Baker City, Feb. 10, 1875.

TERRIBLE COMBAT OF JOHN CLARK, ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF IDAHO TERRITORY &c., WITH AN OREGON TIGER !

His Timely Retreat!! The Tiger Still Rampant!!!

Justice M. E. Hollister is now Chief Justice of this Territory, vice Noggle resigned, and a Mr. John Clark Associate Justice. and a Mr. John Clark Associate Justice.— Mr. Clark hails from Northern Idaho but as we have not received the Northerner since his appointment, and as the papers of this part of the Territory have nothing to say about him, we can neither get nor give any information about him. We have understood that he is a fair lawyer, and bears a good reputation both professionally and as a citizen, and that is all we have ever heard said about him; ANDITIS PROBABLY IN HIS FAVOR THAT SO LITTLE IS KNOWN AND SAID ABOUT HIM.—Idaho World.

When we read the aforesaid, we grinned

-we chuckled-we broke down and snorted. Here were we, away down in Oregon, knowing more than the "World." The small caps in the above are ours respectfully. We know John Clark, Ass. Just. I. T. &c., a few. "One night only." It happened thusly: We heard that Hiram Ulysses had made a new appointment for Idaho, and that the aforesaid appointment was in town. We were raised in the belief that the President of the United States never appointed any but good and great men. We always trembled before great men. We wanted to see John Clark and tremble. We put on our robert-tail dress goods to find him. We went to the hotel and he stood before us. He had an irongray smile, three demijohns on his nose, and smelt like the perfume of a thousand bottles. We trembled! We saw at a glance why he had been appointed. He belonged to the society for the extirpation of whiskey, and Grant had sent him to PUT IT DOWN in Idaho. Slowly and sadly we mourned over the fate of the vast population who would have to go dry. We saw him no more. But we heard of him .-"Tho' lost to sight &c.," (we forget the up all our gushing fountains of emotion .-It ran thisly: In the "Bank Exchange" dwelt a Tiger. It was an animal of huge and monstrous proportions. It was hardhearted. It ought to have been-it fed on chips, suckers, coin, greenbacks and othglance. It growled at him and he went in -in-in. The combat was furious. Every time it clawed it got a twenty dollar greenback on its nail, until at last he gave it a check, not a push-back, but a check on a banker at Lewiston for $336,20. Four huneyes of the angry beast to appease its rage -but it only smoled a wicked smile, and this terrific fight-the Judge behaved manfully-gazing joyfully about every ten minutes into the bottom of a glass. Finding the Tiger too strong for him, he undertook to penetrate the Eleusinian mysterics of Poker. About five o'clock in the morninghe "went through" on deuce high against three eights which the fortunate holder had gathered indiscriminately from all the discards on the table. Then he got mad and butted the floor with his seat of honor, and tried to climb up the window panes and sit down on the stove. Failing in this he ploughed through the snow to the hotel on his nose, and went to bed on his ear. The excitement made him so drunk they couldn't wake him up to go on the stage, and he hired a cutter in the morning to overtake it-and that's all we know about John Clark, Ass. Just. &c., of Idaho Territory, and ---- elsewhere.

CAUGHT .- For the last two or three weeks a number of letters, from Portland, have been received here, in all cases by married men, enclosing a circular signed "R. Stanley," containing an offer, on the receipt of ten dollars to give information as to the means of preventing an increase of the families of the aforesaid married men. Considerable speculation was indulged in as to how the individual above named should know who were the married men in this community. It now turns out that it was one Wesley Parker, who has resided here until recently. He was arrested for it, on the 30th ult, in Portland and on the 31st waived an examination, and gave bail to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court for Multnomah County. His residence here should have taught | lations his ten aunts. him that he couldn't get any money out of this community on that "lay out"-it's the other kind of information they want

STRAY CATTLE.—The following stray cattle are at Dan Shaw's ranch, eight miles from Baker city; the owners may have the same by proving property and paying costs: One roan steer, under slope off right ear; under bit in the left, mule shoe on left side; one red steer 3 year old, two crops and two under bits; one brindle steer 2 year old in the spring; crop off left ear, swallow fork in | box. the right; one roan steer, said to belong to belong to Billy Emerson; crop off lett ear under bit in the right.

"JEALOUS."-Our neighbor of the "Herald" says we are jealous of him. Neither characteristic productions which he prints in the "Herald" cause us the slighest feelings of envy. The person who would desire to own either, would be lost to all social restraints and fatally bent on mischief. He would steal a mill, and go back after the dam. He would-language can't do the subject fustice.

Wood choppers and dealers will take notice of the advertisement of the Superintendent of the Virtue Mine. There is a chance for the distribution of divers and sundry coin among the hard fisted sons of

ED. CATES, of Union, was in our city the fore part of the week, he made us several pleasant calls.

The Last, The Greatest .-- Should any "doubting Thomas" still cling to the absurd idea that there will be another postponement of the last Library Gift Concert let him remember that Mr. Briggs, the new manager, fully endorses the promise of Gov. Bramlette, the former one, that if the concert does not take place at the time specified, the money will be refunded at once to the ticket-holders. Let him further observe that Mr. Briggs has secured, of course, at an enormous expense, the services of Gilmore, the greatest leader in America, with his orchestra of 100 select performers, who will conclude the series of concerts with such a burst of harmony as has never before awakened our Western homes. And, by the way, let him also remember that if he does not posess at least a coupon ticket, this music will never reach his ears.

LEASED .- Charles Green, of Rye Valley, has leased his interest in Green's Discovery Quartz Ledge and Mill, for the term of six months to Thos. McDonald. From the date of the lease to its expiration Mr. Green is not responsible for any of the liabilities-McDonald paying all expenses &c., out of the proceeds of the Mine and Mill. Work will continue on the Mine and the Mill will be kept constantly running on rock from the Ledge. Good results are anticipated. McDonald is a thorough miner and understands his business.

Hon. W. C. Whitson, Associate Justice of Idaho, called on us last Monday coming on his return home from attending the Supreme Court of the Territory. We were sorry to hear of the indisposition of his aimable wife at Lewiston, which was the cause of the Judge hurrying home so soon. We hope to hear of her complete recovery to her usual good health.

WRITING SCHOOL .- Prof. E. J. Heins, will open a Writing School in the academy on tomorrow evening. Prof. Heins comes to us well recommended from Boise city, where he taught two terms. From letters we have received from friends there, we have no hesitancy in recommending him to our citizens as a first class teacher.

For Sale.-A good buggy with team and rest,) we heard of him, a tale that stirred harness, cheap for Cash. The owner expects to leave the State soon and will sell at a sacrifice. Enquire of W. S NELSON.

Our neighbor says he don't hire a lawyer to write his editorials. In this assertion the READING public will agree with him. Cerer delicacies. It wasn't afraid of John | tainly no other man bur himself could have Clark, it did not quail beneath his judicial written such editorials-surely no lawyer, possibly no novelist.

CALLED .- Sol. Benj, [late of Boise city, called on us last Monday. He is stopping in our city a few days. Sol looks as natural as in old times.

dred dollars besides did he throw into the | REVIVAL .- A protracted meeting is now in progress in this city. The Northern and Southern Methodists and Babtists have joinswallowed them. During the whole of ed in it. We hope they will do good. There is certainly much room for great effort.

Baker City Lodge No. 25, I.O. O. F., meets every Saturday evening, at half past six o'clock, at Odd Fellows Hall, in the new Bank Block, corner of Front street and Court Avenue. Members of the Order are invited to attend. By order of N. G. He who is wise now buyeth his girl's lit-tle brother something nice, and so getteth the little rascal to make himself scarce whenever necessary hereafter.

Congress has a cemetery of its own, and, having far more criminals than corpses, it is strange it doesn't have a positentiary of its own also.-Courier-Journal.

TAXES IN DIFFERENT STATES .- A table recently prepared from official statements for 1873 and 1874 gives the taxable valuations and the rates of taxation in the several States. The sister or sweetheart, which we will sell on rates vary all the way from 10 cents easy terms. We will instruct the person buy his personal appearance nor the eminently rates vary all the way from 10 cents on the $100 in Connecticut, to the enormous sum of $2.15 on the $100 in Louisiana. The rate is 50 cents in Alabama, Arkansas, California. Maine, Minnesota, Texas and Virgina; 40 cents in Georgia, Kansas, Ohio, and Tennessee; 70 cents in Florida; 10 cents in Connecticut; 24 cents in Illinois; 15 cents in India ana; 17 cents in Maryland; 22 cents in Michigan: $1.121/4 in Nevada; 721/4 cents in New York; 15 cents in Oregon; 20 cents in Rhode Island, and 70 cents in South Carolina. The great difference in the rates is remarkable. Indiana and Missouri have about equal populations, but the Indiana rate (15 cents) is one third as large as the Missouri rate (45 cents); this is partially explained

A FEW WORDS TO FEEBLE AND DELICATE WOMEN.-By R. V. PIERCE M. D., of the World's DISPENSARY,

Buffalo, N. Y. Knowing that you are subject to a great amount of suffering, that delicacy on your part has a strong tendency to prolong, and the longer it is neglected the more you have to endure and the more difficult of cure your case becomes, I, as a physician, who is daily consulted by score of your sex, desire to say to you, that I am constantly meeting with those who have been treated for their ailments for months without being benefitted in the least, until they have become perfectly discouraged and have almost made up their minds never to take another dose of medicine or be tortured by any further treatment. They had ended than to live and suffer as they have. They say they are worn out by suffering and are only made worse by treatment. Of anything more discouraging, we certainly cannot conceive, and were there no more successful mode of treating such difficulties than that, the principles of which teach the reducing and depleting of the vital forces of the system, when the indications dictate a treatment directly the reverse of the one adopted for them, their cases would be deplorable indeed. But lady sufferers, there is a better and far more successful plan of treatment for you, one more in harmony with the laws and requirements of your system. A harsh irritating caustic treatment and strong medicines will never cure you. If you would use rational means, such as common sense should dictate to every intelligent lady, take such medicines as embody the very best invigorating tonics and nervines, compounded with special reference to your delicate system. Such a happy combination you will find in my Favorite Prescription which has received the loudest praise from thousands of your sex. Those languid tiresome sensations causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet or ascend a flight of stairs, that continual drain that is sapping from your systems all your former elasticity, and driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces that renders you irritable and fretful, may all be overcome and subdued by a persevering use of that marvelous remedy. Irregularities and obstructions to the proper workings of your systems are relieved by this mild and safe means, while periodical pains, the existence of which is a sure indication of serious disease that should not be neglected readily yield to it, and it its use is kept up for a reasonable length of time the special cause of these pains is permanently removed. Further light on these subjects may be ob tained from my pamphlet on diseases | 25 Gross of Cards, and Bar peculiar to your sex, sent on receipt of two stamps. My Favorite Prescription is sold by druggists. AGENTS .- The following named gentlemen are authorized to act as Agents for the
