Following is the platform adopted: Whereas, The only hope of viewing a victory over the McKinley gold standard dynasty, is to remember that, "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" and apply that maxim rigidly to all our conventional work from the primaries up to our national conventions. And Whereas, these usurpers are planning to defeat W. J. Bryan by treachery in the democratic national convention, therefore, be it Resolved by this convention, That the delegates selected by us to attend our state convention at Portland on the 12th of this month, are hereby instructed as follows: 1st. To work and vote for a union of all parties that are in favor of hurling from power the autocrats that are planning the subversion of this government.

2nd. To vote only for union delegates to attend our national convention; men that favor the Chicago platform of 1896, and W. J. Bryan as our standard bearer, and oppose trusts, imperialism and militarism, and to instruct them accordingly. Whereas, the various counties of the state of Oregon under republican control are largely involved in debt and the tax payers thereof are burdened with heavy taxes to enable the county courts thereof to meet the large interest charges on the indebtedness as well as the current expenses of those counties most unfortunately for them now ruled by republicans, and Whereas, The county of Li populist and democratic control in all its departments except assessor during the past four years is entirely free from debt has built a fine court house, bought a good farm for use of the indigent poor and placed thereon some excellent buildings besides improving roads and bridges without incurring one dollar of indebtedness, is worthy of all commendation. Be it therefore Resolved by the peoples party of Linn county in convention assembled, That we cordially endorse and approve the economical method of conducting the affairs of the county in all the various departments under control of populists and democrats during the past four years, and we respectfully ask that all independent voter of Linn county join with the reform forces and cast their votes for the reform candidates in order that such an economical system of administering the financial affairs of the county may be continued and that low taxation consistent with prudent care of the best interests of the county may be assured.

H. M. PALMER, C. B. MONTAGUE, Committee. After the conventions an assembly of electors was held in the court house. H C Watson was elected chairman and A Lewelling secretary. The officers nominated by the separate conventions were made the nominees of the joint assembly of electors. The candidates had been called to the platform and were called upon, being preceded by Hon Geo E Chamberlain, who spoke encouragingly. He was followed by Col Montague, H M Palmer, B F Ramp and T J McClary.

Don't Want Tongue.

A correspondent in the Oregonian signing himself, One of the Delegates says: The fact is, many of the Republicans of this county consider it injudicious to nominate Mr. Tongue at this time, on account of the disaffection of the German vote towards him, as well as on account of the un-American position he has assumed on the Puerto Rican bill. I do not desire to discuss Mr. Tongue further than to say as pleasantly as possible to his appointee, and the men that compose his push, that the delegation from Linn has not selected a second choice, as they intend to nominate Judge Hewitt if they can.

It is learned from a republican paper at Lebanon that the middle of the road populists will hold a convention at Lebanon on next Saturday for the purpose of making arrangements for a county convention and elect delegates to a state convention.

An enjoyable day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robinson, near Plainview, Thursday, March 29th. Many friends and neighbors being present. A bountiful feast was spread all in honor of Mr. Robinson's 40th birthday. May he and all those present live to enjoy many returns of the happy event.

The rate on the new city warrant issued to Dr. Dodd in order to pay off the old bridge warrant is at the regular rate of interest and 2 per cent discount instead of 4 per cent as first reported and asked. A dispatch was received from Portland yesterday afternoon that the company had withdrawn all suits at their own cost, a saving of over $300 to the city.

Bryan spoke in Portland last night to an audience of ten thousand people packed in the exposition building. The Oregonian devotes twelve columns to his speech and then makes eight editorial comments on him including a long editorial. This indicates that it is really thought that there is something more than words in his speech. The truth is that his speech is full of cream and is one of the most thoughtful efforts of this age.

FRIDAY.

A Fine Entertainment

There was a large audience at the Presbyterian church last evening to see the splendid pictures of Alaskan people and scenery and hear the talk of Dr. Finks about the Alaskans. The speaker took the audience on a delightful trip from the southern point to Cape Barrows on the frigid north, explaining the pictures in a delightful manner and giving them an idea of Alaska that can be obtained in no other way except by actual travel. The wonderful advancement that can be made by education and Christianity was displayed in a marked manner in several instances. To night the pictures will be on our own country and will give one an idea about things new to them. The admission is only ten cents. Do not miss it.

The Epworth League.

The district Epworth League of the M. E. church will convene in the M. E. church at 7:30 o'clock tonight and sessions will be held morning, afternoon and evening closing Monday evening. To night the program will consist of a singing service, followed by an address of welcome of the Albany League by Miss Clara Gard and by N. M. Ne:port on behalf of the church. The response will be by the President J. W. Menzies of Lebanon. Saturday forenoon will be devoted to reports and the afternoon to papers on important subjects by Ernest Rhodes, Minnie Porter and Gertrude Grouseck. Saturday evening there will be an entertainment by the Indian Epworthians of the Siletz mission, with an address by U. S. Grant and an exhibition of Indian curios. Sunday there will be a sunrise prayer meeting at 6 o'clock, lead by Addie Simpson, a sermon at 10:30 by Dr. Ford, the Lord's supper at 3 p. m., and in the evening addresses by Rev. R. C. Lee and T. S. McDaniel president of the Portland District League.

Monday forenoon after devotional exercises there will be business, election of officers and a talk by G. F. Skipworth on the lag-behinds. In the afternoon there will be addresses and talks by Prof. G. B. Prentiss, Robert Collins, C. L. Starr and Mrs. Belle Crisp. The convention will close Monday evening with the temperance question, the addresses being by Rev. W. B. Hollingshead and Rev. S. E. Meminger. The young people of the city belonging to other societies are earnestly invited to attend all the meetings and unite in the exercises.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The time of the circuit court today has been taken up with the case of L. S. La Du agt John Savage et al. It is for a mining claim, and has been contested in a very live manner. Weatherford & Wyatt and Hewitt & Sox appear for the plaintiff and W. P. Bilyeu and H. C. Watson for the defendant.

A divorce was granted Annie R. Beard from Henry W. Beard.

In the case of Thos. Morgan agt P. H. Marley the court rendered a decision of great importance. Marley bought the farm of Morgan at delinquent tax sale, and in due time received the regular tax deed from the sheriff. The suit was brought by the sheriff to set aside the deed on the grounds of irregularity in the proceeds that lead up to the deed. The court held that the law should be strictly followed and every irregularity is sufficient to set the deed aside. There being irregularities previous the deed was ordered set aside. Otherwise the plaintiff would receive property worth about $1000 for only $6. In the meantime the defendant has received about 20 per cent interest on the investment.

The divorce case of Mrs. S. M. W. Hindman against her husband excited considerable interest, and was warmly contested. The divorce was granted.

In the case involving the ownership of the wheat in the warehouses of the late T. J. Black the court ordered the wheat remaining to be delivered to the owners retaining fifteen per cent to meet the expenses of the receivership. The title to the wheat in the hands of Balfour Guthrie & Co., has not yet been decided. There is about 65,000 bushels in all the warehouses.

Cashier J. E. Enyart has purchased five lots from Conrad Mings in block No. 44, Medford, paying $400 for the same. Mr. Enyart has plans made for a residence which he expects to build there this season. If Jee puts up a residence like the plan he now has mapped out, he will have a home just a little prettier and more convenient than anything in Medford.—Mail, Mrs Enyart is a sister of Lawyer A. M. Cannon and Mrs. Maston, of this city.

The house of representatives in the state capital is to be remodeled at a cost of $8,885. Erb & Van Patton have the contract.

The tax roll, as by law required, was turned over by Sheriff Rickard, Monday, to the county clerk. The total amount of taxes so far collected, as shown by the footings of the roll, is $26,400. The original aggregate to be collected was $66,104.30, leaving a balance still to be collected of $39,704.30. In other words the delinquency is almost two-thirds of the entire amount to be collected.—Corvallis Times.

Regular meeting Native Daughter a G. A. R. Hall, tomorrow at 2:30. W. H. Buoy, C & E agent at Toledo, came over this noon after another barrel of soothing syrup. The youngsters are already nearly large enough for a whistling Buoy in the bay.

Mr. William Cochran, one of Linn county's best known pioneer citizens is lying dangerously ill at Rowland. He received a paralytic stroke last Sunday and has since been gradually failing.

Elder Newton, who held evangelistic services in Albany a year or two ago, was in the city today on his way to Plainview. He has been working along temperance lines in Portland for several months. Mr. Newton has just received word that a son who went to South Africa had died at Cape Colony from illness.

It's All Right.—The new express system is now at work on the telephone exchange, and is proving a fine thing. Albany is the smallest city in the northwest and one of the smallest in the United States that has this system. It is up-to-date, and is a fine thing. All you do is to take down the receiver and the phone does the rest. It sets the business running only stops when the receiver is put up. This prevents all eavesdropping, and keeps the central office absolutely in touch with the entire system.

Prof. Resler, the accomplished principal of the Eugene schools, was in the city yesterday.

Hons. Geo. E. Chamberlain and M. A. Miller went to Eugene yesterday with W. J. Bryan.

Mrs. Ben Barker and son George of Astoria have been in the city several days on a visit at A. D.'s and George P.'s.

Thomas Zosman and family have moved to Salem to locate in business. He has been a bar tender in Albany for several years.

Henry Broders, the prosperous butcher, left yesterday on a trip to his old home in Europe, and will be gone several months. He has well earned the vacation.

Capt. Bigney and her lieutenant have returned from Scio, where they have been several days and will resume services at the barracks tonight. There will also be meetings tomorrow night and Sunday night.

The Native Son, just out among other interesting things contains a poem entitled Wagnette, by Geo. A. Wagoner, a son of Hon. Geo. Wagoner for many years a resident of Corvallis. The author was a school boy in Albany many years ago. The poem is copyrighted and therefore cannot be copied.

Rev. W. E. Copeland, of Salem, will give a lecture in Peares Memorial church next Saturday night beginning at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "The cancer on our social system and how to remove it." On Sunday morning at 11, he will speak on the subject: "The crimson flood, or is there salvation out of Christ." A cordial invitation is extended to all to both of these services.

Hon. Ralph Moody, D. D. G. E. R., and Henry Griffin, E. R., both of Portland, are among those in the city to attend the Elks banquet tonight. This promises to be one of the most elaborate banquets ever held in Albany. It will be given in the store room recently vacated by F. E. Allen & Co., and will begin at 10:30 o'clock just after the close of the theatre, when the entire Smith company will attend by invitation.

J. P. Combs, one of the first settlers of Ochocho valley, died at his home in Prineville last Sunday aged 79 years. Mr. Combs was an Oregon pioneer, and served through several Indian wars during the early days in this state. He was a man whom all respected for his sterling qualities, and was one of the foremost citizens of Crook county. Mr. Combs was a former resident of Linn county, and has many relatives and friends here who will regret the news of his death.

J. E. Cyrus, of Scio, at one time proprietor of the Albany Lunch Counters, and Dr. Todd of the same place, left last night for Holquim, Cuba, where they will buy land and locate. Dr. Todd has a brother there who was at one time chief engineer for the insurgents during the trouble with Spain. Good land can be bought for $1 an acre, upon which anything can be raised.

Liveryman J. A. Perry has purchased a dwelling lot from J. A. Morey, paying therefor $200. We would like to say that this is one of the very best building spots in all Medford but the property "jibes" onto the little three-cornered parcel of realty which The Mail owns a sense of blowing our own horn over Mr. Perry's shoulder comes over us and we don't dare say it. He will probably build a fine residence thereon this summer.—Medford Mail. Mr. and Mrs. Perry are former Linn county people.

Walter Davis, of Salem, is firing on a freight train on the S. F.

Mr. W. E. Arnold, the popular merry-go-round man, has been in the city. Don Ross came up from Portland last night to attend the Elk's banquet.

President J. J. Hill, of the Great Northern, arrived in Portland last night. Louis Barzee is the nominee on the union ticket of Douglas county for school superintendent.

Hon. M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, was here last night. Mr. Miller has been traveling over the state with Mr. Bryan and congratulates the people of Roseburg and Douglas county on the completeness of the arrangements for the reception of the great leader here. They were fully equal to the preparation made by any other town in the state. Mr. Miller believes the Bryan sentiment to be constantly increasing and he will be here in November.—Roseburg Review.

The Elks Banquet.

The B. P. O. Elks gave a banquet last evening, that was one of the most elaborate affairs ever presented in the city. Previous to the banquet a social session was held in the hall, attended by over one hundred guests, including besides the Elks, many prominent business men of the city and several members of Have You Seen Smith company.

Remarks were made by the Grand Exalted Ruler Ralph Moody and Henry Griffin E. R. of the Portland Elks and there were songs and talks by the Smith crowd, of a humorous character. Henry Griffin was appointed chairman and took the gavel with Chas. Burggraf and Chas. Rawlings as special policemen. Every man present was taken before his honor and fined, for example a brother newspaper man was fined 25 cents for being an editor and 25 cents for being in the crowd, a banker 50 cents for being one and 60 cents for being guilty of leading a railroad man 50 cents, the railroad man having been fined 50 cents for being connected with the Christian Endeavor Railroad. Agent Turner was not only fined but given a live lecture for past offenses, John Holman had to put up a dollar for speaking to the show women and for being a foundryman, and so it went from one to another, and it was about 1:30 o'clock when the company adjourned to the banquet hall in the Tweedale hall, where an artistically arranged room and a complete spread prepared by Meier & McKillop at a cost of $1.25 a plate awaited them.

The menu was elegantly gotten up embracing all the delicacies of the season, doing credit to the caterers. It was followed by several impromptu toasts, in which Mr. Moody, Mr. Griffin, Mayer Davis and Henry Hopkins and others were heard in remarks suitable to the occasion.
