BEDROCK DEMOCRAT, Second Edition.

For the benefit of subscribers in certain localities, we issue a second edition of the DEMOCRAT on every Monday morning, which contains all the news of importance received at this city up to Saturday noon.

FOR CONGRESS, COL. JAMES W. NESMITH, OF POLK COUNTY. LOOK OUT.

The Salem Mercury says: "We have information, from a source we regard as entirely reliable, to the effect that the administration at Washington is practicing a most scurvy trick upon the people of Oregon, in regard to the Modoc Indian prisoners. We learn that the time for the execution of Capt. Jack and his fellow murderers, who were tried and condemned by Court Martial, is fixed to take place about a week before our special election for Congressman is to come off; and it is said that those murderers would be allowed to go free, were it not for the apprehension in regard to the result of that election. As it is, the execution may be postponed; and if it should be, it will never take place.—We are told that the other murderers, those who imbrued their hands in the blood of settlers, will not be turned over to the civil authorities, in compliance with the demand of Governor Grover; but that they will be allowed to go free. The vague report that these murderers will be so handed over, is a mere trick, to allay the excitement in Southern Oregon, and thus conciliate the votes of the people in that section for the Republican candidate. The execution of Jack and his crew will most likely take place, but if it is intended to hand the other murderers over to the civil authorities, why is it not done? Why this delay, week after week? It could as well have been done months since, as to be so unreasonably delayed. If the authorities at Washington are acting in good faith, toward our civil authorities, why do they not put us in possession of these wretches at once, as our Governor has demanded? This unnecessary delay looks suspicious; it looks like a trick and we have no doubt it is a trick. Jack and his followers murdered General Canby and other high officials; very likely, therefore, they may be executed; but the other bloody scoundrels murdered only private citizens mere squatters, perhaps, therefore, they will be allowed to escape the halter. The petition of the Quakers and other fanatics will be listened to and heeded, while the blood of murdered citizens vainly cries from the ground, for justice upon their accursed destroyers. If the delivery of the indicted murderers be not immediate, it may be taken for granted that no such purpose is intended.

The Portland News says: "Immediately upon the nomination of Mr. Hiram Smith, he was waited upon by Col. Nesmith, and invited by the latter to meet him in debate upon the stump. Mr. Smith declined. It would have been much more agreeable to Col. Nesmith and his friends if his opponent had been a man capable of taking the stump, and not afraid to do so. It seems that the Democracy have a skulking enemy to fight. However much this is to be regretted, yet there appears no way of avoiding it."

Mr. Nichols, a member of the Republican Convention at Albany, in a speech made in that body, said that in the white washing resolution was passed by that body, Col. Nesmith would get two hundred majority in Polk County. The resolution did pass. Who doubts the verification of Mr. Nichol's prophesy? Col. Nesmith will get in Polk County a majority of two hundred—and more.

A dispatch of Sept. 17th, from Chicago, says that city was visited by another great fire which had destroyed thirty-six blocks.

LATE NEWS.

GRAND HAVEN, Mich., Sept. 15.—The propeller Ironsides, one of the largest steamers on the Lakes, foundered within seven miles of this port to-day. Her signal of distress was hoisted at 9 o'clock this morning, but so terrible was the sea and heavy the wind, that no assistance could reach her. She was laboring in the trough of the sea from about 8:30 A. M., until the time she sank. The passengers and crew, of which there were nineteen of the former and thirty of the latter, prepared boats to leave her at about 10:30 A. M., and the last boat left her at 10:50 A. M. When the last boat had got about a quarter of a mile from her, she went down. There were five boats. One of them, having five men and four women, capsized, and only one man of all these reached the shore. Four boats have reached the shore up to this time. The boat with Captain Sweetman and wife and five passengers has not been heard from. It is feared they are all lost. Twelve passengers are known to have been saved. Fourteen bodies have been recovered.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 15.—The following dispatch was received here tonight: To the Agent of the Associated Press:—The latest advices from Shreveport represent the yellow fever as unabated, and the distress in the city endurable. Of six men in our telegraph office, five have taken the fever and two died. Intermittents average 30 or 40 daily, in a population perhaps of not over 4,000. All the physicians and nurses are worked down. The people of the country should know these terrible facts and send aid to this suffering city.

LORD C. BAKER, Supt. SHREVEPORT, La., 15.—The fever is still raging and the weather is unfavorable. Sixty per cent of those attacked die. There is great suffering in all classes for want of proper nursing. Citizens are doing all in their power to check the disease. Intermittents yesterday numbered 22.—There were many deaths last night. The Howard Association is greatly in need of assistance. G. J. Rea, manager of the Western Union Telegraph office here, died today.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—President Orton, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has issued the following order addressed to the Superintendents of the company throughout the country: "Instruct all managers to send free, messages relating to relief of citizens of Shreveport, and at the request of the Governor or U. S. Senators of Louisiana direct that contributions of money be received and transferred by telegraph without charge." By this action on the part of the telegraph company money can be forwarded instantly to sufferers, whereas by course of mail it would require some ten days to get there, by which time the needy might be past relief. Any one feeling inclined to contribute to aid the stricken people of Shreveport can send without expense by paying it in at any Western Union Station.—Contributions are already going forward from this point.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 15.—The wildest rumors prevailed to-day with regard to the yellow fever. Trains leaving on various roads were crowded with persons fleeing from the scourge.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 14.—There is considerable excitement here to-day in consequence of the address published this morning by the Board of Health in regard to the prevalence of yellow fever, and a great many people have left the city. Several new cases are reported in the Southern part of the city this afternoon.—The total number of interments reported to the Board to-day was 14—11 from yellow fever. The weather is unusually cool and it is hoped that an early frost will soon stop the progress of the disease.

New York, Sept. 15.—Walt. Bray, while riding on the front platform of a Third Avenue car last night, struck an Italian street sweeper on the head with a car book, because he did not get out of the way as promptly as the driver wished. The wound will probably prove fatal. Bray was arrested.

On the recent voyage to New York of the steamship City of Brooklyn, a woman who was a steerage passenger, became insane from sickness, and threw her little boy, four years old, overboard, then, with her baby in her arms, jumped into the sea. She was rescued, but the child was drowned.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 14.—A fire occurred here which totally destroyed the old Broadway Hotel, except the portion rebuilt for the Postoffice and that part intended for the office of the Daily Press. Total loss about $10,000.

Iowa has more insane patients than any other State in the Union—but has also fewer idiots.

CHICAGO, September 14.—The remains of Gen. Edwin S. McCook, of Dakota Territory, assassinated in Yankton on Friday last, passed thro' here Monday, enroute to St. Louis, where they will be interred. Gov. Edward S. McCook, of Colorado, arrived here this morning, enroute for Washington, where he first learned of his cousin's death, yesterday morning.

Pittsburg, September 14.—On Saturday evening there were no less than five fatal accidents on the Pennsylvania Railroad, within thirty miles of Pittsburg. Three of the accidents occurred within city limits.

BAYONNE, Sept. 14.—Eve.—The Republicans are reconnoitering the Carlist position at Vergara, in Guipuzcoa, evidently with the intention of making an attack. News of an engagement hourly expected. The Republican force far out numbers that of the Carlist, but the latter are strongly entrenched.

MADRID, Sept. 15.—Private dispatches deny the truth of the reports that the Republican troops in the North under Gen. Santapa Loma met with a severe defeat; on the contrary the engagement resulted in a victory for the Government forces, the Carlists being defeated with great slaughter. The number of insurrectionists engaged was 14,000 while that of the Republicans was only 10,000.
