Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention-I am not a mendicant at your doors. I do not beg for bread; I raise it [loud applause]; and after a life of fifty three years, thirty of which have been spent among you, I am not inclined to say

"Pity the sorrows of a poor old man, Whose trembling limbs have borne him to your door.' [Laughter and applause.] I want nothing from you except to be let alone. I was waited upon at the hotel a few moments ago, and told that a resolution had been passed by you giving each of the candidates ten minutes' time to address the Convention. But I do not know whether I can be considered in the category of a candidate or not. Some friends-partial, kind friends-have asked me to submit my name to this very honorable and respectable Convention of the Democratic party. In an imprudent moment, perhaps, I told them that while I had no desire for the position, I would, if it pleased you, accept the nomination and do the best I could to bear your flag to triumph and victory. [Loud ap plause.] If there is a man on this floor who can get up and say that Ihaveask. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon ed him or approached him for hissupport, I would like to see him do so. [A voice-"Can't do it." I stand here, my fellow citizens, after a residence among you of thirty years. Thirty years ago on the 24th of last Oc. To B. D. Buford, the above named Defendtober, I traveled in a canoe past the ant site of this place—a humble mechanic, a poor boy-without education, without means; and whatever I am I have wrought out by my own hands, my own brains [Cheers]. Well, this is rather a singular proceeding. I is rather a singular proceeding. I had thought you would have prepared your platform before asking your candidates to speak. I am not here, then, to speak, to a platform or make one. I make only a few general statements. I wish it to be distinctly to the speak police that this Sumstatements. I wish it to be distinctly understood that I have never breathed a word against any of the gentlemen who have been mentioned as candidates. I have simply said, as I have said always, that the great ultimatum which interests the people of this country is the success of the Democratic party. I might stand INTHECIRCUIT COURT, OF THE STATE here for two hours and tell you what I have done for Oregon. If time will permit I will enumerate a few of the things. When I went to Congress there never had been a dollar appropriated to defend any port north dant. of San Francisco. I got $100,000 for the improvement of the mouth of the Columbia. I got $30,000 to dredg the Willamette and open up the river on or before the eighth day of October, A. there was the wagon road from the Dalles: the wagon road from Eugene to Eastern Oregon; another from Albany across the mountains; and one from Corvallis to the coast. All these works were the result of bills which I drew up or supported in their incention and consummation their incention and consummation their incention and consummation. The increase of your mail facilities D. 1873. was a work in which I also took some share, and I gave my earnest support to the reduction of those great Indian reservations which were overrunning the country, depriving white In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon men of good farms and giving them men of good farms and giving them over to savages-a policy which we Patrick Ivory, Prif have still reason to deplore—along B. D. Buford Dert with that accursed and damnable To B. D. Buford the abovenamed defendant Peace Policy, adopted by the present administration, which means simply free will to the Indians and the scalping knife for the whites .-[Applause.] Against this Peace Policy I have raised my voice. If I were a demagogue, which I disclaim to be, this would be a fine opportunity for me to say a great many hand some things about our party. I dislike to do so. I tell you honestly, as God is my judge, that I do not desire your nomination. Few men would have the frankness to say this gust, 1873, as God is my judge, that I do not de--but as I said at the outset, I am not a mendicant at your doors. I lived in Oregon before any man in this town stepped upon the soil. [Applause.] Let me say that with the nomination of some be better satisfied than with my own nomination. My personal affairs are such that I can ill afford to neglect them. I do not say this in any them. I do not say this in any sour grape expectation. I say it honestly and fearlessly, as every man who knows me will acknowledge. Frame a pure and strong platform; select the man you think best fitted to uphold it, and take my word for it, that on the 13th of October, as the setting sun showers its glimmering rays

the treatment and cure of all private and chronic Diseases, Cases of Secresy, and all Sexual Dis-

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. W K. DOHERTY returns his sintheir patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of Diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urinary Organs, and all private diseases, viz: Syphilis in all its forms and stages, Seminal Weakness and all the horrid consequences of self-abuse, gon-orrhea, gleet, strictures, nocturnal and di-urnal emissions, sexual debility, diseases of the back and loins, infiammation of the bladder and kidneys, etc.; and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice, will continue to insure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He cures no mercury, charges moderate. treats his patients in a correct and honorable way and has references of unquestionable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him, by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment and implict secrecy.

To Females.

When a female is in trouble, or afflicted with disease, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derengement of digestive functions, general debility, vaginitis, all diseases of the womb, hysteria, sterility, and all other diseases peculiar to females. she should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. K. DOHERTY, at his medical Institute, and consult him about her troubles and disease. The Doctor is effecting more cures than any other physician in the state of California. Let no faise delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately and save yourself from painful sufferings and premature death. All married ladies, whose delicate health or other circumstances prevent an increase in their families, should write or call at Dr. W. K. DOHERTY's Medical Institute, and they will receive every pos-ible relief and help. The Doctor's offices are so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of observation.

To Correspondents.

Patients residing in any part of the state, however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of Dr. Doherty in their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respect-fully assured that their communications will be held most sacred and confidential. If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be unnecessary, as instructions for diet, regimen and the general treatment of the case itself (including the remedies) will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no idea of and in such a manner as to convey no idea of the purport of the letter or parcel so trans-will and does rener and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affec-tions of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may re.y for fall protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children amid the distressing diseases which best the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premate graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and such against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will sufe troublesome Influenza and painful Broke chitis, when they know how easily they can to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will present the hair from turning gray or falling of and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive.
