NICE JELLEY .- It always is a pleasure for us to be remembered by our friends, but in this emergency. when we receive a present, such as Grandma Clark, of Junction City, sent us a few days since, in the shape of a jar of the very niceest of jelley, of her own make, we are in want of language to express our thanks .-Mrs. Clark has a son, Thomas Hoffman, and daughters Mrs. Alfred, George and Eastabrooks, living in our midst, who are all as thoughtfull of their friends as is their good mother. Mrs. Clark will please accept our thanks for her kind remembrance of the SNAKE RIVER .- Grain looking fine, vegetables plentiful on Mr. Brinegars Ranch, several acres of Peach trees are in full bloom it is estimated that he will have, at least, a hundred bushels of peaches this season. Mr. B. is at present engaged in opening ais mining claim, which prospects very rich. Messrs. Campbell & Speak are at work in their claim with a full force of men with good prospects.

FIRE LIGHTER .- J. T. McComas, of La Grande, called on us last week and presented us with a Patent Fire Kindler. It is the very thing to start a fire with in the winter or summer. It beats Pitch Pine all out of the doors. They are for sale in our city at Levins'. Both our Hotels, John Eppinger, L. B. Ison, and a number of others bought them, and they can tell you how they like them. They are a great invention and are perfectly safe.

The Pendleton Tribune says: Mr. Rollin P. Saxe, of Saxe Bros., importers of blooded stock of Kentucky, was in town during the week. He informs us that they have disposed of all their stock imported this season, and that they will soon start for Kentucky after more. Mr. S. took passage on Tuesday evening's stage for the Landing.

RAIN .- Our section of the State has been visited within the past ten days by several fine May showers, which have been of great advantage to our farmers, and have made the hearts of our miners glad by having a tendency to increase their facilities for taking out the precious metal from our mines. It has invariably turned warm after these rains this season; this has brought vegetation on

New Comers. -Some few days since Dr. T. N. Snow was blessed with an increase in his family. It was a daughter. Our friend A. J. Lawrence, also rejoices muchly over his good fortune in having a daughter added to his household goods. The happy occurrence took place last Friday.

LARGE EGG .-- We, on yesterday morning were shown a hen's egg, laid by a hen belonging to Mr. E. P. Cranston, of Sparta, that measured six and one eight inches in circumference one way and seven and a quarter inches the other way. It is the largest hen's egg we ever saw. Beat it who can.

We are glad to see that Jack Ried and Jim Fletcher are on our streets again, both of from sickness.

I. O. O. F.-The Grand Lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at its session which has just closed at Portland, elected the following Grand officers for the ensuing year to-wit:

Warden; Jno. M. Bacon, Grand Secretary; I. R. Moores Grand Treasurer; Jos. Buchtel, (2 years) Grand Representative, and W. J. Snodgrass, (1 year) Grand Representative.

The following resolution was offered by P. G. M. J. T. Bloomfield and adopted: Resolved. That the R. W. Grand Secretary be and is hereby instructed to procure the photograph of P. G. Secretary, C. N. Terry, in size and finish to correspond with those of the P. G. Masters, the same to be paid for by the Grand Lodge.

PLACE OF VOTING.

Every voter is required by law to vote in his own precinct. This is the law and every man who tries to vote out of his Precinct can be debarred from voting. Remember this is the law.

BURNT RIVER .- Grain looks quite promising, vegetables quite plentiful, (i.e.) for home use; Several Orchards will Yield fruit this season, and we may expect a treat from our Burnt River neighbors peach orchards.

CALLED .- Gov. Grover, Judge Tolman and Mart. V. Brown, all gave us a frendly call while they were in our city last week .--The atmosphere of Eastern Oregon appears to agree with our friends.

EMPTY.—The City Jail in Pendleton has been empty for the past month or more .-This speaks well for our city, and it gives us pleasure to announce such facts.

HUMBOLDT BASIN .-- Owing to the scarcety of water, mining prospects are not very flattering for the present season; weather, during the past week, quite cold, freezing. Messrs. Shumway, Colt & Beers, have recently received a supply of new goods.

The May Term of the Circuit Court of Baker County adjourned sine die this morn-

TORNADO.—The Pendleton Tribune says "a tornado swept over Pendleton on the 19th inst, commencing at about 6 o.clock, P. M. and continuing a half or three-quarters of an hour. The wind raged with terrible fury, and rain came down in torrents. Large trees were swept down, but' no houses are reported as injured, with the exception of the building in which the Tribune is printed. The wind was from a south-westerly direction, and consequently, had good play on this building. The amount of damage sustained by the building was the moving of it a few | the Attorney General. It was true inches off the foundation, together that that officer had been furnished with a few lights being broken out, a $1,600 carriage, which was wrong; and leaving the house in a leaning but it was purchased by a subordinposition. Garfield replied that he supplied as many as that sum would tae care of.

Durham insisted on an explicit aswer, which Garfield failed to gie, Durham accused him of a wan of Candor, and some unpleasant pasages took place between the two.

Garfield explained that the reson for incerting the item were, that it was necessary for the attorney General to use a carriage daily in his public business, and that it has been always customary for the Covernment to furnish the horses and carriage. If the House wisled to strike out the item they could do so, but he depricated any attack upon

Wood denied that the practice of heads of departments using public horses and carriages for private con-venience dated back of the Republican Administration, and Wheeler, in reply, produced a voucher, showing that in 1859 Floyd, the Secretars of War charged $200 difference between an old wagon and a fine carriage

Hoar thought that a decent conveyance should be furnished the Attorney General, and asked Nesmith if he would like to have the Attorney General ride down Pensylvania avenue on a mule.

Nesmith replied that he had seen the Atterney General on a mule in Oregon, and added that Philip II., of Spain, rode a mule through the streets of Madrid when he went to marry Mary of England, and Sacred History gave an account of a better man than either of them riding one of those usefulanimals that had no ed both Honses of the Legislature pride of ancestry and no hope in
