CLOSING EXERCISES.—The closing exercises of the Spring Term of the Baker City Academy, as was advertised, took place on last Friday evening April 17th, at the Academy building. The large hall of the second story. was crowded with ladies and gentlemen to its utmost capacity. The exercises were di rected by Prof. Barrett and his wife, the very competent teachers in the Academy. The entertainement was a complete success, and reflected great credit both upon the teachers and pupils. It is a hard matter for us to discriminate where all done well, and we shall not attempt to do so. The prizes for the best Declamation was awarded by the Judges, Messrs. L. B. Ison, T. C. Hyde and A. C. McClelland, to Ed. McEachen first prize, and Wesley Wisdom second. To the young ladies, for best reading, the Judges, Messrs. J. D. McFarland, A. C. McClelland and T. C. Hyde, gave the first prize to Miss Eva Rogers and the second to Miss Fanny Warlow. The Summer Term at the Academy commenced yesterday, with a very fair attendance of pupils.

NEW HOTEL .- Messrs. Clement & Sicord have purchased the Baker City Hotel property, in our city, and will open it to the public, as a first class hotel on next Monday morning. The above named gentlemen have had long experience in the hotel business, and are determined that their former reputation shall not suffer in the management of the Baker City Hotel.

> H. C. EDWARDS .-- Mr. John Rickard called on us yesterday morning, and informed us that Hank Edwards and himself have their River, where they are herding Edward's large band of cattle. Mr. Edwards is supplying the butchers of Placerville, Idaho, with fine beef at good prices. We are pleased to hear lets when the attack first comes on, and follow with two or three Pellets each day until of Hank's good health, &c.

FINE HAMS.-Last week we received a fine lot of hams from Messrs. Geo. Wright & Sons of Union. They are as nice as we have ever seen in Eastern Oregon, and are put up by the Messrs. Wrights, who evidently know how to cure bacon.

THE WEATHER.-For the past two weeks we have had all kinds of weather and plenty of it, which defles description. As a general thing it has been rather cool.

One of the Walla Walla papers enquires in relation to the whereabouts of "Lena,"-we answer, at present, at Baker City.

PATENT SERMON .- Our patent Sermon will appear next week.

Harvey Johnson, Esq., of Eldorado, returned home from Portland, last week, whither he has been sojourning the past winter.

T. J. Carter, of Portland, arrived in our city last week. He goes to Eldorado to look after mining interests in that quarter.

Peter Basche, of Clarksville, spent several days in the city on busines. He reports mining prospects as being favorable in that Messrs. Bear and Rothschild took their departure for Pendleton last week. They will engage in the mercantile business there. They are clever gentlemen, and we wish them prosperity and pleasant associations at their new home.

Charley Rose and wife have returned from Walla Walla. Charley says that Walla Walla is not the liveliest place in the world.

F. M. Alfred and wife reached home from Portland on the Monday stage.

W. W. Webber, of Rye Valley, is in our city and will remain several days. He reports that mining is much retarded by the cold weather. At present there is only one hundred inches of water in the ditch.

Hon, Sam, Hannah, of Union, sold a large drove of fat hogs in our market last week. Miss Donna Sisley, of Burnt River, is on a visit to her numerous friends in our city.

Mr. Richardson, of Clarks Creek, was on a visit to our city, last week.

SUMMIT MINE .- From Mr. Packwood we learn that this mine is doing well, and the rock that is coming out is of good quality. The road from the mine to the mill is in bad condition owing to the snow melting, and in consequence hauling has been temporarily suspended. As soon as the roads settle the mill will start up again and run regularly. Mr. John Griffin is foreman of the work.

DEPUTY .- In our article last week in relation to Dr. Boyd appointing his deputies, we forgot to mention that the deputy referred to was a young gentleman of the Doctor's, who made his first appearance in our city some ten days since. We are pleased to learn that the mother and son are doing well The above is about as near as the Doctor will ever come to appointing deputy sheriffs.

CHANGED HANDS .- Messre. Grier & Kellogg have bought the Eldorado stage line from Mr. John Lake. They left Monday morning with a four horse stage and a full load of passengers and freight. They run over the road every other day. They are very clever gentlemen and understand their business.

FOR SALE .- By reference to an advertisement in another column it will bee seen that an eighth interest in the James Gorden mine is offered for sale. Here is a good chance for profitable investment. For particulars enquire of Geo. W. Parker, at A. H. Brown's store, in this city.

WESTON.-This new town is situated on Pine Creek, about eighteen-miles from Walla Walla and about the same distance from Pendleton. It is surrounded by good farms, in a good agricultural region, and bids fair to become one of the best towns in Umstilla

CHANGED TIME .- The Northwestern Stage Company is now making quick time from Boise City to Umatilla. Distance, 280 miles; time, 48 hours. They have good stock, comfortable coaches and accommodating and careful agents and drivers on the line.
