A Manual of Health.

An edition of between nine and ten millions of copies of a very useful work is now ready for gratuitous distribution, and can be had for the asking at any drug store in the United States, the British Colonies, Spanish America or Brazil. The work referred to is Hostetter's Almanac for 1874. The medical portion of it treats of the various ailments to which the human system is subject, and sets forth the peculiar properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters-the purest and best to aic at present known-as a preservative of health and strength, and as a remedy for debility and disease. The Almanac is printed in all the principal languages of the civilized world, and reaches a larger number of families and individuals than any other medical treatise that ever issued from the press. No man or woman who has a due regard for that choicest of heaven's blessings, bodily vigor, should fail to read the plain, simple and convincing articles which this truly practical publication contains. The miscellaneous matter is varied, instructive and amusing. and the calendar convenience, adapted to the use of all classes and callings. The farmer, the planter, the miner, the merchant, the mechanic, the laborer, the professional man, all need it; and ises intended for popular use unintelligible to the general reader, have been carefully avoided in this pamphlet. All is clear, explicit, forcible, and reconcilable with reason and common sense.

The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, At the Dalles, Dec. 7, Prof. Colin T. Fin-layson of Albany, Linn county, Oregon. Pittsburgh, P., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood.

THE JAMES GORDON LODE .- This lode, recently discovered by W. H. Rockefellow four and a quarter miles east from this City; is now a mine and a good one. The mine is owned by Bockefellow, E. W. The Ledge 15 gradually widdening and at the bottom prospects better than when first struck.
