LIST OF ARRIVALS.

Through the politeness of Mr. J. H. Ingraham, the obliging clerk of the Western Hotel, of this city, we are enabled to lay before our readers the following list of arrivals at that Hotel, for the week ending May 5th, 1874:

Good News.—We understand that weekly mail service has been ordered on the new mail route from Baker to Canyon City, and that Messrs. Grier & Kellogg will, as soon as their bond is approved, proceed to performing the service.

HONORABLE.—It looks very bad on paper for a man to publish the following announcement: "We are authorized to announce — as a candidate for — of Baker County, subject to the decision of the Democratic Convention" and when he is not nominated opposes the ticket. This is a pledge of honor to abide the result.

MARRIED.—Our friend Tom Dealey is as happy as a big sun flower, caused by his success in the matrimonial line in securing as a partner for life Miss Achsaugh Rugh, one of the fairest ladies of our city. A long and happy life to them.

OUR FRIEND CLAY IRLAND also comes in for his share of happiness, caused by his success in procuring a life long partner—Miss Sarah Abrams, of our city. This worthy couple also have our best wishes.

MISS MARY J. ARMSTRONG, formerly of this city, has been so fortunate as to find a life long partner at Walla Walla, in the person of Mr. Frank A. Rankin. Success to them.

FINE WAGON.—There is now at McCord Brothers Blacksmith and Wagon Shop, in this city, a new four-horse wagon, of their own manufacture, that is ahead of anything in that line that we have seen.

R. A. PIERCE.—We have received a long letter from Royal A. Pierce, dated Dodge's Corners April 6th, in which he says: "Little Mary is as well as could be expected, my health is good. Push on the good car of reform—it is well laden now. Love and respects to all."

The people of Sheridan, in Webfoot, are going through an epidemic of the epizooty. That is just what is the matter with some of our citizens—only the epizooty is going through them.

FISHER.—It looks very fishy for a man to be a Democrat, and go into a Democratic Convention and seek a nomination for office, and when he is defeated turn round and oppose the man who was successful over him, and still claim that he was and is still a good Democrat.

MUSICAL REVIEW.—We have received the April No. of Sherman & Hyde's Musical Review. This is a monthly publication devoted to music and literature. The number before us contains four choice pieces of music. The subscription price of this magazine is one dollar a year, and the music published in it is worth ten times the amount of the subscription.

AMUSEMENT AHEAD.—The Rosedale Theatrical Troupe will be in our city during the setting of the Circuit Court. This will give the people of our City and County an opportunity of witnessing good theatrical performances. This company comes well recommended. They will be here next week.

THE MAY BALL.—The May Day Ball given at Twigg's Hall on last Friday evening was a very pleasant party indeed and was very well attended by the elite of our city. The Music by McCord and McLane was good.

CALLED.—Mr. H. Gilchrist, of Rye Valley, called on us yesterday. He informs us that Mr. Frans and himself will start their Quartz mill the latter part of this week. They have about 200 ton of good rock on their dump.

MR. FALK, brother of D. Falk & Bro., of Boise City, arrived in our city from Portland on the stage yesterday morning. He will remain in our city a few days and then proceed to Boise City.

REMOVALS.—Charles St. Louis has removed his jewelry shop to the Baker City Restaurant building, and Pfeifferberger & Co. have opened their saloon in the building formerly occupied by Mr. St. Louis—they call their house the Senate.

ON HIS PEGS.—Dr. Snow informs us that, if nothing happens to put him back, he will be able, in a very few days, to attend to calls in his profession again.

FREIGHT.—Several large freight teams, with goods for various houses in our city, arrived from Umatilla yesterday, and among the rest a lot of printing paper for the Democrat, which was shipped the first of last December from San Francisco.

THE ROSEDALE TROUPE.—Posters for the Rosedale Theatrical Troupe are posted up about our city. The crops in Polk county are reported to be in excellent condition, and look well. A very large acreage has been sown in grain in that county this year.

MR. JOHN NEWSON of Howell's Prairie, Marion county, informs the Record that a much larger acreage is being sowed to wheat than ever before, and that the prospects never were better for a large crop.

CALL.—A. J. Weatherly, of Burnt River, called on us on Monday, looking well and hearty. J. W. Dugdale, of Eldorado, also called. Mr. White, of San Francisco, agent for the Giant Powder Co., called on us last week.

IN TOWN.—Milton H. Abbott, of the Pendleton Tribune, is in our city on business. NEW STON.—Dunc. McLain has just finished a sign for the "Call in Saloon," owned by Bohna & McCord. It shows to good advantage.

A half calf and half bull-dog is attracting the attention of the learned heads at Forest Grove. The store of W. K. Kelly, at John Day City, was recently broken into by burglars and several hundred dollars worth of goods taken.

COMPROMISED.—The affairs of the Big El dorado Ditch have been compromised, and the Ditch placed in the hands of Messrs. Packwood & Carter to be operated. Those gentlemen left our city on last Monday morning to take charge of the ditch property.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—Rev. Elder Hines will visit our city during the latter portion of this week. He will preach on next Sunday morning and evening, and probably on Friday and Saturday evenings.

CORNER STONE.—It is the intention of the Methodist congregation to have the corner stone of their new church laid while Elder Hines is in our city. The day is not yet decided upon.

ABOUT.—We are glad to note the fact that Rev. Mr. Powell of our city, has so far recovered from his late severe illness, as to be able to be out in a buggy. Yesterday morning he informed us he was feeling very much better than he had at any former time since he was taken sick.

UNION ITEMS.

The weather is very changeable. Grain is up in this section, and looks well. The Democratic County Convention finished up business last Saturday, with the following result: Representatives, Dunham Wright and E. S. McComas; Judge, E. C. Bralnard; Sheriff, J. L. Curtis; Clerk, R. S. Gates; Assessor, Harris; School Superintendent, S. Mitchell. Many were the hearts that went in the Convention in the morning beating high with hope, but by eleven o'clock a great many had settled down below zero. With the ticket we are satisfied. It is a good one, and will be elected easily.

PAT. MCGRAW, a miler from Snake River, was brought in our town last week, one-half of his body being paralyzed. He will doubtless fall on the county for support. The Odd Fellows celebration on last Monday was well attended, the hall being scarcely sufficient to accommodate all comfortably. The oration by T. C. Hyde was well calculated for the occasion, and highly appreciated by all. The ball at night passed off very pleasantly, and every one enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

A TRIUMPH OF MEDICAL ART. Yes a triumph we call it, when medicine can be so "bowed up" as to be pleasant to take and yet accomplish the object intended. Such a medicine is Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets, samples of which the writer procured and tested in his own family. The Pellets (little pills) are about one-fifth the size of an ordinary pill, made of highly concentrated root and herbal extracts, and sugar-coated.—Frankfort (Ind.) Weekly Crescent.

Many persons suffer with sick headache and nervous headache, usually induced by costiveness, indigestion, &c. Such persons will find relief if not cure, by keeping the bowels open with small doses of Parsons' Purgative Pills.

Have you inflammatory sore throat, stiff joints, or lameness from any cause whatever? Have you rheumatic or other pains in any part of the body? If so, use Johnson's Anodyne Linctum, internally and externally.

GOVERNOR BOOTH'S PLAGIARISM.—The Petaluma Argus passes the following not very complimentary remarks on Governor Booth, who, in his Harbor Commission veto, plagiarized largely from the Federalist. But the practice of appropriating other's thoughts, abominable as it is, is not confined to Governor Booth yet this fact cannot justify Booth nor any one else in its indulgence.

"This is by now means the first time our Governor has been guilty of literary piracy, but we hope for the honor of the State it will be the last. Plagiarism, so glaring and frequent as his, is disgraceful to the Governor of a great State, and among literary people is justly regarded as a social crime. The Governor is trying to make it respectable, but he will not succeed. The adroitness he has acquired in the role of demagogue and literary purloiner will avail him little when he is in the United States Senate. The truth is, Booth has strutted for a long time in borrowed pinnage. He lacks all the elements of a great man, and it will not belong before they will estimate him for what he is worth."

To the above the Sacramento Record adds this, which is complimentary to the learning of the Senator: "We are not sure about the correctness of the idea that his adroitness in the roll of literary journalism will avail him little when he is in the United States Senate. The Congressional Library is a large one, and there must be more than one copy of the Federalist in it. Besides, as very few of the Senators will care to listen to his speeches, supposing him to make any, it will be quite as safe for him to follow his old habits there as here. Indeed, on the whole, we are inclined to think, that he will incur less danger of detection at Washington than in Sacramento or San Francisco. The only serious drawback to his literary career is that when he does get found out at Washington, the whole country will be sure to hear of it. That is an objection too which is far more likely to appear to Governor Booth than any consideration of mere honesty or rectitude. Nevertheless, if he cannot piifer, we don't see how he can possibly maintain his reputation, for he certainly cannot subsist on his own resources."

PRAYER MEETING.—A prayer meeting will be held at the Court House, on Saturday evening of this week.
