MONEY WANTED.

As our readers are already aware we have purchased the material on which the Baker City Herald is now printed, and to meet our confracts we must have money by the first of October. Those who are indebted to us owe us, individually, but small accounts, which will not inconvenience them to pay at any time, but when these small amounts are put together they make a large sum, the receiving of which will enable us to meet our engagements. and aid us in giving our readers a larger and bester paper than we now do. The citizens of Eastern Oregon are all interestedin the prosperity and success of a good and live paper in their midst, and if each one who owes us will pay us what is honestly due, we pledge ourselves to enlarge and improve the DEMOCRAT, without additional charge to our subscribers, reforms and correct the abuses which so as to make it second to no paper in Or- have been committed by dishonest and egon. We must have money to meet our engagements by the first of October, and we now honestly and earnestly say to those who owe us that we want help and if they are friends to the BEDROCK DEMO-CRAT they will immediately settle their bills. By reference to a notice in another column it will be seen that several of our most reliable business men, in conjunction with one of the Assignees, Mr. C. M Foster, have made a complete and careful overhauling of the books and other matters connected with the Bank of J. W. ers. Virtue, and as will be seen from their feetly solvent in Real Estate and other asleave the snug sum of $115,295 91 to the credit of J. W. Virtue. This is a showing made by gentlemen who are well known in our community and are counted among our closest and most careful business men; they are not the particular and personal friends of Mr. Virtue when it comes down to business matters-they are business men and have acted in this matter as such-and our people do, and will have full confidence in their statements. We, these gentlemen have looked into this gon !- Enterprise. matter, and have seen fit to give to the public the result of their investigations; we are also well pleased, as are our people, that J. W. Virtue's Bank is solvent, and that the creditors of the same will not lose one cent, but instead will receive their just demands with interest, just as fast as the assets can be realized. Our business men are satisfied with the report of the gentlemen who have made the investigation of Mr. Virtue's affairs, and are anxious that he should go on with his business, which he will do as soon as his creditors meet and accept his assignment. Money and other available securities to the amount of $30,000 have already been offered Mr. Virtue to enable him to resume business with. This shows the confidence in which he is held by those who best know him. He has the confidence and good, feeling of his creditors and depositors here. They, as well as all of our citizens, know that he has been a great help to this portion of Oregon, and that his non-resumption of business would be almost a public calamity, therefore it is, in connection with the confidence in his integrity, that our most careful business men offer him all the aid he will accept to enable him to resume and carry on his business until the final settlement is had with his creditors by the Assignees-when as now, he will still be the mainstay of this portion of Eastern Oregon. The Mountain Sentinel, in speaking of this matter, says: matter, says:

"We are sorry to learn that the recent financial panic in San Francisco has forced J! W. Virtue to a temporary suspension. Altho! Mr. Virtue suffered no loss by the fallure of any of the San Francisco banks the result has been to him much the same. Coming at a time when his means were largely locked up in real estate and mining enterprises of which he has been the ruling spirit in Baker Co., he was unable to cash the numerous demands brott against him and which would not have been called for had not the financial crash in San Francisco awakened a feeling of in San Francisco awakened a feeling of distrust in financial matters all over the coast. He has, with commendable integrity, presented his creditors with a full statement of assets and liabilities, the former exceeding to the amount of $113,000, and there is no doubt but all parties interested will receive the amounts due in a

"We certainly hope to see Mr. Virtue able to resume active operations ag in in a few day? Baker and Union counties can illy af ford to be deprived of his energy and indom-inable perseverence. Baker City people know him to be a tower of strength, and we have no doubt the business men of both counties will come to his support and volun tarily render him all the assistance in their may save beavy sacrifices of property, and we trust that the emergency will be prompt-ly met, with a desire on the part of the peo-ple, to render such aid as will again soon place him at his post of duty."

The result in our sister State has far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the friends of free government everywhere, and should be the occasion of general rejoicing. Our friends in California did well, yes, most nobly, and to-day, for the first time in many years, that State has selected to every branch Democrats to manage their public affairs. The entire State ticket is elected, composed of great and good men, in whose integrity, honesty and ability the people have the most implicit confidence. Both branches of the Legislature are Democratic, by a handsome majority, which will give the newly elected State officials that aid they so much need to inaugurate the desired corrupt Radicals.

In San Francisco, where the Democrats have not been successful for many years. they have elected nearly all their regular ticket, notwith standing some disorgani zers ran what was termed an Independent Democratic ticket. The party was strong enough to defeat its enemies within the party and without.

The Democrats have elected three out of the four Congressmen, and probably the entire delegation. In the last Congress, the Radicals had three and the Democrats

This is but another link in the long chain of successes which were inaugurated last fall in the East, and the good work is destined to go on until every department of our State and National administration is placed in hands of the Democracy. The hand writing is upon the wall in unmistakable words, and Radicalism, incompetency, dishonesty and corruption will be doomed by the people of this country, who are not yet ready to surrender the inheritance left them by their fath-

Let the good work continue, and Oregon roll up such a majority for the sets to meet all its liabilities, and then | side of government, honesty and justice, as will make her voice heard even in the dark and rotten places in Washington City, and strike terror to the rabble which has held high carnival while the nation's life-blood was being sucked out by a set of scoundrels who had by mere accident got control of the Government, and who have proved themselves the worst enemies of our free institutions.

Three hearty cheers for the noble people of California, and then three cheers for as well as our whole community, are glad | Lafayette Lane and the freemen of Ore.

A CONGRESSMAN WITHOUT IN. FLUENCE.

Remember, voters of Oregon, that the great point made by the Republicans ugainst the Democrats in former campaigns in Oregon was that the House of Representatives being Republican that none but a Radical could have influence there, and that a Democrat would be out of place and without power to do good for Oregon. But now the tables are turned, says the Mercury, and consistency would require that these same journals should advocate the election of Hon. L. F. Lane and work for the defeat of Warren who will be powerless in a House with a large majority against him.

A TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.

BAKER CITY, Sept. 1st, 1875. EDITOR DEMOCRAT:-Knowing that you feel interested in educational matters, and are friendly to Public Schools, I wish to call your attention to a subject that concerns (or should at least) all friends of education. There should by a Teacher's Institute held in Baker County this fall .-Mr. Payton informs me that the State Superintendent will hold an Institute in October or November, provided a majority of the teachers in the county will attend. That it would be beneficial to the cause of education there can be no question. Most certainly then we ought to have an Insti-TEACHER.

The new Bank of California.

The Oregonian of Sept. 5th says: The dispatches this morning announce, on apparently the most reliable authority, that the Bank of California is soon to be resuscitated. The conventional term is that it will resume, but that term is wholly inapplicable to the case. It is not to be a resumption but a resurrection. The particulars of the proposed reorganization are, that a new capital of $5,000,000 cash is to be raised, of which D. O. Mills, the former president of the institution, subscribes $1,000,000; Michael Reese, $1,-000,000; William Sharon, $1,000.000,; Jas. R. Keene, $1,000,000; and $1,000,000 is divided up among a number of smaller capitalists. Mr. Mills will in all probability take the position of president, as under his management it always prospered .-Under the name of the "Bank of Califorma" a bank is to be organized which is power. His downfall would be a public callemity that every good eitizen ought to endeavor to avert. A little leniency on the part of creditors, and assistance from friends, new scource. This is every reason to hope it will be a legitimate banking institution, and therefore a success.

NOT MUCH.

former allies, it thinks that all the Independents have as little political virtue as the Oregonian crowd. This it will find to be a mistake not only in 1876, but next month, when it will be demonstrated that but a few of the Independents will be found to vote with the Radicals, and when the Oregonian imagines that its influence is so great, it will learn that instead of being the oracle of the Independents, it is nothing, and that the people, irrespective of party, will look upon its treachery with contempt. Should there be but two tickets in the field in 1876, the mass of Independent voters will support the the Democratic candidate whether the Oregonian likes it or not. Men are not slaves, and a little clique like that which controls the Oregonian cannot lead them back to the parly they have left for its very rottenness. Mark this prediction Mr. Oregoni-

GOVERNOR IRWIN.

William Irwin, who had just been elected Governor of California, is a gentleman of very considerable ability and some scholarly attainments. He is not a professional politician, but has nevertheless served the people of California in one or two public offices. He has been, at one time and another, in both branches of he State legislature, where he was regarded ae a useful member, rather than a useful partisan. He is a c llege bred man, and said to be a thorough student going to the bottom of whatever he takes hold of. In personal bearing he is dignified, deliberate and exact. Whether he will be as popular at the expiration of his term of office as he is at the entrance upon it, depends mainty on the question whether he shall maintain, in the discharge of the high functions devolved upon him, the strong, honest individuality which has characterized his conduct in minor posi-

Henry Warren, Republican candidate for Congress, has actually made a speech. It wan't much of a speech to be sure, but answered the purpose. The Bulletin was evidently ashamed of it, for it hardly gave it notice. But the Oregonian, that eminently virtuous sheet, gives him about half a column. The principal point made by Mr. Warren in his maiden effort was that he "landed on the banks of this river twenty years ago." "I landed here penniless. To day I stand before you the Republican Candidate for Congress." This we suppose was intended to illustrate the great depth of degredation that landing here penniless has in luced Mr. Warren to take upon himself. After this soul stirring passage he went on to rake out the embers of the past fourteen years and closed with the noble sentiment "I thank you, gentleman, for the kindness you have manifested "

PER-ONAL.—We IIIIS Week received a call from Hon, J. M. Shepherd, editor of that Sterling Eastein Oregon Journal, the Baker City Democrat. He informs us that he has purchased the Baker City Herald—now the only Republican paper in Eastern Oregon—and will add its material to that of his own office. The Herald will quit after its last issue this month. We are glad to hear of "Shep's" success, and hope his Bedrock may continue to pan out the pure gold of Democracy for many a year yet. By-the-way, he says Lane is very popular in Eastern Oregon, and will get 1.000 majority up there.—States Rights Democrat. call from Hon. J. M. Shepherd. editor of

THE BLACKSMITH,

FOOT OF MAIN STREET, Raker City, Oregon,

AVE A COMPLETE SHOP AND DO
as good and as cheap work as is done in Baker City or County. I have the services of S. P. Romig, of La Grande, who is well known in this part of the country as a workman in all the various branches of the trade—and, as a horse-shoer he is of the trade—and, as a horse-shoer he is fully equal to the great Oregon horse-shoer, or any of our friends at the head of Main Street. As to prices of work being reduced, some of our friends say I was the cause of it, and, perhaps, don't like it very well. If so, my friends, you should come to Gaines' Shop to get your work done.—
