FOR CONGRESS:
LAFAYETTE F. LANE,
Of Douglas County.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

On last Monday the different Congressional candidates addressed their fellow-citizens of Baker County at the Court House in our city. The audience was large and listened attentively to the different speakers. Mr. L. F. Lane was the first speaker, and occupied the stand for one hour in the delivery of a sound, logical and effective speech. He was gentlemanly and polite to his opponents. His speech left a good impression on the minds of his hearers.

Mr. Whitney followed Mr. Lane, and by his remarks, showed himself to be a pleasant, affable gentleman. Mr. Whitney made a very favorable impression upon our citizens, and was himself well pleased with Eastern Oregon, and said if he was elected he would do what he could to advance the interests of our citizens. He scathed the Radical-Republican party for its corruptions.

Mr. Warren next took the floor and spoke his little speech in a rough and uncouth manner. He thought because he had held office sixteen years in Oregon he was fit to go to Congress.

After each of the candidates had spoken the hour each, they each had five minutes to close in. Mr. Lane occupied his time in a beautiful and telling manner.

After him Mr. Whitney again took the stand and made a plain statement of the manner in which he had been treated by some of the leaders of the Republican party which raised the bile on the stomach of Mr. Warren, who could not sit still, but kept interrupting the speaker.

Mr. Warren took the floor, and the first thing he said was to contradict Mr. Whitney in such broad and undignified language that it disgusted the audience, that and they rose, as one man, left the speaker to gaze upon and finish his remarks to empty benches. The gentlemanly portion of his own political friends were mortified at his ungentlemanly conduct.

The Democrats are satisfied with their Standard Bearer, and will, on next Monday, give him two hundred majority in Baker county. Hurray for Lane, the friend and old citizen of Eastern Oregon ! !

VOTE!!

The Oregon City Enterprise in speaking of the duty of Democrats says, upon the people of Oregon, the election now at hand devolves an imperative duty. Every good citizen must remember the importance of the work before him. We do not make this appeal merely as perfunctory discharge of duty, but in deep appreciation of the obligation incumbent upon us, by reason of the position a public journal holds in counselling the people in matters appertaining to their welfare. It is our duty to arouse citizens to a sense of their obligations at this time, and to endeavor to infuse into them a warm vital interest in their own affairs. We look upon it as of less consequence how or for whom you vote than that you do vote. The legal voter who wilfully neglects to go to the polls and cast his ballot, no matter for what party, commits an unpardonable sin, partaking in its nature of a parricidal crime against his country. The trouble with our political system is the growing indifference, if not to say aversion, with which certain classes regard the machinery of elections. Certain of our farmers say they can't afford to loose a whole day by traveling miles merely to cast their votes, and others that this election is only for an unexpired term and of no great importance. Such lukewarm, indifferent men are the kind we hope to reach and arouse. The election before us is perhaps at first sight of minor interest, but when we look beyond mere appearances, we find it pregnant with events of a most important type. It is the harbinger of the great presidential election which will soon claim our attention, and which-ever party now manifests the superior strength, that party will be the dominant power, not only in this State, but throughout the United States in 1876. From this election we are to learn whether the Oregonians endorse corruption and extravagance, or whether they repudiate the Radical office holders and yearn for a capable and economical government. We consider the cause of our political troubles the neglect by citizens to exercise the elective franchise. This neglect is violating a duty, and there is no necessity of quoting from ancient history to show that it is the logical antecedent of the ruin of the Republic. The people of Oregon are within a few days of an election whose importance to depreciate would be a crime. Voters, let nothing interfere with your being at the polls. Democrats, we most earnestly call upon to recollect your duties, cheer up your indifferent neighbor, create an enthusiasm within your party ranks, and we will carry this State by a majority that shall ever be a by-word in its political history.

Why Mr. Warren Should be Defeated.

The Oregon City Enterprise, very truthfully says:

The election which takes place on the 25th inst, is one of great importance, and no voter should look upon it with indifference. It is not a question as to whether Warren Lane or Whitney shall go to Congress, but whether the people are ready to endorse the Federal crew which is running Mr. Warren. It is an issue between the Public and a ring which has controlled the nation, or whether Oregon will follow in the steps of the other States, from Maine to California, in repudiating the corruption at Washington, and condemn the tricksters composing the Ring in Oregon, in their unprincipled efforts to gain the success for Mr. Warren by a most barefaced and infamous fraud upon a large portion of our people. This alone should be enough to cause every independent and honest voter of Oregon to cast his ballot against the Ring candidate. But he is also pledged to support and endorse the Federal Administration. Let us see what that endorsement is: It is the approval of the most extravagant, corrupt and infamous Administration that has ever governed this nation. It is the approval of the Credit Mobilier frauds; the Indian Ring, which has been robbing the nation of millions annually, and in consequence of this robbery has caused the death in our own state of some of the honest pioneers; the whisky Ring; the straw-bid Ring for mail contracts; the Jayne-Sanborne moiety swindles, and, to quote from a recent complication of Radical infamies, the party of Pomeroy, the party of $10,000 Harlan, the party of Colfax, the party of Landulet and Outrage Williams, the party of Delano and his son John, the party of Mr. Richard Safe-Burglary Harrington, the party of De Gollyer and Mc-Lellan's $5,000 Garfield, the party of Jay Cooke and of his silent partner in the Finance Committee of the Senate, John Sherman, the party of the Force Bill, the party of Kellogg, of Packard and of Casey, of Clayton, of Dorsey and of Spencer, the party of Durell and Busteed and Charles T. Sherman—types of infamy in the annals of American judiciary—the party of Moses in South Carolina, and of Ames in Mississippi." These, Mr. Warren is pledged to endorse. The Custom House platform says the Radicals of Oregon endorse them and it now becomes the people to say whether they will sanction and approve of this endosement by their votes on the 25th. If they are ready to give their sanction to this list of rascalities, 'et them vote for Mr Warren; he is the representative of the party which has been guilty of them all; if not, then cast your vote for Hon. Lafayette Lane, who stands pledged against these crimes upon our fair name as a nation.

The result should not be looked upon as a personal matter between the voter and Mr. Warren. It is a matter between the voter and the party which Mr. Warren represents. If the acts of the Administration are such as to meet the approval of the voter, then let him cast his vote for Mr. Warren; if not, he should cast it against him, The Administration with all its infamies is on trial, and the voter either must endorse or reject. To vote for Mr. Warren is to endorse; to vote against is a blow at the fountain-head of all corruption, U. S. Grant and his administration.

A CENTENNIAL SUGGESTION.

As but comparatively few of the citizens of this section of the country will be able to visit Philadelphia next year to attend the Centennial Celebration, we suggest that the citizens of Eastern Oregon generally unite in one grand celebration of the next Fourth of July. Some favorable and accessible location can be selected, and the good people of this and the adjoining counties can assemble together and celebrate, not only the National Birth Day, but have a general celebration to continue for several days. Arrangements can be made for a Grand Fair at which all our farmers and stock growers, as well as our manufacturers, can exhibit their products, stock and manufactures.—We can arrange to have the military of Harney in attendance, and invite all the civic and other societies to participate, and if we can secure the co-operation of some of our leading citizens we can have a grand celebration and exposition which would not only be long remembered, but would be productive of great good in bringing together persons from all sections of Eastern Oregon, and enabling them to get the better acquainted with the wants of all sections, and mature places for the better development of the almost unbounded wealth of Eastern Oregon.

Warren and the School Fund.

Throughout the campaign Warren has been the particular champion of free schools, and has pretended to be bitterly opposed to a division of the school fund for sectarian purposes. In the position that he took on this question he was not sincere, and only advocated them for political effect. The only division of the school fund to sectarian schools in this State has been done by the church to which Mr. Warren belongs—the Baptist Church of McMinnville. This church, through the strength of its membership, has for some years controlled the school district where the McMinnville College, a school under the auspices of the Baptist Church, is located, and have regularly carried through the school meetings of the district a vote donating the public money of that district to this college.—Warren has ever voted for this division of the school money, and now opposes publicly the same. "Actions speak louder than words," however, and the people will reject his acts of demagogism by giving Mr. Lane a rousing majority.

NOT MUCH.—Mr. Warren, with nearly two-thirds Democratic majority against him, would not amount to much in Congress, if the people of Oregon should be so foolish as to send him. He would amount to nothing, and the people might as well have no Representative at all. He would be but a tail to the kite of Mitchell, and draw his salary. That's all. But there is no danger of his election, if Democrats will only do their duty.

DISBAND.The Radicals have made their boast that the Independents were terribly beaten in California, and ought to disband—now it happens that for Lieutenant-governor the Independent candidate got 2,463 votes more than the regular Radical candidate. This is rather rough on the Radicals. Oh, disband the rotten organization. The Radicals of Oregon will feel like disbanding after the 26th of this month. The people are sick of it.

FASHIONABLE GOSSIP.—The fact that Mr. Henry Warren intends making the voyage of Salt River has for a long time agitated politico-social circles. Though this river is laid down on no maps, the Radical beau will have no difficulty in discovering it. We hear that this trip has become of late very fashionable among Republicans. Bon voyage?

WHEN you hear a Warren man say that he (Warren) is honest, ask him how it is that he accepted the nomination at the hands of the most corrupt ring of Federal officials that has ever cursed any State, and stands pledged to support the National Administration of Grant and his pack of thieves.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Hill, in the Oregonian, says that Warren is sure to be elected. In private conversation in this city, he said that this campaign was already decided, and that Warren had not "a ghost of a chance." He will find the latter story to be true on the day of election.—Enterprise.

GO TO THE POLLS next Monday and vote for Lafayette F. Lane for Congress, and thereby show that you are in favor of a free country.

The Same Thing Again.

We see it stated that Senator Mitchell (generally called by the Oregonian, Hipple) is canvassing Eastern Oregon for Mr. Warren! What a glorious spectacle! Hill and Mitchell working for the success of the same man! Which has surrendered, Hill or Mitchell? That is the question now. If Mr Mitchell can come all the way from Washington to aid Warren (and we think it would have been better for him to have stayed away) is it not a natural supposition that if Warren is elected it would be an endorsement of Mitchell and a condemnation of the Oregonian crowd? It most assuredly will be. But there is no danger. The people once sinched a Hipple candidate and they will do so again on the 25th of October. Warren is the nominee, not of the Oregonian clique, but of the Custom-house Ring, and his success would be a defeat to the former, while it would be a most complete endorsement of the latter. But while the people are at the business of repudiating their "beloved" Senator, they may as well give the Oregonian a taste of their disapprobation of treason and treachery. It is a strange thing to the uninformed in the mysteries of Radicalism how such gentle doves as Mitchell and Hill can lie down together and sleep in the same political couch. But the rest will be short, not sweet, and on the 25th of October these laborers of love for the same object will rise to read the verdict of the people: "No Mitchell-Hipple, no Oregonian treachery. Both repudiated and forever condemned. This shall be the verdict!—Enterprise.

The Ohio Election.

The returns received to the hour of going to press from the Ohio election, indicate that the Republicans have carried the state. This is what we expected from the moment the Democracy planted itself upon an inflation platform, and for a lesson to the party, we are more than grateful for the result. This will put a stop to the Ohio politicians' visionary ideas being brought into the National Convention, and will place the party where it stands, on a hard money platform. Ohio is somewhat noted for its new departures, and whenever he has taken one it has resulted in defeat, and more than once her baneful influence has been detrimental to the party at large. This is no time to try experiments, and we hope the Ohio politicians have learned a lesson which will prove of lasting benefit to them. But the result in Ohio has been gained in a great measure by the use of the Federal corruption fund, and the great fight, on the Radical side, was made in that State. While we regret to have the great State of Ohio go Radical we cannot say that we had any interest in the fight. It was a trial, not of Democracy, but of inflation; and Mr, Inflation got handsomely slaughtered.

Iowa, as usual, has gone Radical; but indicates a reduced State majority.

Some of the administration organs are in ecstacies over the written speech that President Grant read at the Soldiers' Reunion at De Moines the other day. Had any one else read the same spaech it would not have attracted attention, but as the President read it the organs call it a "big thing."

LET IT BE REMEMBERED that every vote cast for Warren is an endorsement of the corrupt administration of President Grant.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 14.—There is still intense excitement here over the election news. Much figuring is being done. The Democrats do not expect to dissipate Hayes' majority, but claim it will be very small. Republicans figure very close, but still rely on several thousand majority.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 14.—After very carefully figuring A. T. Wickoff, chairman of the Republican state committee, states that 66 counties now reported, give 10,607 majority for Hayes. The 20 counties not heard from gave a Democratic majority of 5,271 in 1873. The Democrats here claim a gain of 1,402 in 16 of these counties, and the Republicans a gain of 105 in 4 of them. This would leave a net majority of 4,934 for Hayes. The Democrats concede the state to the Republicans by 4,000.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14.—The following is bulletined at the Gazette office: Returns from seventy-five counties give a net Republican gain of 2,000. The thirteen counties yet to hear from are such as to inspire more doubt than hope.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 14.—Returns, considered reliable, from 85 counties, received by the Republican state committee, show a majority of 3,463 for Hayes. The counties of Wool, Carroll and Delaware, yet to be heard from are ordinarily considered Republican counties. The Democrats conceded the house of representatives to the Republicans by a good majority, but claim that the election of one senator in the Toledo district gives them the senate by one majority.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Tribune says the lesson of the Ohio election is a curt, sharp and decisive contradiction of the libel upon the people that men never oppose political parties that put a dollar in their pockets, no matter how crooked or dishonest.

The World thinks the Ohio result makes Governor Hayes the foremost Republican presidential candidate.

The Times points out that Republicans cannot rest here, but must work vigorously if they will achieve success.

Columbus, Oct. 15.—Neither the Republican or Democrt committees have received any additional returns this morning. The senate is still in doubt, and the result can't be determined until full returns are received from Wood county, where it is reported the counting out is delayed by fraudulent votes.

News just received from Wood county at 1:30 P. M., claims that heavy frauds were practiced in Perrysburg, which will probably necessitate the throwing out of the votes polled there. If their vote is counted, Hayes' majority in the county will be 469, and give the Republicans one senator. If it is thrown out, Hayes' majority in that county will be 723, and both Republican senators will be elected. In either case the Republican representative is elected, which gives the senate to the Republicans by two majority, and the house by 12 majority. Hayes' majority will now probably be over 4,000.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 16.—John G. Thompson, chairman of the Democratic State Committe, in reply to a card of the Republican committee, says he was charged with falsification when he asserted that the Democratic vote was 20,000 more than was ever cast for any governor of Ohio. Their defeat was caused by a lavish expenditure of money, fraudulent votes by the Republican party.

The almost unmarked grave of Edgar Allen Poe, author of "The Raven," was opened in Baltimore a few days ago, to lay the foundation for the monument about to be erected by his admirers. At a depth of five feet the coffin was found, in good preservation, after lying nearly twenty-six years. The lid was removed and the skeleton was seen, almost in perfect condition, and lying with the long bony hands reposing one upon the other, as they had been arranged in death. The skull bore marks of greater decay, the teeth from the upper jaw having become dislodged, but those in the lower were all in place, and some little hair was still clinging near the forehead. Beyond what has been described nothing was to be seen. A correspondent has sent the Times a small piece of the coffin, almost crumbling in decay.

IS IT SO?—We hear it rumored that Hill, in consideration of his treachery to the Independent party, besides the bursting of the Bulletin, was baited with the promise that he should have the Radical support next fall U. S. Senator. We doubt the report, yet there are strange things happening these days of Radical trickery. How will this set on Crawford, Scott, Dolph, Mitchell and others.

TROUBLE BETWEEN PRESIDENT MONROE AND CRAWFORD OF GEORGIA.—In the seventh volume of the memoirs of John Quincy Adams there is a curious of what came near being a physical battle between President Monroe and Crawford, his Secretary of the Treasury. Crawford was, we believe, a man of gigantic statuae. Mr. Adams heard of this and asked Southard if he knew anything about it. He said yes; that one day last winter, on coming here on business, he found Mr. Monroe walking two and fro across the room in great agitation; that he told him Crawford had left him; he had come to him concerning the nomination of certain officers of the Customs in the Northern ports; that Crawford recommended the nomination of several persons against whom Mr. Monroe expressed several objections; that Mr. Crawford at last rose in irritation, gathered the papers together and said, petulantly, "Well, if you will not appoint the persons well qualified for the places, tell me whom you will appoint that I may get rid of their importunities." Mr. Monroe replied with great warmth, saying that he considered Crawford's language as extremely improper and unsuitable to the relations between them; when Crawford, turning to him, raised his cane, as in an attitude to strike, and said, "You ——— infernal old scoundrel!" Mr Monroe seized the tongs at the fireplace for self defence, applied a retaliatory epithet to Crawford, and told him he would immediately ring for servants himself, and turn him out of the house; upon which Crawford, beginning to recover himself, said he did not intend, and had not intended to insult him, and left the house. They never met afterwards.

A Shoemaker's Sophistry,

You can't get an old shoemaker to blunder. The other day when a weighty woman sailed into a Detroit shoe store and selected a pair of No. 4's and sat down to have them tried on, the shoemaker saw that she wanted 7s. But he did'nt tell her so, and start her out of the shop on a full gallop. He smiled and softly said;

"Madam, all the aristocratic ladies are wearing shoes three sizes too large for their feet in order to have cool extremities, and of couse you want to follow the style?"

she smiled like a duck in reply to his smile, and replied;

"You are in a position to know best, and I leave everything to your judgment."

When she went out she said she never had such an easy-fitting shoe in all her life.

"What object do you now see?" asked the doctor. The young man hesitated for a few moments, and then replied: "It appears like a jackass, doctor, but I think i is your shadow."

A young lady in Minnesota boasts of having ten grown-up brothers to watch over her; but a Baker City girl prefers to have only one brother to watch over her—provided he is the brother of some other girl.

An Indiana man said to a Bible agent:—"I'm a Christian, but I'll be blamed if I don't have to grit my teeth when the Ohio river is on a level with my corn."

The coming man is he who owes you.

Extraordinary Opportunity for the Relief of the Afflicted.

The surgeons of the National Surgical Institute, located at Indianapolis, Indiana, Pacific Branch, 319 Bush street, San Francisco, have finally yielded to the many urgent appeals to visit Oregon and Washington Territory. Three or more of the surgeons will be at the Co-mpolitan Hotel, Portland, Oregon, on the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th 6th, of November, 1875.

They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and competent assistants and workmen to change, fit, and make such apparatus as may be required. The will come especially prepared to treat all surgical casis: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face, Spine and Limbs, Diseased Joints, Diseased Eyes, Catarrh, Private Diseases Piles, Fistula, etc. On acount of the great expense attending such a trip, they will not make another before, all who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of the Institutute, without the long journey to San Francisco or Indianapolis must do so at this time. No cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. It is needless to say that the institution is entirely responsible, and the largest and most popular of the kind in merica, curing thousands annually. Remember the time and place, and come early.

Send to the Institute for circulars. n22m1
