper. It was small business when it was divided in the first place, displaying a spirit that should not prevail in educational matters.

Hon. J. J. Lents, who delivered the three and a half hour speech in Albany two years ago, did more than any other man to kill the infamous Loud bill, and it looks now as if it was killed to stay dead. It is to be hoped so. Thanks Mr. Lents.

Rev. Meminger's Address.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:

It was enough to humiliate a thinking person, some of the talk uttered at the M. E. church at the last meeting before the delegates of the Epworth League dispersed and before our citizens as well, the talker did opposite to the preacher last Sunday morning in the same pulpit. Don't you think he honored the Oregonian and Mr. Harvey Scott higher than he did the New Voice and John G. Woolley, and also went back on the party he had been voting for and said he never would vote for the prohibition party again, and told the three dog story in order to carry his point, but Sam Jones said once that a person could always tell which dog was hit by the yelp (when throwing a stone in a gang of them.) Mr. Meminger also stated that the New Voice was the worst mud slinger at his church (M. E.) of any paper that he knew of and that John G. Woolley would be out here next month throwing mud too, said he could talk but he was at one time a lowdown drunken lawyer, and so went the talk. No doubt the saloon element and many politicians would have said amen to it.

ALVIN J. CAROTHERS.

Today's War News.

LONDON, April 11.—The British killed and wounded at Wepener Monday fifty-two. Lord Roberts has proclaimed martial law in Cape Colony. The Boers are shelling Blannetburg from three positions. General Gatacre is about to return to England.

Boers on Top.

LONDON, April 11.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Bloemfontein dated Sunday says: Yesterday General Dewet inflicted the third defeat on the British within a week at Merkatfontein, killing and wounding 500. He captured 900 with 12 wagons, losing five Boers killed and nine wounded.

The Daily Mail publishes the following dated April 10 from Lorenzo Marques: The Netherlands Railway Company proposes to have received a telegram reporting a Boer victory near Kroonstad, the Boers capturing 100 British.

England Ashamed.

LONDON, April 11.—But that the War office has issued no news from Lord Roberts during the last three days there would be little disposition to place any credence in the Boer reports of another British disaster. The unexpected rallying of the Free State commandos leaves the public in a very nervous condition, fearing everything.

A Long Campaign.

LONDON, April 10.—Britons are now beginning, though reluctantly, to realize that Lord Roberts is in for a winter campaign, lasting several months. This is in a few words, of the high hopes based upon Robert's brilliant dash to Kimberly and Bloemfontein.

Preparations are being made to hold Bloemfontein against a surprise. LONDON, April 10.—The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, telegraphing Sunday, says: Confirmation has been received at the report that the Boers are in larger considerable force with guns at Donkerspoort, 18 miles southeast. The British scouts report another body still closer. The Boer patrols have grown very daring.

A Big Job.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Great activity was manifested in the House today in getting out the full vote for the approach final contest on the Puerto Rico bill. The urgent telegrams sent by supporters of the bill to absent members brought a number of responses, but it was developed that the number of absentees was unusually large and the telegraphic exchanges gave no positive assurance that all those absent would return.

A Big Elephant.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The discouraging conditions in the Philippines are giving the republicans a great deal of uneasiness. The administration hoped that the troops which had been sent to General Otis would be sufficient to put down the rebellion all over the islands, but it now appears that the guerrilla warfare is just as serious as ever. Gen. Otis and other officers have suggested that more troops were needed.

Injury to Fruit.

GRANT'S PASS, April 9.—Josephine county was visited by heavy frosts Saturday and Sunday nights and the favorable fruit prospects have received a severe blow. The thermometer Sunday night dropped 25 degrees, the coldest night of the winter, the frost setting in about midnight. This morning the outlook for peaches is almost a total failure.

Fruit Ruined.

BOZEMAN, Mont., April 9.—Show has been falling for the past 40 hours and level. The storm is the heaviest in 12 months. Farming lands needed snow or rain and the benefit will be great.

England Sorrowful Again.

LONDON, April 9, 4:40 a. m.—When is borne in mind that all the dispatches from the front are severely censored, there is little in the news to bring satisfaction to England. Assurances that nothing need be feared, even if the railway and telegraph are cut and Bloemfontein isolated altogether, with the news that the ladies and other civilians are being ordered away, do not augur well. There are rumors from Cape Town that telegraph wires were already cut yesterday.

Plenty of Fighting.

MANILA, April 8.—Reports of encounters between the Americans and the insurgents continue to arrive from many points. On Friday, Captain Sturgis, while reconnoitering struck an insurgent outpost of the Nevaliches road, five miles from Manila, killing two and capturing 10. All were in full uniform. Unfortunately, Captain Sturgis force was not large enough to pursue the main body.

Wheat Sale.

PENDLTON, April 8.—T. J. Kirk, of Athens, has just sold 60,000 bushels of wheat. Quite a number of other farmers of Athens and vicinity sold last week the aggregate probably reaching over 100,000 bu. Dave Tayloe, a wheatbuyer stated today that prices had ruled during the week from 39 to 43 cents for No. 1 standard Club, other grades selling at prices based upon this No. 1 quotation.

A Big Boat Capture.

PORTORIA, April 4.—It is officially announced here that at the Bloemfontein water works the republican forces captured 11 officers and 362 men, with 11 guns, two ammunition wagons, other wagons and mules.

The Texas Floods.

HOUSTON, April 8.—As a rule, the Texas rivers are now falling, and there is not much danger of a general flood. The crops have been damaged over a wide area, but there is still time for farmers to replant if they can get the seed. Corn has been planted over once, and will have to be planted the third time.

A Startling Rumor.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—A report was in circulation here tonight that Mrs. Dewey had left the Catholic church and had become an Episcopalian but no verification of the rumor could be obtained.

The meeting of the grievance committees from the various railroad orders and Collis P. Huntington in San Francisco last week, resulted in the S. P. Co. withdrawing the Relief association which was so generally objected to by the employees.

There have been twelve saw mills started up in Lane county within less than a year, says the Junction Bulletin, and probably the least has a capacity of 5,000 feet per day, and up to 100,000 feet per day, and there will be more mills erected during the season as lumber is in great demand.—Register.

One of the prettiest pieces of electric work seen in Albany is a maltese cross of red and white lights, the colors of the Epworth League over the platform in the M. E. church during the district convention of the League. Mr. Joe Ralston was the artist.

W. C. Stellmacher has so'd his delivery business in this city to C. O. Lee, who will take charge of it the first of next month. Mr. Lee will keep up the excellent reputation of the Stellmacher Brothers insuring a good service to the public.

The new express system has been completed in this city, every residence having a telephone being connected. Fifteen new places have taken phones recently mostly residences, and another canvas will be made. It is thought there will be at least two hundred fifty phones here when this is finished. The telephone is becoming more popular as the list of subscribers increases.

Asche Brothers, of Millers, recently sold to Lee Miller eight head of Cotteswold sheep that averaged 164 pounds apiece. Big fellows, Mr. G. A. Asche recently sheared 27 head of goats that averaged 5 pounds to the goat, and eight of them are only yearlings. As the product is worth 27 to 30 cents per pound it indicates a paying business.

Tip Humphrey, of the Jefferson Review, tells of his recent runaway experience in Albany as follows: "In an instant both vehicles were upset, and for a brief time thereafter our observation of passing events was slightly confused, for riding in an overturned buggy top at the rate of about a mile a minute, hitting the ground about every 25 feet, is not a pleasant mode of transit. Finally the top broke off and we tumbled out. A survey of damages showed a wrecked buggy, while numerous bruises and cuts adorned various portions of the anatomy of Mr. Shults and the writer.

NEW YORK, April 10.—An evening World's special says that Admiral Dewey has decided to withdraw his candidacy for the presidency.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The river and harbor bill will contain Columbia river appropriation.

W. N. Miller launched his str about boat on the Willamette and Calapooia yesterday. It is going to work all right. Quay's fate will be decided on April 24.

Linn County Council P. of H.

The Linn County Business Council was held with Grand Prairie Grange No. 10, April 7th, 1900. At the appointed hour the hall was filled to overflowing with leading grangers from far and near.

Worth President C. L. Shaw presided. The work of the day opened with a song and then prayer was offered by Chaplain C. H. Walker.

Granges represented were: Oak Plain, Tanager, Charity, Harmony, Sand Ridge, Halsey, Fairmount and Grand Prairie. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The resolution in regard to the road law was taken up and after being thoroughly discussed was adopted. A resolution from the board of trade of the city of Chicago was adopted, also House bill 3717 known as the "Grant bill" was adopted and a petition ordered sent requesting the passage of said bill.

Dinner being announced the president declared a recess for one hour which was spent in feasting and fraternal greeting. The sisters of Grand Prairie grange, the banner grange of the state, had prepared one of their best dinners and every one returned to the hall filled, and with pleasing expressions to take up the duties of the afternoon and also thankful that they belonged to such a noble and beneficial order.

Afternoon session opened with a song. Mrs. Can't-I favored the council with a splendid recitation, Mr. C. H. Walker read a paper entitled "A Man With a Cow" which was instructive and very appreciable.

The questions given out at previous meeting in regard to woman's house work and in regard to reducing the expense of our county government was taken up and ably discussed.

The following were selected for discussion at next meeting which will be with Charity Grange. 1st. Resolved, That parents should furnish more home amusement for their children. Leaders, Meadames, Leeper, Swank and Bond.

2d. What plan can we adopt to permanently increase the productivity of our farms? Leaders, C. L. Saw, J. H. Scott and M. V. Leeper.

A full delegation is requested to be present at next meeting as some important business is to come before the council. W. W. C.

A MASQUEBADA PARTY. One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a masquerade party given at the G. A. R. hall last evening by the popular young girls and boys of this city.
