The Rev. Abiram Pobick was a devout man and zealous circuit rider, but in worldly matters notably abrose in the morning, ten to one he would have appeared in public, half the time, arrayed in her habiliments have ended his worldly career then instead of his own-an exchange and there but for the timely arrival would have scoffingly declared not of another party.

implicity to Old Job's geographical knowledge. Old Job was the parson's horse. He was not an old with Nr. Pohick. horse, either, but a likely animal in. the prime of life. It was his gravity and patience, mayhap, that earned him the sobriquet of "Old Job." He was a horse of sense, withal, and to a congregation that understood Houvhnhum could probably have preached a more practical sermon than his master.

A portion of Parson Pohick's field of labor lay in a wild, out of the way region, and it was on his first jours ney to keep an appointment there familiar neigh, the whole truth flash. that he met with the adventure we are about to relate.

After a wearisome day's travel, Old Job and the parson sought and found rest one night at a settler's cabin. At a later hour another waytwo guests, who were to take an early start in the morning retired to rest both being assigned to one apartment.

Mr. Pohick, his devotions ended, would gladly have conversed a little with his fellow guest, but the latter was disinclined to talk; and the parson, from falling into a revery on his forthcoming sermon, in due time fell sound asleep. He awoke at day break, but found his companion had already gone.

Having a long road yet before him the parson rose at once, and having made his toilet, and performed his morning duties with all proper dispatch, he left the house without disturbing the family--having paid his scot the night before-and finding his way to the stable, he saddled his horse and rode off, intending to breakfast further on.

It was a fresh morning; and, as the pars n rode along, he sought to improve the time by more fully working up the details of the discourse where with he was preparing to endarkness.

"I never knew you lag so before."

But the horse seemed absorbed in Inattention to his master's words was an unusual thing in Old Job, and might have attracted the parson's notice; but then he began subdividing his "Nineteenthly," and the horse might have stopped stock still for all his rider would have known.

Parson Polick had no suspicion that such words could possibly be addressed to him; but the reproof of profanity was a duty he never neglected. So, turning about, he quoted several texts on the subject, and would have enlarged upon them edifyingly but for the derisive shouts of quickly found himself.

A dozen revolvers were leveled at him, and the parson felt constrained to dismount.

His head once set on a text, he was cle garb-none other than Mr. Pos oblivious of all else. To find his hick's companion of the preceeding way round the circuit, he trusted night-securely bound on a horse. The new company was headed by a Deputy Sheriff well acquainted "Glad to see you, Mr. Pohick," said the officer; "but, bless me, I hardly knew you in that rig !"

The porson's eyes, for the first time, fell on his garments. They were certainly not his own. Nothing could be more unclerical than their cut and material. The cards and whiskey bottle were now accounted for; and when Old Job, on whose back the other prisoner was tied, greeted his master with his old ed on the parson's mimd. The man with whom he had shared his room the night before was a horse-theif, who rising first in the morning, had not only taked the parson's clothes cabin. At a later hour another wayfor a disguise, leaving his own, but farer arrived; and, after a hearty had taken Old Job, who was far the supper, and a sociable chat, the better horse, instead of the one he had recently stolen-the parson, in his absent mindedness, never noticing the difference.

The theif was one well known to the officers, who had been for some time on his track; and when the Sheriff's deputy, who knew Old Job as well as his master, saw the former and the clothes of the latter in the posession of a noted outlaw. he feared that murder as well as theft hadbeen committed-and murder would have been committed but for his ar rival in the nick of time.

"Let it teach you to keep your eves open next time," was all the consolation the parson got from Mrs. Pohick on reaching home and telling her how near he had come to being hanged .- New York Ledger.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sink-

No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital or-gans wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red. Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn. and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essential. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, as they will speedily remove the darkcolored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with the BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory or Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases. - Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Goldbeaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges. no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities burst-ing through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure. and the health of the system will follow.

HORRIBLE DISEASES! How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disagured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situa-tion thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians and friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladiessee that they are cared for and cured before it is too late. Send them immediately to Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those afflicted, or those interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended dootors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is praticed by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures. viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pains in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like rustling of leaves or rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weak ness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss o. memory, pimples and various eruptions about the face, hectic flushes, furred tongue, fætid breath, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails in effecting a quick and radical cure.

CURED AT HOME.
