Daniel Webster is not the only bright boy born in the United States. Another has been discovered-a youth residing in Powder River Valley, Oregon, who refused to take a pill. His crafty mother thereupon secretly placed the pill in a preserved pear, and gave it to him. Presently she asked: "Tom, have you eaten the pear?" He said, "Yes, mother, all but the seed."

The girls in this valley are not so fastidious as the girls of other places. They do not require their lover to have the wisdom of Solomon, the beauty of Apollo, or the riches of Crossus. REASON WHY .- The reason this paper is much more readable this week, than usual, is entirely owing to the fact that the Editor has been absent part of the time.

FARMERS have generally finished their haying in the Valley. The crop is reported as excellent.

Laura Fair has struck a balance sheet, and finds it cost $11,100 to settle Crittenden's case.

A writer says that "what the true man most wants of a wife is her companionship, sympathy, courage and love." He is right. The true man wants his wife's companionship when he has got to get up in the apples, pears, peaches, plums and cherries, of the finest varieties; also a large variety of bearing grape vines; about one acre of land cellar. Her courage is eminently valuable in the general neighborhood debates over the possession of some domestic article, and her love is absolutely findispensable when he gets in late.
