Messes. Bamberger & Frank deerve great credit for the manner in hich they have their new store om arranged, and it has cost them arge amount of money. This, in connection with their large new stock of goods, and the freights thereon makes it necessary for them to use lots of cash, therefore, they hope and expect that their friends will come forward and settle their outstanding accounts. The boys want money, and those owing them hould come up and settle.

SAM OTTENHIEMER left for Portand and San Francisco last week to ay in his fall and winter stock of gods. He will be back in about three weeks, with a large stock of goods suitable for this market. WE forgot to mention the fact that visit, and a safe and speedy return. gomery Street, San Francisco.

BAMBERGER & FRANK.-We, on last Monday, called in at Bamberger & Frank's New Store Room, in the Stone Block, just completed in our THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD city. The room is one of the finest in Eastern Oregon, and will compare favorably with any in the City S. W. Raveley is our authorized Agent of Portland. Messrs. Bamberger & Frank are now receiving their fall AGENTS.—The following named gentle-nep are authorized to act as Agents for the this section of Oregon. Their new Store Room is conveniently arranged, and is now well filled with goods of the best quality, selected by Mr. Frank, expressly for this market, which they are selling at a small advance on original cost. People need vance on original cost. People need not take our word for this, but go may hereafter be made on account of said and see for themselves.

FINE OATS .- Mr. Bradford Hunsaker left at our office, last week, a sample of white side oats, the heads their accounts of which measure sixteen inches, and are well filled out. He also left samples of Club Wheat, the heads of which are six inches in length, and well filled. Mr. Hunsaker's ranch is situated on North Powder, where there is plenty of good land yet va-
