PRAYER MEETING.—A prayer meeting will be held at the District School House, on Thursday evening of this week.

ACADEMY.—The Baker City Academy opened last Monday week, with quite a large number of regular scholars. Mr. and Mrs. Barrett are good teachers and have done a great deal to build up the reputation of this excellent institution of learning.

CHAPIN, the energetic agent of the well known house of A. P. Hotaling & Co., of San Francisco and Portland, was in our city last week on business for his house.

INCORPORATE.—McDougal Encampment, No. 3, I. C. of R. C., we understand, intend to incorporate under the laws of Oregon.

Col. H. C. Paige, Wells Fargo & Co's. Division Agent, returned from Boise City on last Sunday evening.

MRS. JAMES HENDERSHOTT, of the Cove, has the finest article of Cordial, which she made from Raspberries this year, that we ever remember to have smacked our lips over.

CLEANED UP.—The prisoners at the Jail have been doing duty the past week clearing off the Court House Block.

THE COUNTY COURT was in session last week, with Judge McFarland and Commissioner Scofield present.

S. GRIER and family and Charley Kellogg's family are on a short visit to Walla Walla, and our friend Kellogg looks quite lonesome.

RACES.—Are we to have races over the Baker City Race Course this fall? If so, it is time there was some preparations being made.

V. PFEIFFENBERGER has bought a part interest in the Bank Exchange Saloon in this city.

PAP LEVINS has went a hunting, but his saloon is running as usual.

CLARENCE WHITE, of Gem City, is on a short visit to this city.

SICKNESS.—Physicians inform us that there is considerable sickness in our Valley. We are pleased to learn that it is not of a serious character. Judge Haines, of our city, had a very severe attack of Cholera Morbus last week, but is about again. John R. McLain is getting along as well as could be expected, with his broken leg.

CLOSED.—The business houses, in accordance with notice given them, have been closed during the past two Sundays; this made trade dull on those days, but made it lively for the Livery Stables, of which we have two, and they both keep good, fast and safe teams, and nice easy buggies to ride in.

GOOD CROPS.—We are informed that the yield of oats per acre on Burnt River is about fifty bushels. Cicely, on his ranch, raised about four hundred bushels of the very best quality of wheat. Crops of all kinds done well there this season.

DR. YOUK CHU, as will be seen by reference to his professional card in another column, has located in Baker City, and will attend strictly to his profession. Persons who have been treated by the Dr. recommend him highly. He reads, writes and speaks English.

Chas. St. Louis has located permanently in Baker; and is now prepared to manufacture and repair all kinds of jewelry and watches. After twenty-eight years experience in the business, he feels competent to give entire satisfaction.

ROBBERY.—On Monday evening Mr. McGuire was robbed of two Ladies' fine gold watches. The watches were taken out of his wagon, it is supposed, by a man who had been working for him. The watches were worth about $200.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for September, is on our table. It is one of the most welcome visitors that we receive, and the ladies of our family would not be without this Magazine on any account.

SAM OTTENHEIMER intends to leave for below, the latter part of this week, to lay in his fall and winter stock of goods, and would be pleased to have his friends call and see him before he leaves.

FALL FIGHTS.—There was a little unpleasantness between two of our citizens on the street last Monday.—One of them picked himself up off of the ground and walked away.

COMPLAINING.—The Editor of this paper is rather under the weather this week, and the "Devil" runs the office.

Look at our new sign. Duncan McLane painted it for us.

SHERIFF SHINN is east of the mountains collecting taxes.

WE shall visit Canyon City next week.

The most chronic cure of chronic diarrhoea we ever heard of is that of Wm. Clark, Frankfort Mills, Waldo Co., Maine, the facts are attested by Ezra Treat, Upton Treat and M. A. Merrill, either of whom might be addressed for particulars. Mr. Clark was cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

Hon. Joseph Farewell, Mayor of Rockland, Me., Isaac M. Bragg, Esq., Bangor, and Messrs. Pope Bros, Machias, Me., lumber merchants, fully endorsed the Sheridan Cavalry Condition Powders, and have given the proprietors liberty to use their names in recommending them.

HOW IT IS VIEWED.—From a late California paper we copy the following:

Correspondents of Southern papers mention the fact that the first picture purchased by the Centennial Committee is a representation of the battle of Gettysburg, with the Confederates getting badly worsted, and ask: "Is this the kind of entertainment they are to furnish us?"

The Centennial should not be open to such an objection. Americans have won victories enough over foreign foes to furnish any desired number of subjects for patriotic sketches; and while we yield to no one in gratitude to those who fought for the Union against the Confederate hosts, we conceive it to be in wretched taste to select the Centennial as an occasion for reviving sectional hatreds.

The Idaho Statesman says:—Judge Shepherd, of the BEDROCK DEMOCRAT, Baker City, came in by yesterday morning's stage, and left for home by the 4 o'clock stage. His visit was short and sweet. Shep looks as natural as ever—head up and in the best of spirits, as usual.—We guess the DEMOCRAT is paying well.

When a chap marries a Texas widow he delicately mentions his good luck by inserting in the marriage notice that the wedding took place at the "bride's beautiful home."

"Madame," said Gen. Butler to Mrs. Woodhull, "if you are going into politics, the first thing you do is to lose your character.—I destroyed mine years ago and have been perfectly happy ever since."

Love matches are often formed by people who pay for a month of honey with a life of vinegar.

Undeveloped Vigor.

The feeble and debilitated usually fancy they are in a more hopeless condition than they really are. The resources of nature are not easily exhausted. Even when strength and appetite fail, when the eyes are heavy and lustreless, the complexion pallid, the nerves tremulous, the body attenuated, and the mind depressed, there is generally a reserve of latent power behind such palpable evidences of weakness. Various modes of treatment are resorted to by physicians in the hope of developing and rendering available this store of sleeping vitality, but the surest, and indeed the only thorough and reliable means of awakening the dormant energies of the system is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Electricity, shower baths, the flesh brush, sea bathing, &c., may be well enough in their way, as auxiliaries, but they do not reach the source of the evil. All physical debility proceeds either from a derangement of the assimilating, or from a sluggish constitution. In either case, and also in cases where both causes exist the Bitters will invariably produce an immediate and salutary change in the condition of the patient and eventually effect a complete cure.

Symptoms of Catarrh. Indisposition to exercise, difficulty of thinking or reasoning, or concentrating the mind upon any subject, lassitude, lack of ambition or energy, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, acrid, thick and tenacious mucus, purulent, offensive, &c. In others dryness, watery, weak or inflamed eyes, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear throat, ulcerations, death and decay of bones, scabs from flcers, constant desire to clear nose and throat, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, difficulty in speaking plainly, general debility, idiosyncrasy and insanity.

All the above symptoms are common to the disease in some of its stages or complications, yet thousands of cases annually terminate in consumption or insanity, and end in the grave without ever having manifested one-third of the symptoms above enumerated. No disease is more common or less understood by physicians. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay $500 reward for a case of catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists, or send sixty cents to I. V. Pierce, M. D., 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., for it. A pamphlet free. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. Remember that the genuine has the words "I. V. Pierce, M. D., Sole Proprietor, Buffalo, N. Y." printed upon the wrapper; also has Dr. Pierce's portrait, name and address on his private Government stamp upon each package.

For the very best Photographs, go to Bradley & Rufolson's Gallery without stairs. Ascend in the ELEVATOR, 429 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.
