WANTED.—$1,400, at the Mining & Real Estate Agency, First Security House completely furnished for retail liquor trade for sale or rent. W. S. NELSON.

A RELIC OF THE MODER WAR.—In the cabinet of J. W. Virtus, Banker of our City, can be seen a knife of ancient make and model, which once belonged to Capt. Jack, of Modoc Notoriety. On the handle is inscribed "Knife of Capt. Jack the great Modoc Warrior Chief;" on the blade "stained with the blood of A. B. Meacham." It certainly looks very bloody, but whether it is Meacham's or not we will not vouch.

Sam Ross's fingers and ears froze last Saturday while hunting jack rabbits.

E. P. Cranston, of Sparta, left on last Monday's stage for Portland, on a business trip.

Sick.—Delazon Smith, step son of H. W. Estes, is quite sick, in our city.

Dr. T. N. Snow has our thanks for a mere—sham pipe, presented as a New Year's gift.

We do not think it is necessary, for appearance sake, to publish a big paper when it is necessary to put the same advertisements on both sides to fill up with. The DEMOCRAT is not as large as some other papers, but we have no dead advertisements in it, and we fill every available space with reading matter. We do not double advertisements.

I. O. R. M.—The officers of Winemucca Tribe No. 5, were duly raised to their respective stumps on last Thursday the 31 of January 1875, by Grand Sachem, R. Alexander; Prophet, R. H. Cardwell; Cardwell; Sachem, J. P. Ross; Sachem, Isaac Bloch; J. Sachem, J. P. Atwood; C of B, T. C. Hyde; K of Wampum, H. N. McKinney. After which they adjourned to the Hotel de France where a splendid supper was served.

DIED.—At Baker City, January 11th 1875 infant daughter of T. C. and M. E. Hyde. Funeral took place yesterday.

NEWSPAPER THIEF.—The Oregonian is a newspaper pirate—it steals articles from all the papers in the State and never pretends to give the paper credit. In its issue of Jan. 6th it takes very near a quarter of a column of items from the BEDROCK DEMOCRAT, and gives no credit. We are getting tired of this thieving game on the part of the Portland dailies and if the business is not stopped we will try and see if we cannot remedy the evil and disreputable practice.
