BEDROCK DEMOCRAT.

With two more numbers the fifth volume of the BEDROCK DEMOCRAT closes, and with the commencement of the Sixth Volume we intend to adopt the system of striking from our list all names of persons who are more than one year in arrears, and as we do so we will place the accounts of the delinquents in the hands of the proper officers for collection. We have time and again asked those in arrears to pay up and they have paid no attention to our requests, now we will see how they will like to pay costs as well as the honest debt they owe us. A man who can pay and will not must be made to pay. We have furnished you the paper for one, two and three years, and paid out money for you every week, besides contributing our own labor, and now we intend to have the money due us if it can be made by law. We do not wish to make cost on any one, but necessity compels us to force payment. The books of a printing office are first-rate criterions by which to judge of a man's responsibility and willingness to pay his liabilities; for a man that will not pay the printer the small amount due him, will not, as a general thing, pay his other honest debts if he can possibly avoid it, and if any business men wish to form an idea who is good pay and who is not they can at any time examine our books, and see who pays the printer, and thereby judge who is good and who is not. As we strike names from our list we shall publish them, and the amount due us. If delinquents do not wish their names to appear in this list they must come forward and settle their accounts.—We mean business.

A CHANGE OF NAMES.

The New York News says: "The present Republican party has about fulfilled its mission. It organized twenty years ago. It stole its name and concealed its principles. The name 'Republican' had been originally adopted by the political organization which elected Thomas Jefferson, President in 1801. Our aristocratic opponents of those days, who termed themselves 'Federalists,' nicknamed the Jeffersonian Republicans by calling them 'Democrats.' The latter adopted the then term of contempt, and became known as 'Democratic Republicans.' This political organization, which elected Thomas Jefferson, has never died nor dissolved. It exists and exhibits uncommon liveliness, after the lapse of three-quarters of a century and is as proud of the name 'Democrat' to-day, as when it first accepted it and converted a phrase of reproach into one of pride and honor.

What have the opponents of the Democratic Republican party of 1801—1875, been calling themselves all this time? They were Federalists; they were National Republicans; they were Anti-Masons; they were Whigs; they were Democratic Whigs; they were Know Nothings; they were Republican Unionists; they were Republicans. By this roundabout process they got around the circle. No better illustration of the vanity and deception of party nomenclature could be given than a reminder of the fact that John A. King, who was the last man elected to the New York Legislature as a Federalist, was the first Governor elected by the now-fangled 'Republican' party! John A. King has not changed an atom of his old Federal principles. The party names had come to him, that was all; he had not budged.

Well, our opponents have now pretty well worn out the name of 'Republican,' and there are signs and indications that it is too threadbare to stand the wear and tear of another Presidential campaign. In various quarters, there are already suggestions that the name of 'Reform Party' might be assumed, at the next transformation. It would be a good name, and it would have the advantage of not being a stolen one. We rather approve of the idea which we perceive that so many of our political opponents incline to, of dubbing the Anti-Democratic host, in the next Presidential struggle, 'the National Reform Party.' Why not?

Hon. A. H. Brown, State Treasurer, arrived in our city last week from the Capital. His numerous friends at his old home were glad to see him looking so well and were pleased to take him by the hand. It is with pleasure we state his family are in the enjoyment of good health.

Owing to the present mild weather the ladies will have a chance to exhibit their new Spring bonnets.

OUR ELDORADO LETTER.

ELDORADO, April 10th, 1875.

The Camp.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—The camp now presents a lively appearance. Messrs. Carter & Packwood, the proprietors of the Burnt River Ditch, arrived here a few days ago, and the boys know that they mean business. Packwood is now engaged sub-grading the Amelia extension, to be completed by contract this month; and Tom Welsh and Curly have gone to the head of the Big Ditch to see how things are in that elevated region, and by the time they turn in the water of the Camp Creeks this end of the Ditch will be ready to receive it—probably in fifteen days. Lynn & Co. are hard at work on the lower end of their ditch, removing rocky obstructions and clearing out, and will turn in the waters of Long and Grouse Creeks in a few days, in fact, Spring work has commenced and the miners will soon be running gold into their sluices. We omitted to say in our last letter that Ivory & Leckenburg, on Shasta Creek, will operate extensively this season. From all indications more gold will be taken out the coming Summer than at any time since the discovery of these mines.

The Town.

The architectural beauty of the town has undergone an immense change since you were here. Quite a number of houses have been removed to Willow Creek and elsewhere. The noble structure formerly known as Moore's Hall (on the south side of Main Street), where, in the early times of this camp, the Dutch damsels sipped the foamy lager, and wheeled around in graceful evolutions in the misty mazes of the entrancing, exhilarating and enchanting waltz to the delicious strains of 'Lady Awake' or some other woman, we say, sorrowfully, that the magnificent edifice with its Corinthian columns, Doric windows, and Ionic cellar, is gone! John Chord's massive building will soon share the same fate as the Hurdy House. Other changes have taken place no less surprising.

Political Review.

We see that the Forty-third Congress have adjourned and gone home, but none too soon for the good of the people. It is true that towards the close of the session Poland's Committee Report on Arkansas Affairs was adopted by a respectable majority, apparently to Grant's discomfiture, but there has been no satisfactory solution or settlement of the Louisiana difficulty, as the Wheeler Compromise will not be accepted by the Louisiana Democracy except as a compulsory alternative. Grant undoubtedly intends to play his hand and hold the same trumps to the end of his term of office if he can. The redoubtable general of "bottled up" memory, and purveyor of silver plate and ladies wearing apparel, prophecies war, and tells when and how it will happen. He says that if his master Ulysses does not receive enough votes in the Electoral College to elect him for a third term, right then and there the magazine explodes and hostilities will commence. Butler, with all his shrewdness, little dreams of the nature of the war that will come next. Should war be inaugurated it will not be between North and South as he anticipates, but it will be a battle of the people for their constitutional rights, arrayed against the element that has always opposed them, the Puritan Element, the pestilential and poisonous faction that has caused ruin, desolation and disruption in every good government and in every country where they have obtained a foothold from time immemorial—and Butler being a notoriously obnoxious weed in that element, would be rooted out first.

In the Baker City Herald of April 3rd is paraded a great speech made by the Hon. J. C. Burrows in the House of Representatives on the 27th ult., and the Herald refers to it by saying that "It is considered as fine an effort and delivered with as much effect as any speech since the days of Clay and Webster." It is an insult to the memory of the two great American Statesmen to couple Burrows' speech with their names. The speech is replete with a spirit of intolerance from beginning to end, and its sentiment tends to a subversion of the Constitution; it recommends that the Southern States be kept under the supervision of the military; it implies that this is not a "white man's government;" the same old worn-out, whining story about Union and flag is rehearsed throughout the effusion; it says the Northern Democracy are very bad men, and the Southern no better, unless they do as he tells them; and Mr. Burrows is particularly uneasy that there are to be more leaders of the Confederate than the Union forces in the next House of Representatives, and to sum up the great speech in a few words it tells the people of the Southern States that they are in big luck to be alive, and that they must submit to Grant, and his soldiers, carpet-baggers, negroes and school-marms if they expect to have any peace. Our only hope is that the majority in the next Congress will be composed of men who are strict adherents of the Constitution, and then everything will be right, and we shall have no more military upstarts parading the streets of the capitals of the Sovereign States and calling on their master, who disgraces the Executive Chair at Washington, to proclaim the people of the Sovereign States banditti, and turn them over into their hands to be dealt with at will and as they may deem proper.

Yours &c., STATES RIGHTS.

The Connecticut Election.

NEW HAVEN, April 6.—The latest returns from this section of the Congressional district gives Phelps (Dem.) a majority of 1,195 with five towns to hear from, which last year gave a Democratic majority of 146. Sanders Democratic plurality in the 1st district, over Hawley, is 488. Barnum (Dem.) in the 4th district, is re-elected by probably 1,000 majority. Returns from the 3d district are meagre, but probably Starkweather (Rep.) is re-elected. The State Senate is Democratic by a large majority—returns already in showing there have been elected 13 Democrats out of 21. The Republicans gain largely in the House, and it is probably close.

HARTFORD, April 5.—Forty towns in the State give Ingersoll (Dem.) for Governor, 11,158; Green (Rep.) 8,808; Smith (Prohibition) 792. The same towns gave, in 1874—Ingersoll 9,808; Harrison, Rep., 7,828;

Smith, Prohib., 94. Ingersoll is probably elected by a large majority as last year. Hawley is probably defeated in the first district by from 2,000 to 4,000.

HARTFORD, April 5.—General Hawley runs ahead of the Republican ticket here, and Sanders, Dem., his opponent, is largely behind his ticket in his own town, New Britain.

HARTFORD, April 5, 10 P. M.—Eighty-one towns give Ingersoll 1,864 plurality over Green in a total vote of 37,744. The same towns last year gave Ingersoll over Harrison 2,093 in a total vote of 82,959.

Gen. Hawley is defeated for Congress in the first district by 490.

P. L. Barnum is elected Mayor of bridgeport. Republicans gain slightly in the Legislature, but probably not enough to overcome last year's Democratic majority.

New York, April 5.—With only 35 towns to hear from, the vote in Connecticut for Governor stands—Ingersoll, 50,896; Greene, 41,954; Smith, 2,298. Ingersoll is elected by 7,000 majority.

Congressmen are elected as follows: First district, Sanders, Dem.; second, Phelps, Dem.; third, Starkweather, Rep.; fourth, Barnum, Dem.

Ohio Municipal Elections.

CINCINNATI, April 6.—The Democratic city and county ticket was elected here yesterday. The Democrats elected their ticket in Zanesville, Troy, Lima, Crestline, Dayton, and Chillicothe; the Republicans and Independents in Springfield, Xenia, Urbana, Mansfield, Wilmington, Youngtown, London and Toledo.

CINCINNATI, April 5.—The vote at the election to-day was the heaviest ever polled in the city. Returns come in slowly, only five or six of the sixteen precincts being heard from. The re-election of Mayor Johnson over showman John Robinson, by 4,000 votes, and upward, is conceded. All the rest of the Democratic ticket is chosen beyond doubt by majorities ranging from 2,500 to 3,500. In spite of great excitement there was no serious disturbance up to this hour.

CLEVELAND, April 5.—The city election returns are coming in slowly. Returns to I. A. M. show large Republican gains over the Congressional vote last fall, and indicate the probable election of Chas. Pettigill, Republican, for mayor by a small majority; also Republican majority in the common council.

Michigan Judicial Election.

DETROIT, Mich., April 5.—The election in this State to-day brought out a light vote. Returns give the Republican candidates, for Supreme Court Judges a majority of about 15,000, against Gov. Bagley's 6,000 plurality last fall. Gains are very decided over last fall's vote. The Supreme Judges elected to-day are, Graves, Rep., and present incumbent, without opposition, and Marston, Rep., of Bay City, to fill the vacancy caused by Christianity's election to the U. S. Senate.

Beecher-Tilton-ica.

The great scandal trial is still in progress, and at the date of our latest reports from there, Beecher was still on the stand. However much our sympathies have been against him in this controversy, we must admit that as a witness he has been a success, and public opinion seems to have undergone some change in his favor since he began to testify. Mr. Ewart's fee will be $20,000.

A writer in the New York Sun argues that if even Beecher is guilty he owes it to Christianity to swear falsely too thin.

Bessie Turner testified that Tilton was in the habit of trying all the beds in the house before making up his mind which one to occupy. On these occasions Mrs. T. followed him with pillows.

During one of Beecher's recent prayer meetings he made the remark, "I have always had a good time in life," whereas there was a good deal of grinning in the audience. A Long Islander on a Brooklyn ferry boat recently was asked what the people in his section thought about the Beecher-Tilton scandal and replied, "most of our folks use Kerosene." The question was suggested by the presence of Mr. Ewart's who was convulsed with laughter at the rejoinder.

Susan B. Anthony, to whom Mrs. Tilton confessed her alleged adultery ought by all means to be permitted to testify.

AND now comes James Lick, the "great California philanthropist," and revokes the deed of trust filed by him in the Recorder's Office at San Francisco in July last. In this revocation Jim asserts that the trust deed was made hastily, inconsiderately, and under the effects of mental depression caused by failing health and the apprehension of speedy death. Being thus lastly he neglected to provide for those having natural claims upon him; that some of his purposes were imperfectly provided for, and the provisions respecting them of doubtful legality; that he wishes to make provision for those who have natural claims upon him, who, by the provisions of said deed of trust, were "left out in the cold." The upshot of the whole matter is that Jim thought he was going to die, and made certain disposition of his large estate; but with returning health came the old desire to be esteemed a rich man, and as he had gained all the notoriety he could reasonably expect through the newspapers for his "noble charity," he takes it all back, and announces that he can carry out his objects and designs personally much better than any set of "trustees." And thus it is that a lot of self-sacrificing trustees are thrown upon the cold charities of the world—out of a "sit," a "fat take," where a large number of shakels were to be handled.

BOUND OVER.—W. H. Baker, who killed Lee Stewart in Portland, an account of which appears on the outside of this weeks paper, was put under $2,000 bail on the charge of manslaughter, in default of which he was committed to the county jail.

BUTTER MAKING.—We understand that John Sturgill, of our county, is going into the butter-making business on a large scale. His churn will be run by horse-power, and will work 100 gallons of milk. If he had some of the butter in market now it would sell well.

Cheyenne is suffering in consequence of the large number of Black Hills gold hunters in that town who are rapidly becoming pauperized.

Merced, California, has about 2,000 inhabitants and nearly 100 business houses.—Three years ago the Railroad company sold the first lots in that town.

There are no crusaders in Russia. A man in that country who doesn't indulge occasionally is treated with contempt.

Some parties in Nevada have discovered a mode of working quartz without crushing, by dissolving the rock and extracting the metal in a few hours.

The coal mines at Stockton, Pa., are on fire and the miners will not assist in putting out the flames, although it would be to their interests to do so.

Gov. Hartrauff of Pennsylvania, says that order must be maintained in the mining districts cost what it may. He has sent troops to the infected districts.

THE SALE.—The sale of goods at Wingville on last Thursday was well attended. Joe Doby is a good auctioneer, but could not close the stock out in one day, so the sale was continued on Friday. Things, considering the hardness of the times, brought tolerable prices.

RECORDERS' COURT.—During the past week or so there has been two drunks and disorderlies, each fined five dollars and costs, and one drunk and resisting an officer, fined twenty dollars and costs.

JOHN LEW, who was taken to Portland on charges of violating the U. S. Revenue law plead guilty on three indictments and was fined twenty dollars on each, and another charge was dismissed.

ONE of the most neat and comfortable saloons in our city, is the Senate, V. Pfeifferberger Proprietor, on Front street, an advertisement of which will appear next week.

BORN.—A. Fairview, Idaho Territory, April 8th, 1875, to the wife of L. B. Rinehart, a son. Mother and son both doing well.

APPLES.—Phil Hardesty and Johnny Levens have a fine lot of apples on sale at their variety and vegetable store.

SCHOOL MEETING.—There will be an adjourned meeting of the School Directors of District No. 5, held at the office of the District Clerk, on to-morrow evening, Thursday, at half past seven o'clock. It is hoped the Directors will all be present, as business of importance will come up for action.

J. M. SHEPHERD, Clerk.

THE regular monthly covenant meeting of the Baptist Church, will be held on Saturday afternoon of this week at 2 o'clock P. M. at the Methodist Church. Preaching on next Sabbath at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 1/2 o'clock P. M. E. P. WALTZ, Pastor.

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND.—It is susceptible of easy proof that the Sewing Machine has been a greater blessing to the masses of American people than any invention of the present century. Nothing else has done so much to save the lives and health of the wives and mothers, the patient overworked women of the land, who, as a class, most needed relief from the burthens of every-day life. Every father and husband falls in his duty if he neglects to endow his home with such a triumph of science as the Wilson Shuttle Sewing Machine. Machines will be delivered at any railroad station in this county, free of transportation charges, if ordered through the Company's Branch House at 327 & 329, Superior St., Cleveland, Ohio.

They send an elegant catalogue and chromo circular, free, on application. This Company want a few more good agents.

CONSUMPTION the scourge of the human family, may in its early stages be promptly arrested and permanently cured. RAYNESWOOD, W. Va.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.: Sir—For the last year I have been using your Golden Medical Discovery. I owe my life to it, having been afflicted for years. Did not use it but a short time before I was benefited; at that time I was very bad, not able to sit up much, was suffering greatly with my throat, was getting blind, had a dry cough, and much pain in my lungs. I have used twelve bottles of the Discovery and am almost well. KATE T. WARDNER.

A son of Mr. J. H. Mosack, of Chatham Four Corners, N. Y., has been cured of Consumption by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, —so says Mr. C. B. Canfield, editor of the Chatham Courier.

E. R. Eglar, druggist, of West Union, O., writes to state that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has effected a wonderful cure of Consumption in his neighborhood.

A gentleman in want of a housekeeper tried an odd experiment. He sent out two advertisements, one for a lady of education and elegant manners, qualified to act as a companion as well as housekeeper, and was overwhelmed with replies. The only requirement in the other advertisement was that the lady should be plain in features, but not a solitary applicant appeared to answer that appeal.

Order is Heaven's first law, and it has never been repealed. To make a tall man short—try to borrow five dollars of him. If you are out in a driving storm don't try to hold the rains.
