HEAVY FREIGHTS.—The O. S. N. Co., to accommodate shippers east of the Cas-nent and enduring popularity.—Hunts-bave brought reproach upon democratic institutions; for the iniquities of the pro-vertible paper money; for its disgraceful diptomatic service and unfit appoint-ments and continuate in office of mean-petent and corrupt men at home and situations; for its attempt to be abroad; for its attempt to pass an uncon-stitutional force bill, and for a catalogue of other enormities which have rendered that organization offensive to and subver-sive of the liberties of a free people.

II. That corporations are the creatures of law; their functions and privileges are granted to subserve the public interests, and when they are not used for the object and when they are not used for the object of their creation, but for purposes of op-pression and extortion, we de fare it to be the right and duty of the legislative pow-er to regulate and control such corpora-tions for the public good. 12. That we disapprove all measures in the interest of molopolies against fabor, and therefore we approve of the dictared principles and sympathize with the avow-ed objects of the order known as the Pa-trons of Husbandi y, and with those of alltroos of Husbandiy, and with those of all other orders having for their object re-trenchment and reform in public affairs and the social advancement of the people. 13. That we are in favor of laboring to secure judicious appropriations from Con-gress for the purpose of imploving our har-bors along the western and northern b aubors along the western and northern boundaries of our State, and we demand that our representatives in congress shall use their best efforts to secure the aid of the general government for the free navigation and improvement of the Columoia river, by the construction of locks at the Cascades; the improvement of the Wallamet and Coquile rivers; the construction of the Portiand, balles and Sait Lake and Winnemucca Rathoods, and the early completion of the Oregon and California Railroad from Roseburg to the State line.

ime 14. That the policy of the Republican party in dealing with the Indian tribes is impositic and unwise; that the time has arrived when the few Indians now occupyi g the Umatilla, Grand Ronde and Siletz reservations should be removed to some other locality, and thus open up to attientent by whites some of the richest pordons of the State.

That we invite the hearty co-operation of all parties, woatever may have been their past political affinities, to unite with us in carrying out the principles herene unciated.
