Through the politeness of Professor S. P. Barrett, we are enabled to lay before our readers the following table showing the range of the Mercury for the week ending June 27th, 1874, at Baker City, Oregon:

Table with 3 columns: Day, 7 A. M., 12 M., 10 P. M. Rows for Sunday through Saturday.

Average for the week 56.2 degrees. Average for corresponding week last year, 52.5 degrees above Zero. Slight frost on Friday morning, June 26; a heavy shower of rain fell on Thursday, the 25th.

UNION ITEMS.

Union is building up since it has the county seat. Dr. M. Baker has the foundation laid for a new drug store, and several dwellings are in course of erection.

Union and the Cove will celebrate the 4th of July jointly this season. We expect one of the grandest times on record. A general invitation is extended. It will be at Union.

The celebrated race horse, Buckskin, has the swoeny, caused by running against the fence while training for the spring races. He will probably be able to appear upon the turf this fall, however.

We learn that the "Rose-bud," of Island City, will be Deputy Clerk under R. S. Cates for the ensuing term in this county.

The Times did not come to the Hon. Jas. H. had a little something to say on that question, as there was a "Back Pay" on the press, and the Times man could not raise the "soap." He said—"Sleep on and dream of Heaven awhile." He slept.

The Sentinel says "the question is being agitated whether the Sheriff, Clerk and Treasurer will not attempt to hold over for the want of legal County Court, &c. We think it will be agitated Arkansas style if that is tried. What do you think?"

BONUS.

GUNBOAT LEDGE.—This ledge, owned by the Bailey Brothers and N. H. Gray, is situated near Pocatontas. One day last week they cleaned up their sluice boxes, after a run of five days and crushing two ton of rock in their Arrasts, and had three hundred and two dollars as the result. This is one hundred and fifty-one dollars to the ton. The boys have a good thing, and are working their mine economically.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—One day last week, Sarah Edwards a woman of easy virtue, made two attempts to commit suicide in our city, by throwing herself into the majestic Powder River, the turbid water of which run from mighty "vine clad hills" that surround our magnificent and beautiful valley. Timely assistance prevented the awful catastrophe.

CALLED.—R. A. Pierce, who has but lately returned from an extended visit east, called on us last week. Mr. Bailey, who come out west with Mr. Pierce, also called on us. Both gentlemen are looking well and hearty.

INDIAN HORSES.—One day last week a large band of Indian ponies passed through our city in charge of some three or four Indians. We see by the Statesman that they have arrived at Boise City.

Our farmers complain and say that there will not be much over half a crop of hay cut in Powder River Valley this season. Grain of all kind look well.

PLEASANT.—The weather in this section is now warm and very pleasant. It is good growing weather, and vegetation of every description show the effect of it.

Pedro.—This is a new game of cards recently introduced in the State of Nevada. The game counts high, low, jack, game—one point each; pedro, five points; puzzle five points; Columbus, three points; and Van Winkle three points. The 5 spot of trumps is pedro, and when caught or saved counts five points to the player taking it in; puzzle is the five spot of the suit of the same color as the trump, and counts five; Columbus is the nine spot of trumps, and counts three; Van Winkle is the jack of clubs, and counts four when it is trumps, and counts three regardless of what may be trumps. In all 20 points may be made in one hand. The game is any number of points agreed upon by the players. There is buying and selling in the game. The player buying, or the one refusing to sell, loses as many points as he gave or was offered, if he does not make at least that many on the hand. The player makes the trump to suit his hand.

HOTEL RESTAURANT DE FRANCE.—Mr. Joseph Manaudas has bought the Hotel Restaurant, next door to the Post Office, formerly kept by Sicoord & Whitcomb, and has fitted the same up in the best of style, and will open it for the accommodation of the Public on the 4th of July. He intends to give entire satisfaction to his customers.

MAPLE SUGAR.—Our friend, R. A. Pierce, will please accept our thanks for a generous supply of genuine Maple Sugar, which was made this season in Wisconsin. It tasted well, and made us think of old times.

NEW MATERIAL.—We have lately received a lot of new Job material, and are now prepared to do Job Printing on short notice and at as reasonable prices as any establishment in Eastern Oregon.

Kellogg & Grier, the mail contractors between this and Canyon City, put on coach service, commencing to-morrow morning. They have good stock, comfortable conveyances and careful drivers.

There is to be another opposition paper started in our city soon. The material upon which it is to be printed is furnished by the Herald. "Birds of a feather, flock together."

The Baker City Brewery is making a fine article of beer, and have a large and extensive patronage.

The fever and ague pond in front of the Barber Shop and Drug Store is being filled in by Mr. John Wisdom.

Mr. Hyde, Superintendent of the Virtue Mine, returned from San Francisco last week.

BORN.—In this city, June 28th, to the wife of R. D. McCord, a son—a whopper.

The County Officers elect take their several positions on next Monday.

Hon. A. H. Brown left for Salem this morning.

The County Court meets next Monday.

We want some hay, wheat and oats.

No use of taking the huge, offensive, griping, drastic pills, put up in cheap wood or paste board boxes. When Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, or Sugar Coated, Concentrated Root and Herbal Juice, Anti-Bilious Granules—scarcely larger than mustard seeds—possessing as much power as any larger pills, and easily put up in little vials that preserve their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, can be had for 25 cents of all Druggists.

CHICAGO, June 26.—A Washington special says Hale has accepted the Postmaster Generalship and will enter on his duties the 1st of July, beginning on the new quarter. The appointment appears to meet with general commendation.

It is generally understood that Mr. Catell has advised the President verbally that he will accept a nomination as one of the District of Columbia Commissioners.

The new Secretary of the Treasury is said to have in contemplation a thorough reform of the red tape system in his department and dispensing with all supernumerary dependents. The new Secretary says he has no financial schemes with which to startle the country, and his main object will be economically and carefully and vigorously to execute the laws of the Government in the Treasury Department.

New York, June 24.—Theodore Tilton publishes in the Golden Age this afternoon a seven column article touching the Beecher scandal and in defense of himself from the charge of Rev. Leonard Bacon, Moderator of the late Brooklyn Council, that Tilton has been a cowardly slanderer, whom magnanimity alone saved from disgraceful exposure. He says that having suffered in silence for four years from these and similar misrepresentations adroitly put before the public by Plymouth Church neither patience nor duty will permit him longer to conceal the actual facts from the public. He then goes on to say he has never slandered Beecher, but on the contrary has sacrificed his own reputation to suppress the truth about him, and that he never has refused to appear before the Church and answer all questions regarding the scandal that might be put to him. He gives his reasons for severing his connection with the church, as follows: After I had been for fifteen years a member of Plymouth Church and had become meanwhile an intimate of the pastor, the knowledge came to me in 1870 that he had committed against me an offense which I forbear to name or characterize, prompted by my self respect I immediately and forever ceased my attendance on his ministry. Tilton publishes the following as an extract from a document signed by Mr. Beecher:

"BROOKLYN, Jan. 1, 1871.—I ask Theodore Tilton's forgiveness and humble myself before him as I am before my God. He would have been a better man in my circumstances than I have been. I can ask nothing except that he will remember all the other breasts that would ache.—I will not plead for myself. I even wish that I were dead. H. W. BEECHER.

Some of the New York papers, in the interest of the ladies and common decency, propose, if possible, to write out of existence the habit of "guzzling" between acts, practiced by some gentlemen who take the responsibility of being the escort of ladies to respectable theatres. New York is not the only city where the habit is in vogue, and practiced to an extent that gallants, young and old, have such a burning thirst for whiskey as to obscure entirely all sense of propriety towards the ladies who are under their protection, and which amounts to a downright insult. Gentlemen who cannot live one evening without guzzling, had better not assume the responsibility of being a lady's escort to places of amusement.

The American lady to whom the young Duke Nicholas of Russia gave his mother's stolen diamonds is now in Paris, with the jewels, worth 500,000 francs, in her possession. She is described as intelligent and beautiful. The duke is said to be madly in love with her, and wishes to marry her.
