Deal Work

The New York News says, we do not know whether there was any special virus about the assembly of the Kentucky Democratic State Conventhat State. But that the doctrine enunciated was orthodox-sound Democratic doctrine-thoroughly in accord, in short, with the principles of the Democratic party, cannot be denied after a perusal of them. We give them entire:

It is for this families from the East among us at inconceivably stupid and criminal ministration. President Grant entered upon this mode when he knew better, and when he was advised differently by the experience of Generals Sherman and Sheridan. It was, therefore, no mistake. He continued and persisted in it with that characteristic obstinacy, generally mistaken by his admirers for firmness, in spite of the united protest of the people of Oregon, and long after it had failed. This was not a blunder. It was a crime against Oregon, deliberately entered upon and persistently followed.
