THE PACIFIC COAST.

We see by the Wallamette papers that there is quite a tide of Immigration arriving in Western Oregon from and by way of California. This is a natural consequence, and we are only surprised that this has not been the case long ago. Every person who has ever lived in or knows anything about California must be aware of the fact that there is there only a limited portion of the lands in that State that are susceptible of cultivation and the most of these need irrigation; and again that the best of all the lands there are covered by Spanish Grants, or are in the hands of a few capitalists, or corporations control them, and will only dispose of them at figures beyond the reach of any man with moderate means, and a poor man has no chance there at all. When any of these lands are sold to individuals and full payment is not made, good interest is paid and a mortgage given to secure the balance due. and when men of small means come in competition with the large capitalists who surround them, and who are able to supply themselves with all the modern improvemements of the day in husbandry, the man of moderate means must fail and ultimately he loses his lands and is compelled to seek a more favorable place to exercise their industry, a place where he is not summoned by those who are able and who seek to crush him out. A poor man has no show in California to make a start, and that State is now overrun with persons seeking employment; in part the most reliable papers of the Golden State come to us with the word that there is a great overplus of laboring men there, and in consequence there is considerable suffering, | in two or three weeks if the jury don't hang. among the poorer classes.

those who cannot find employment there should seek some other land where they have a prospect of making a living for themselves and those dependent upon them, and in looking for such a place they naturally turn their eyes and steps towards Oregon, with the expectation of bettering their condition, and in almost every instance we are satisfied they are successful. There are some men who would not be satisfied anywhere-such we do not expect to be satisfied with any portion of our State. In Oregon we have plenty of good Government lands that are open to entry, or to be taken as homesteads, and the State has large quantities of the best of lands which are sold at Government price, and the payments can be made in installments of one third down, one third in three years and the balance in five years, the purchaser giving the State a mortgage and paying legal interest on the balance due. Eastern Oregon contains the most of these lands, as well as a large amount of the Government lands. Here too, we have rich and extensive mines which furnishes a good market for the farmers surplus products, and furnishes labor for a vast number of laborers at good and remunerative wages. There is still room in Eastern Oregon for an undimited number of inhabitants, and we have plenty of work for them to do until they can have time to look around and permanently settle themselves in business, or procure land upon which they can build up comfortable and beautiful B. M., saying that he is not satisfied to rehomes. The Cincinnati Commercial thinks Bayard, of Delaware, will be the next Democratic candidate for President, because "those who watched the course of Bayard last Winter must have seen that he aimed at the leadership of his party in the Senate. He did not make as many able speeches as Sen- Mrs. Jefferson Davis on the streets, and inator Thurman, but he displayed inflexibility stead of passing her without recognition, of will and executive force in a greater degree than any other member of his party. He it was who defeated Morton's proposition to amend the rules so as to make the formality of declaring a Presidential election less dangerous; and his avowed policy was to take the chances of throwing the House, where the result would be the choice of a Democrat. Thurman was inclined to yield to the blaudishments of Morton, for the sake of greater security of peace, but Bayard was fierce and stern, and represented the aggressive intensity of his party. "Another point may be worth nothing, vis.: "That Bayard has, within a year, given more elegant dinner parties than any other man in Washington, the President and Secretary of State not excepted, showing himself an admirable host, and making a most pleasing impression upon his guests, among whom were included all the members of both Houses capable of appreciating a good dinner. This is not a large matter, but it is not a small symptom.' TELEGRAPH TO BOISE CITY .- The Owyhee Avalanche of June 4th says, John Minear returned from Boise City last evening, and informs us that all the financial aid asked for to enable the Nevada and Northern Telegraph Company to extend their line from Silver City to that place has been subscribed and that the contract to build the line will immediately be let. The wire will be ordered from San Francisco to-day, and inside of two months an electric shock will wake up the Rip Van Winkles of the Capital and install new life-blood into their veins. This will enable us to lay before our readers every evening whatever of importance happens in Boise City during the day. Let the good work go on, and not stop till the musical click of the telegraphic instrument is heard in every mining camp, town and hamlet in our Territory.

IMMIGRATION .- The La Grande Sentinel says, thousands of immigrants are constantly pouringinto California, and it is positively asserted that many are unable to obtain employment at living rates. Oregon, Washington and Idaho Territories each furnish a field for persons seeking homes, that cannot be surpassed. No persons need have any fears regarding inability to procure employment here at remunerative wages. Land is cheap, good homes can be procured at trifling cost, and the people here ought by all means to raise money and have thousands of pamphlets printed showing the resources of this country and inducements for settlers to come here to locate, and every steamer from San Francisco should be furnished with these pamphlets.

A GRAND MISTAKE .- A Girl in a neighboring town was shocked the other evening, by her own mistake. Being sent for some flour to a store in a hurry, she took what she supposed to be a clean pillow slip from her bureau drawer. When she reached the store, she handel the supposed pillow slip to the young clerk to fill with flour. Even he did not notice what "they" were till a scoop of flour had gone through them. When he raised them up and exposed two outlets at the bottom, nicely fringed, etc., the girl ran from the store without saying a word, and the young man covered with flour, laid the garment in the "drawer" to await her return. He will probably wait some time.

A number of Republican papers, for some time, have been urging that the third term business originated with the Democrats and does not worry any one else, but it seems that the question is troubling a great many Republicans. The Republicans of Summit county, Ohio, don't appear to thing it is al together a Democratic story. The Summit county Republicans held their convention Saturday to elect delegates to the State Convention, and thought it necessary to adopt a resolution instructing their delegates to favor an anti-third term plank in the State platform. That don't look much like the Democrats were the only parties who worried themselves over the third term.

TILTON VS. BEECHER .- This worldwide famed trial is about to close-that is it will Judge Porter is going after Tilton, and if This being the fact it is only natural that | Fullerton's cross-ex-amination of Beecher is an index to that lawyer's talent he will not say any very complimentary things of the Pastor of Plymouth Church. The common expression is that it don't matter what verdict is secured no one's opinion will be changed. It is one of those cases where the public is as much concerned as the parties litigant and the people will judge for themselves. The verdict of the great jury is made > INSANE .- Ex-Senator James W. Nye, of Nevada, is hopelessly insane and has been removed from the Bloomingdale Asylum to the Sanford Hall Asylum, a private institution, where he can be more satisfactorily cared for. He is subject to occasional fits of violence. Mrs. Lincoln, widow of ex-President Lincoln, has also been adjudged insane and has been removed to a private asylum at Batavia, Illinois. Of all the various ills of the human race the dethronement of reason is the most distressing to contemplate by the friends of this unfortunate class of beings.

Run, Boulder and Last Chance Creeks .-The Bull Run District is again divided up into several gulches, some of them paying well; the best of these is Onion Gulch, now being worked by Flaherty & Lynch with excellent prospects. There is much ground through this range that would pay fair wages, but the water privilege is very limited. At the junction of Bull Run and Upper Granite is situated the town of Independence, which was once a lively little camp; it has gone down considerably, but is still the centre of supplies for a considerable mining community. Above Independence about one mile comes in Boulder and Last Chance Creeks, both of which have had considerable work done on them, some getting very good pay, while others, less fortunate, made a break. There is undoubtedly some very fair paying ground still left on both of these gulches, as well as on Granite. All of these streams mentioned as Granite Creek and tributaries head up on that high mountain standing back from Powder River, and known on this side as "Old Baldy," and as I may have something to say in relation to quartz hereafter, I will also mention the fact that every stream coming down from that mountain on this side, has gold in it in greater or less quanties .-There is much ground in this section that would pay to work if water was more plenty. My next will take in Trail Creek and Grande Ronde Diggings.

7-UP. Yours, HOW IT HAPPENED.

BY SUSANNA SLIPSHOD. EDITOR BEDROCK-Of Baker City Town, pen in hand I sit me down, here in Connor Creek diggings, to tell you how one "Elam Spriggins"-a gentleman-(some doubt of that) wrote a fib to the DEMOCRAT. He tells of how "on a Sunday fine, the ladies and gentlemen formed a line, each one gaily dressed in their store clothes best, and marched to the river's brink"pause, Mr. Editor, here and think. He cannot spell seissors ! this verdant youth. is it a wonder he does not tell the truth ?-You've read the letter so then you know, how he tells of "the carriages all in a row" and the "ladies who went to the races that day," I rise to explain, it happened this way: Some ladies were invited to go for a ride, and wishing to gaze on the rushing tide, of the swift, rolling riversno thought of the races, believe me, ever entered their innocent minds) what was their horror on arriving to find a horse race in progress !! What did they do? I guess somebody learned how to play 'Jhob," and the next time they want to 'put up a job" it won't be on women. The gents all alighted enroute for the 'track," saying "please hold the team until we come back." Gravity rested upon every face, until resolution had taken its place. For ere the last gent had quitted his seat, the ladies determined to beat a retreat. Who'll drive ? was a query, which of us can ? "I, said Miss good as a man !" and seizing the reins she flourished the whip, and uttered a something that sounded like ge-ip, and their escorts looked on in hopeless amaze, and silently watched them flee from their CHEAP .- Jones gave a lawyer a bill to be collected to the amount of $30. Calling for it, after awhile, he inquired if it had been collected. "Oh," said the lawyer laughing, 'I'm not going to charge you -why I have known you ever since you were a baby, and your father before you; $20 will be about right," handing over $10. "Well," said Jones, as he meditated upon the transaction, "Its darned lucky he didn't know my grand father, or I shouldn't have got anything!"

CORRECTED .- A Providence lady was recently overheard at an evening assembly speaking in high praise of a pretty girl just "Why she is a perfect paregram passing. of a young lady!" "I think you mean parallelogram, do you not?" suggested the wag-gish gentleman addressed. "I said parallelogram, Mr. —," exclaimed the lady, with a combination of dignity and indignation impossible to describe.

ALARMING .- Two colord men took refuge under a tree in a violent thunder storm "Julius, can you pray?" said one. "No, Sam." was the reply; "nebber prayed in my "Well, cant you sing a hymn?" Just life. then the lightning struck a tree near by, shivering it, when the first speaker exclaim-"See heah, honey, sumfin' 'ligious has ed: got to be done, an' dat mighty suddin, too, s'pose you pass around de hat!"

HIS CHOICE .- "My son," said a father to his little boy at the breakfast table, "if you had the choice to be burned at the stake, like John Rogers or to have your head chop ped off like King Charles the First, which would you choose?" "John Rogors," said the boy. "And why?" "Because," replied the boy. "And why?" "Because," replied the boy, "I should prefer a hot steak to a cold chop,

"Dear me, how fluidly he talks," said Mrs. Partington recently, at a temperance meet-ing.5 'I am always rejoiced when he mounts the nostrils, for his elequence warms every cartridge in my body.'

A little girl and boy, three or four years old, were playing on the ice when sis tell down and commenced to cry. Bub ran up and soothingly lisped: "Don't cwy! Thweat! Thwear! Thay damn!"

The principal tributaries are Bull the cook?"

The Boise City Statesman of June 5th says Mr. John Boyd, of Baker City, has returned from the railroad, whither he went to take his brother, R. B. M. Boyd, formerly of the Baker City Herald, and family on their way to Jowa. But since Mr. Boyd has arrived here he has received letters from his brother R. main in Iowa, and he is already selling out his property there preparatory to moving back to this Territory. He thinks, however, of settling in the Goose Creek valley and going into the stock business.

It is stated that when Vice-President Wilson was in Memphis, he met his old frien clasped her hand in a friendly manner, and invited her to an ice cream saloon where the two discussed strawberries and old memories together. If the story is true, the loyal Republican organs will sail into him anew.

ADVANCED BOYS .- Detroit boys seem to advance in education whether they attend school or not. A news boy who couldn't change a ten cent piece a year ago, was recently heard remarking: "William Scott, if you ever corrugate your brow at me in that way again. I shall temporarily deposite my papers on the pavement, and cause the blood to coagulate under your left optic, Hear me, William?"

It is reported that a man went home about 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, and using his umbrella for a billiard cue, smote his sleeping wife in the short ribs, crying, "Pool," and sank into a sweet slumber. He has since explained to his wife that woman can have no idea how the cares of business will sometimes effect a man's brain.

AMONG THE MOUNTAINS.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:-In my last I left you at the mouth of Olive Creek, there we reach Clear Creek, which has a fine water privilege, and for several miles gold has been found, but as yet not considered as sufficient to pay for working, except near where it empties in Granite Creek, it has not been fully prospected, and might have a good "pay streak." Coming into Granite Creek we have a stream that has been worked some fifteen miles in length without counting in numerous tributaries and, although it has been mined for some fourteen years, it still yields its annual tribute of wealth, having yielded more gold than any other place in Eastern Oregon-Canyon Creek, alone excepted. It is now being worked mostly by Chinese though a few while companies are still When a young lady living on the line of working with good prospects. Wancop & Co., Born & Lucas and F. Weigman are the principal ones. There are several running hill cuts, prospecting for back channels, and still others looking for quartz, of gaze. And this is the TRUTH. Mr. Sprig gins, no doubt, knew very little of what he was writing about, and his only excuse we think for this "caper," was a wish to see his name in the paper. Our ladies are modest, our gentlemen brave, and with ONE exception we haven't a knave, in our midst. But we must not grow tedious, or you will complain, and never wish Susanna to write you again.

LATE NEWS.

We condense the following news items from the Owyhee Avalanche of June 5th: ANOTHER BONANZA .- Word comes that parties have discovered and located a north extension of the Webfoot mine at the new camp near Wagontown. The new discovery is said to be eighteen feet in width and fully as rich in gold and silver as the original claim.
