When I chance to see you, My young eyes will be true, Of course, you'll be glad to see me, That My I swore that I were black, I thought I would, I said her teeth were white, And called her my wife. Well, strange as it may seem, Although that girl is just as fair, With eyes as bright and blue as then, And clustering curls of midnight blue. Though every charm that was my own, Its pristine freshness still remains, And though her temper's sweet as I own, And all her innocence remains; Yet now my heart doth never beat When noting her unconscious grace; And with a cold, indifferent eye, I look upon her childlike face. Her kisses are insipid now, Her hand I never care to press; Sometimes I deign to notice her, And just bestow a slight caress. I wonder what has changed me so— 'Tis true, I lead a fastish life; But this is how it is, you know. It is because she is—MY WIFE.

THANKLESS. Once, when I was a little boy, I sat me down to cry, Because my little brother had "The biggest piece" of pie; 'Twas not but that I had quite enough, But then I couldn't see The reason why a partial nurse Should give him more than me. They said I was a naughty boy, But who has not seen men Behave themselves as foolishly As I behaved then? Too often we are thankful for Rich blessings, while we sigh To think some luckier neighbor has "A bigger piece" of pie.

PACIFIC SLOPERS. Smallpox in Utah. Eugene is soon to have a hearse. Willamette University has 260 students. The epizootic is raging in the southern counties. Work on the Capitol at Salem will soon be commenced. General Miller and staff returned home last Saturday. Virginia City, Montana, is 5,227 feet above the sea level. Susan O'Gorman has been sent to the Stockton Insane Asylum. The State Temperance Alliance meets at Salem, on the 20th inst. Portland is revelling in fresh lettuce and radishes from San Francisco. The Surveyor-General of California returns the population at 657,821. Salt Lake is seven feet higher than when the Mormons first settled there. A California man who weighs 94 has a six months' baby that weighs 96 pounds. Ten words can be sent to any State, on the Western Union Telegraph line, for $2 50. The Multnomah Circuit Court calendar, for the February term, contained 219 cases. J. D. Burnett, of Douglas county, has saved 180 lambs, this season, from a flock of 72 ewes. Vallejo, Cal., claims possession of the embalmed body of an emperor who ruled China 3,000 years ago. Eugene has raised but $7000 of the $20,000, necessary for the erection of the State University building. Bierstadi has just finished an observatory on one of the hills of San Francisco where he can study sunset effects. Governor Booth of California has offered $500 reward for the arrest of Rufus Sweet, who murdered J. B. Gray, at Marysville, in 1868. The stages now leave Roseburg in the morning, allowing passengers to rest at that place one night, after the two hundred miles of railroad ride, before starting by wagon. The Mercury says the reason Mrs. Duniway don't talk about "Manly Women," as well as "Womanly Men," is because her native modesty will not permit her to talk about herself. "Why should we celebrate Washington's birthday more than mine" asked a teacher in one of our Sunday Schools, the other day. "Because he never sold a lie," shouted a bright eyed urchin.
