IMMIGRANTS.

Below will be seen article from the Boise Statesman, mentioning the arrival of a company of Immigrants at Boise City on their way to Baker City, where they intend to settle. We understand there will be a large immigration to Eastern Oregon this season, and when they arrive among us, the parties will want something to do to support themselves, and those depending upon them. There is plenty of employment for them at good wages, but new comers will not know where to look for work. To obviate this evil we will open a book at the Bedrock Democrat office in which we will enter the wants of all those who wish to hire workmen in any or all branches of business, if those wanting hands to work will let us know of the fact—this we will do free of charge to all. We make this offer to accommodate those wanting hands as well as those wanting to work. We will also keep a register of all lands or ranches for sale or rent if those owning them will furnish us with the same with what information they have to give.

If we wish strangers coming among us to stay with us, we conceive it to be the duty of ever one to aid them to procure employment to support themselves and to give them time to look around for localities and business that will suit them. It is to the interest of our citizens to encourage new comers to settle with us and in no way can we do this as well as in aiding them to procure employment. We have plenty of good vacant lands the improvement of which will add to the prosperity and wealth of our country.

Since the above was written the Company spoken of by the Boise Statesman have arrived in our City, and have taken up their abode with us for the present. The gentlemen forming the company want employment. As we said above those wanting workmen or laborers will please inform us of the fact, so that those seeking work may know where it is to be obtained.

Immigrants.—The Boise City Statesman of May 25th says, quite a little company of immigrants from Plattsburg, Clinton county, Missouri, passed through here yesterday looking for homes but design first on going to Baker county, Oregon, where they have acquaintances. They left home on the 15th of April and came by railroad to Ogden and from there by teams. Were detained twelve days by the railroad blockade. The company comprises five men, five women and eight children, as follows: J. H. Rogers, a painter by trade, wife and five children; J. N. Forsyth, druggist; J. C. Culver, carpenter; M. C. Coffman and Joseph Coffman, blacksmiths, mother of three sisters and their sisters children. They appear to be well-to-do intelligent goodlooking people, but give a sorry account of times in Missouri. The choicest farms where they came from can be bought for $18 per acre. They think it quite possible that they will eventually settle in Idaho. They are the right kind of immigrants and we hope they will do so.

Bristow's War.

The New York Sun of May 21st says, "it was easy to foresee when the recent raid was made upon the Whiskey Ring, that its vast ramifications and powerful influences would be soon concentrated at Washington, to break down whoever had the courage and the honesty to make war on such a powerful combination of manufacturers, dealers, officials, and third-term politicians. That expectation has already been realized.

"When the first movement in this direction was organized by the Secretary of the Treasury, through an order to change the districts of all the Supervisors of internal revenue so as to prevent collusion, the Ring chiefs appealed to the President and had it revoked before going into operation. They knew how to touch the sacred springs, and with Measurer Babcock for an ally, they had access to the most confidential knowledge, and could thus counteract the plans for their detection and punishment.

"The connections of the Ring were so well laid, that with all the care, caution, and secrecy employed in the late attack, it was on the point of failure, and had in fact to be suspended a whole week at much risk, in consequence of information voluntarily given out at the White House to be published, and as is now evident, intended to put the combination at a distance on their guard. The press was unconsciously used in this way as a means of warning the plunderers to prepare for the assault.

"The whiskey frauds have produced more than a millions of dollars annually for division among the Ring which, besides the officials and others directly concerned in the work, includes Senators, Representatives, and political managers in various States. A fund is thus provided to keep up the efficiency of the Republican organization and for use at elections. Thousands of active, shrewd, and unscrupulous men are regularly enlisted in this combination as electioneering agents with large pay.

"If the policy which Mr. Bristow has inaugurated be carried out effectively, the Ring will not only be deprived of these spoils but the revenue force which has operated as a partisan body to make members of Congress and Legislatures, can no longer be relied on for that service. The prospect of such consequences has alarmed the Republican leaders, and they are now combining, with the support of veal members of the Cabinet, to force an issue between the President and Mr. Bristow, with a view of driving him out of the Treasury and substituting a friend of the Ring in his place, under whom the former practices may be revived and continued.

"They have shrewdly turned the war on the Ring to account with the President, by representing that it originated in the ambition of the Secretary of the Treasury to supplant him with the party, and citing the commendation awarded to Mr. Bristow by the independent press as proof of this charge. It is easy to excite the jealousy and resentment of a narrow and selfish mind, and these suggestions, repeated by those near him, must naturally have made an impression on Gen. Grant.

"Robeson and Belknap have also improved every opportunity to stir up prejudice against Bristow, by alleging that his course in the Treasury was distracting the party now and designed to ruin it in the end, and arraigning him for hostility to a colleague, by consenting to present the charges against Delano and his son, which led to the recent explosion. It is not at all impossible that this effort to reform a most glaring abuse from inside may shiver the Cabinet to pieces. The republican managers will never consent to give up their patronage and plunder without a desperate struggle. Heretofore, they have never failed to have the sympathy and support of the President, and now Bristow is an obstacle in their way, and the world has gone out that he must be crushed.

"This warfare is not new. Boss Shepherd began it soon after Mr. Bristow entered the Treasury and refused to run in the ruts of Richardson for his profit. It was repeated when he ordered Mullett into exile. Now it no longer touches individuals merely, but reaches into the very heart of a potent combination, with branches in all the great cities of the Union, with immense capital at its back, and political connections that cannot be ignored.

"Of course, the Rings with which Delano is associated all zealously cooperate against Bristow, under the belief that his presence in the Cabinet and his stern determination to drive out corruption must ultimately lead to their downfall. With them it is a life and death struggle, and no means, however desperate, will be left untried to bring about his retirement by disturbing the good relations between him and the President, which are indispensable to the success of his future plans for driving thieves out of office and collecting the revenue honestly."

OUR CLARKSVILLE LETTER.

CLARKSVILLE, May 28th, 1875. EDITOR DEMOCRAT.—I noticed an editorial in the Herald of last week on Free Roads, on which I wish to make a few comments, and also offer a few considerations, which, I think, should be reflected on by Tax-Payers before urging on County Commissioners the propriety of building a free road or buying any toll road at the present time. The benefits accruing to the County from having free roads may, to a certain extent, be admitted, but would the County, if they owned a road, such as runs from Baker City to Eldorado, keep it in good running order Winter and Summer? If they did, they would have to pay each year more than is paid to any official in this county, if they did not there would be more grumbling heard from freighters and others than has ever been heard about paying toll.

As regards the petition "largely signed" we hope "the proper authority will weigh the matter carefully." Look at the list of petitioners than at the Tax List (for the Tax-Payers being the parties that will have to settle the bill are the ones really interested) and see how many of the names are on both. We all know how easy it is to get a petition signed for almost any object where there is no money to be paid by the party signing—many laws will make much noise about the necessity of public improvements who grumble considerably when they have to pay. They are animated a good deal by the same feelings as Mark Twain was during the war, willing that all his wife's relations should be sacrificed.

Before this road in question was built, parties on this side of the mountain were almost entirely cut off from communication from the outside world one-half the year, the mail was brought here on the back of a man traveling on snow-shoes.—Persons receiving letters were obliged to pay one dollar for each one received. It would have been a great blessing to people on this side the mountain had the County built a road at that time but it was not expected, nor asked for, and why? Because they knew the County was financially unable to build and keep up such a road and I think the proper authorities will come to the same conclusion at the present time. If not, and they think the majority of Tax-Payers want a free road and it is for the interest of the County in its present financial condition to have one, they can buy the toll road running from Baker City to Eldorado, Clarksville, &c., for about one-half what it would cost to build one, so one of the largest stockholders in the road told me.

The Editor of the Herald thinks it singular that our citizens cannot get to their County Seat on business as jurors, &c., without paying for the privilege? I should think it very singular if they could have roads built and kept in order without paying for it; there is a difference in the manner of paying, that's all. Private enterprise demands payment from those only who use the road, whereas the County would demand payment from every Tax-Payer.

One of the richest counties in Central New York, in which I resided for many years, had several toll roads. You were obliged to pay toll on the outskirts of a city of upwards of twenty thousand inhabitants. People there were of the opinion that private enterprise would keep the road in better order than the County probably would.

There are many men of the present day who think it would be well that the County, State or Government should carry on most of the enterprises that have heretofore been carried on by individuals or corporations. I am of a different opinion.

Yours, &c.

A TAX-PAYER.

A call has been issued to the Democratic State Central Committee, signed by Henry Klippel, chairman, requesting that body to meet in the city of Portland on the 24th of June.

LATE NEWS.

We condense the following news items from the Owyhee Avalanche of May 20th: There are over one hundred recruits en route to Walla Walla from St. Louis.

A woman in Wilkes county, N. C., gave birth to triplets three times in succession. There would seem to be no longer any doubt that Mr. Anthony of the late Sacramento Union, is to be the candidate of the Booth party for Governor of California.

The young grasshoppers of Kansas are starving. They came out before vegetation, and are actually perishing for lack of the commonest necessities of life.

The Northern Pacific Railroad has been assessed at the rate of $9,000 per mile in Pierce county, W. T., and the Sheriff of that county has expressed a determination to collect the delinquent taxes of the company.

Miss Early, who got the verdict of $25,000 for libel, against the Chicago Times, has consented to be satisfied with $15,000, which Bro. Story will have to pay.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, who has obtained control of a process for the artificial manufacture of ice, has begun the erection of factories in the cities of Galveston, New Orleans, Mobile, Atlanta, Savannah and Augusta.

The perseverance displayed by Grant in finding officers for the worst class of knavish politicians, the New York Sun thinks, will entitle him to affectionate remembrance in the hearts of all dead-beats in the country when he retires to private life.

Ben Hill has been elected to Congress from the Ninth Congressional District of Georgia, in place of McMillan, deceased.— Though a Major-General in Lee's army, Hill was among the very first to accept the situation at the close of the war.

What Mr. Johnson Says.

The Oregonian of May 26th says, we find in the Green Bay (Wis.) Advocate of recent date the following: Mr. M. Johnson, who left here about three months ago to make his residence at Oswego, Oregon, has returned to remain, satisfied that there is no better place than Brown county. He tells us that most of those whom he met there, who have recently emigrated to Oregon, and have money enough to return with, are coming back. The country is overstocked with labor, and there are twenty men for every day's work.

The Chinamen are underbidding all other laborers. He advises us to make a living in the north to stay here, and says that no man should go to Oregon or California who has not got plenty of money to live on. "Mr. M. Johnson must have met out here a class of immigrants whom no one else ever sees. We meet with persons almost every day who have come into this State within the last few months, and we hardly ever hear one of them express himself disappointed with the country. Indeed, most of them are better suited than they expected to be, and are going to work with renewed courage to build up homes in this land of plenty. The country is not overstocked with labor. There is no room here, it is true, for persons who are afraid of work. But a young State, like Oregon, has too many inviting fields for enterprise to be overstocked with labor. Nor do the Chinamen succeed in underbidding all other labor. People who are willing to work here for the same wages they would get elsewhere need never be out of employment. We can't agree with Mr. M. Johnson that this coast is no place for "a man who has not got plenty of money to live on." There is no other place, we venture to assert, in the world, where a man without means can make a living easier than in Oregon. If a man has "plenty of money to live on," we should advise him to go to Europe, where there is real opportunity for enjoyment, and not to such young and comparatively raw countries as Oregon, California, or even Brown county, Wisconsin; but if he has nothing but a brave heart and willing hands, this is the place for him.

NEW YORK GOLD-ROOM.

But do the friends of the drifting policy consider the evils which their plan inflicts upon the country? Look at this single act: As matters are at present constituted, a whole nation, numbering 36,000,000 is left at the mercy of 500 gold-gamblers in New York City! It is incalculable the loss to which the country is subjected when these gentlemen, for their amusement or profit, put up the price of gold even one per cent. Every well-ordered government on the face of the earth punishes gambling as a misdemeanor, if not a crime; and so the common nimbler-fingered gentry who following this calling, in all other towns and cities, are periodical visited with the extreme penalty of the laws. Yet our paternal government suffers the whole business of the country to be put in daily jeopardy by the tricks of the gamblers in Wall Street, and has ceased the effort to provide any remedy against their reputable stratagems. Nor will any remedy prove efficacious short of making greenbacks equal in value to gold. That will put an end to one of the most mischievous and hurtful occupations that is presented in our land. Another evil that is quite as serious is the opportunity which is afforded to the capitalists of the country unduly to increase their hoards of wealth. The United States is a paradise, not only for gamblers—if so be they make their headquarters in Wall Street, and speculate in those values which touch most vitally the business of the country—but for bankers as well. It is a well known fact that the national banking business institutions are annually dividing enormous profits among the stockholders, and this, too, while other interests are staggering under loads that may almost be said to be unprecedented. If ever in the history of the world laws were framed expressly, as it would seem, to make the rich richer and the poor poorer, we find an illustration of this policy in the present laws touching financial interests in this year of grace 1875, and in this boasted country of ours.—From "How Many do Two and Two Make?" in Overland Monthly for June.

KILLED BY AN INDIAN.—The Walla Walla Statesman says that Capt. J. M. Gorman, of that place, has received a letter from Benton dated May second, giving the intelligence of the killing of two white men, by an Indian. One of them Jack Gorman, brother of Capt. Gorman, and the other, Frank Keiser. Gorman and Keiser were Indian traders traveling near Fort Benton with an Indian guide, who committed the double murder and then escaped.

J. M. Notre Dame Academy,

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE Sisters of the Holy Names of JESUS & MARY, BAKER CITY, OREGON.

The object of this institution is to afford young ladies the opportunities enjoyed in the most approved educational establishments, for acquiring a thorough English education, together with all the accomplishments included in the most complete system of instruction.

The moral and intellectual improvement of the pupils will be attended to with the greatest solicitude, and the most devoted attention paid to their domestic comfort. In case of sickness the sisters will carefully nurse their boarding scholars, and timely send word to parents and guardians. At all hours the young ladies are under the watchful care and government of their teachers.

Pupils of every religious denomination will be equally received, and all interference with their religious convictions carefully avoided. Good order, however, requires that all should conform to the general regulations of the institution.

All letters to and from the pupils will be inspected by the Superiores.

The scholastic year commences on the first of August, and terminates on the first of July. It is divided into four terms.

The Christmas vacation extends from December 24th to January 2d.

Each young lady must be provided with a black veil, four changes, a dressing case furnished with combs, brushes, etc., four towels, a basin and pitcher, four table napkins, a knife and fork, table and tea spoon, and a colander.

For clothing, books, etc., no advances are made by the Institution. To meet such expenses, a sufficient sum must be deposited with the Superiores of the Academy.

Payments for each term in both day and boarding school invariably required in advance.

When parents or guardians wish to withdraw their children or wards they must give timely notice, settle all accounts, and forward money to defray traveling expenses.

Visitors, authorized by parents or guardians to call, will be admitted on Thursdays and Sundays, from 1 o'clock to 4 P. M.
