A LEADER-GOSSIP.

The Editor is sick ! We don't want anybody to get scared by the heading of this article. If it should become frightful before it is finished, it will be the fault of the subject, not our intention. We don't intend to be personal, the subject wouldn't bear investigation in that way. Gossip is unconsidered talk about everything and everybody. There's lots of it, and various kinds. We shall endeavor, in accordance with the modern rule of "how not to do it". make brief mention of the kinds we don intend to refer to.

The Editor is sick ! We don't intend to refer to that class of gossip indulged in by the female sex, where Mrs. Pegtop and Mrs. Whiffletree, who hate each other with forty-horse power, after meeting and kissing one another, sit down, and lovingly, smilingly and unctuously proceed to demolish their female acquaintances in the most approved style, until the listener would think he heard the only two exceptional females in the community.

The Editor is sick ! We don't intend to refer to the kind of gossip indulged in by Mrs. Slippikins, who makes her weekly visits to gather and diffuse information with the regularity of a weekly newspaper, and the genuine disinterestedness of a paripatetic philosopher. Dear old Mrs. Slippikins ! How interesting it is to know that Polig Womsley's oldest daughter is not likely to get married to the feller that's been runnin' after her all winterhow Mr. Lallygag staid out all one night, supposed to be drunk-or elsewhere-John Pliffkins' bay horse died of the colic, and Surah Ann Muggins' last and least baby has got a double-tooth, and is now laboring under a complication of chicken-pox, whooping-cough and smuffles ! Unfortunate infant !

The Editor is sick ! We don't for a moment refer to the kind of gossip which takes place among a party of men seated around a bar-room stove, when a pretty woman passes by. The choice language used in detailing the history of everything to her discredit is a morceau that to be properly appreciated needs only to be heard. It is, however, like two dry goods drummers talking against each other, nobody believes even what he says himself. The Editor is sick ! Don't understand for us moment as referring to a kind of

DRESS MAKING!

Mrs. R. C. Shepherd & Co.,

Respectfully inform the Ladies of Baker City and vicinity, that they have opened an establishment, at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Shepherd, in the 15th day of February, A. D. 1875, and the costs and disbursements of this action. You wil also take notice that this sum-mons is published by order of the Hon. L.

STERNS & HYDE,

gossip where you occasionally get into company with two or three fellow travelers, and you have to do all the talking yourself. Thus, directing your conversation to one:

- "Fine weather, sir !"
- "Yes." To the next one-
- "Looks like rain !"
- "Yes."

To the other-"I'll bet it'll snow in twenty minutes !" "Yes."

The amount of information you would receive in this kind of gossip is only equalled by your exasperating satisfaction at having had everything your own way.

The Editor is sick ! The milk of human kindness coursing through our veins forbids us to mention the gossip of a group of men on a street corner as some professional man passes by. If a lawyer-"Oh yes ! D-d smart feller-biggest rascal in the county, though. Throw off on you in a minute." If a doctor-"Yes, pretty good doctor now, but he filled many a grave yard before he lear'nt how to cure a billious attack." If a minister-"Oh, yes, HE works for pay, derned good thing. May be a good man, but you see how it is with Beecher ?"

The Editor is sick ! He has been getting better for some days. He requested us to write a leader. We have conscienciously tried our best, but find that after describing all the gossip we don't intend to write about, the subject has "give out." If the Editor don't have a relapse after reading this, he may consider himself out of danger.

A DISCOVERY .- We were informed some time ago, that there were two Government detectives in our midst, spying out the persons who had or are cutting timber on government land, or who were in posession of lumber made out of the aforesaid timber. We kept looking out for them, but didn't see anything suspicious, until some time last week, when we saw iwo well dressed persons looking all over the town, at the houses and into the yards and making mysterious demonstrations with a tape line, "Aha ! said we to ourselves-there's they !" We were about to rush off and inform the public, when we met Smilax Smoothbriar, who knows everything, and he told us that they were Mr. George Woodard and Mr. J. J. Ecoffey, who were making a plat of the town and buildings for the use of the Phonix Insurance Company, of Hartford. We hoved a sigh of relief. Mr. Woodward has established an agency for that Company here. Mr. Ecoffey is the agent.

NEVER TOO LATE .-- The Oregonian, has actually ventured an editorial in which it appears there is such a place as Eastern Oregon, and that it is a place of some mineral and agricultural wealth. It got its informa- influenced the jury. tion from our townsman Brown, the State Treasurer. It is a melancholy reflection to conjecture that if Brown hadn't informed it about us, how long we would have remained a land editorially unknown to the Oregonian. The Schoolmaster is abroad ! Hurrah for Brown !!

BAD FOR GRANT .- The Portland Bulletin says the Republicans of New Hampshire declared against the third term (Grant), and succeeded-the Republicans of Connecticut dodged the third term (Grant) and were beaten. It don't say any more.-

Pastor. IF Chas. St. Louis has located permanently in Baker; and is now prepared to man-ufacture and repair all kinds of jewelry and watches. After twenty-eight years experience in the business, he feels competent to give entire satisfaction. Mr. St. Louis, is also agent for the best Sewing Machine in use, the New Wilson, price, $55,00.

Important Mining Decision.

Copp's Land Owner for March contains a decision, of the Secretary of the Interior establishing the following general principles of importance to parties interested in mines: Where the given name of the party executing the deed, differs from his name as found on the location notice, the identity of the person must be shown. Full and complete copies of the respective conveyances are unnecessary. Under the rules, a complete abstract is only required. An affidavit of the continuous posting plat and notice on the claim must be made by one of the parties owning the mine at the date of entry at the local office. The plat posted on the claim as required by the statutes, must be a copy of the plat filed with the application for a patent. Only citizens or these who have declared their intention are authorized to claim and locate mines. A foreigner may make a mining location, and dispose of it, provided he becomes a citizen before disposing of the mine. Prcof that the party was not a citizen before disposing of his claim must be affirmatively shown by the adverse claimant.

THE last heard of Elder Hammond, the great blatherskite revivalist, he was on his way to 'Stockton, from San Francisco. If they will only close the gates of the Asylum on him and keep him there, he will be the "right man in the right place."

A Boston journal prints "directions how to walk with safety down inclines of plate glass showered, profusely with oil." The best plan is to slide cff and take to the street.

A lady at Memphis says she doesn't want any jewelry, hasn't a looking glass in the house, and wouldn't take a silk dress as a gift. Memphis has another living curiosity -a cross-eyed cat.

A St. Louis sergeant of police froze to death a few nights ago while making his rounds. This is another awful commentary on the foolish custom of closing saloons at 11 o'clock .- - Milwaukee News.

An Ohio youth is to be hanged next March for killing a small boy to obtain the posession of a pound of brown sugar. It was the principle of the thing, not the sugar, which "Julius, why didn't you oblong your stay at the Springs?" "Kase, Mr. S.low, dey charge too much." "How so, Julius?" "Why, de landlord charged dis colored individual wid stealing de spoons,"

Above all things, learn your child to be honest and industrious; if these two things don't enable him to make a figure in the world, he is only a cypher, and never was intended for a figure .- Josh Billings.
