TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A Surprise Party.

On Tuesday evening last, a large number of our young people got up a very pleasant surprise party in honor of the steamer Grover. At nine o'clock some ten or fifteen couples, accompanied by music, stepped aboard the magnificent steamer, taking Captain Holman and the officers by the most complete surprise. The visitors were cordially welcomed by the Captain, and in a twinkling the main deck was cleared for dancing. Several hours were spent in devotion to the happy gods Terpsichore, Bacchus, Orpheus and the divine Cecilia, when the party gave the Captain a parting serenade, and retired. The officers extended the hospitalities of the vessel in the most lavish manner, and joined in the season of merriment with a hearty will. The officers of the Grover are gentlemen of the first water, and the occasion of Tuesday evening will long be remembered with pleasure by those who participated in the enjoyment.

THE LICENSE QUESTION.—An effort is being made to raise the license of saloons to $800. Against this movement we have nothing to say; yet we can but consider that it is unjust, unless its objects extend to the merchandising establishments, which sell as much liquor as the saloons. We are opposed to compelling the saloons to pay an exorbitant license, while the dry goods merchant and the druggist are permitted to sell whisky by the pint, quart and gallon, and pay no license. "Equal and exact justice to all men" is our motto.

No New Hotel.—E. C. Holden, Esq., who came up on Monday's boat, temporarily leased the old Railroad House, and moved his furniture into it on Tuesday. On Wednesday morning, through some disagreement in regard to the house, Mr. Holden failed to get the hotel, and had his goods put aboard the Grover, for Portland. We exceedingly regret that Mr. H. could not meet with sufficient inducement to warrant him in remaining among us.

CLOSED.—The first half term of the North Public School closed yesterday. The second half term opens on Monday. This is an excellent time for pupils to enter. Those entering now will be charged for only the remainder of the term. The primary department of that school is in charge of one of the most efficient teachers in the county.

NEW GROCERY STORE.—Read the advertisement of L. N. Price, in another column. This gentleman has just commenced business in our city, and has taken the first step toward success by advertising. His stock has been carefully selected with a view to the local and country trade.

SERMON ON THE TENTH COMMANDMENT. Services will be held in the Chapel of the Good Samaritan, on Sunday next, at the usual hours: 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The sermon at the evening service will be on the subject of the Tenth Commandment.

SUNDAY EVENING LECTURE.—Rev. D. K. Nesbit will deliver a lecture, at the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock. Subject—"What Saloons Cost Us."

CATHOLIC SERVICES.—Services at the Catholic Church on Sunday next, at the usual hour, 10:30. Vespers will commence at 7:30 p. m. Lecture at 8 p. m.

EASTER DAY.—To-morrow is Easter Day. Appropriate services will be held at the Chapel of the Good Samaritan.

Mrs. E. A. Knight is temporarily doing business at her residence.

The following business was transacted at the last term of the County Court, which adjourned yesterday:

COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

Drury Davis appointed Supervisor of District No. 24, vice Wm. R. Baker resigned.

Benj. Pilbeam appointed Justice of the Peace for Yaquina Precinct, vice L. P. Baldwin, resigned.

Petition presented to the Court for the vacation of a part of the County Road from Joseph Skagg's to the County Road leading from Corvallis to Albany dismissed.

Peddler's License granted to James A. Fike, for three months.

Road from the northeast corner of Jesse Hawley's farm, west to county line. Report of survey and plat ordered filed, and road declared a public highway.

Several Bills were ordered paid.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

At the recent meeting of this body, in Salem, a State Board of Examination was organized. The object of the meeting was to discuss and arrange the preliminary for the coming examination in July. After careful deliberation a list of studies was selected in which the candidates for the different classes of certificates will be examined. The percentage of correct answers required was also fixed and a number of rules were adopted for the government of the examination. The Board of Education also submitted to the Board of Examination the question of a list of text-books to be recommended to the County Superintendents for adoption as a uniform State series under the law. A full series was agreed upon.

THE GROVER.—This steamer arrived here on Tuesday afternoon, with a very heavy freight, and a large number of passengers. She left Portland with forty passengers, and more freight than the train and old line of steamers combined. In order to accommodate delegates to the Farmers' Convention, at Salem, she laid here until Wednesday afternoon, when she dropped down to Albany, leaving there at an early hour on Thursday morning, and returning on Friday. She will be here again on Tuesday.

MYSTIC BANQUET.—The members of Rose Croix Lodge, A. F. & A. M., held their annual mystic banquet on Holy Thursday (last Thursday) evening. The supper was served by Jack Alpha, and those who partook of it inform us that it was the best hotel supper ever served in Corvallis. Alpha knows how to do these things.

HARD UP.—Holladay's boats are getting in a tight way, as will appear from the fact that the Alice brought up, on last Monday evening, several packages, from San Francisco, marked "Lorenzo Gerhard, care steamer Gov. Grover." When a line descends to stealing the opposition's freight it must be in a tight strait.

READY FOR BUSINESS.—Henry Dohse announces that he is now prepared to take pictures in every conceivable style, at the old gallery, on Third street. He has thoroughly overhauled the establishment, and invites visitors to inspect his rooms.

NEW BUTCHER SHOP.—Mr. Niek. Baesen will shortly open the market formerly occupied by Jesse Walker, and be prepared to furnish meat of all kinds. We welcome this gentleman to Corvallis, and wish him abundant success.

THE BENTON HOUSE.—This house is daily growing in popular favor. The accommodating landlord, Jack Alpha, Esq., spares no pains to render his many guests comfortable. Go there for a square meal.

NEW BARTENDER.—We notice our elongated friend, Jack Bercau, doing the handsome behind the bar of the Grover. He keeps the finest "comforts."

REPORT.—We are unable to obtain the annual report of the County School Superintendent in time for this issue; but will give it in our next.

SETTLE UP.—Irvine & Hendrickson want those who are indebted to them to pay up, as they contemplate changing their business.

NEW FURNITURE.—Messrs. Graves & Knight received a large invoice of new furniture by the Grover, on Wednesday.

PLEASURE RIDING.—A number of our young people improved the lovely weather last Sunday, by horseback riding.

COUNCIL.—The City Council meets next Monday evening.

Personal Items.

Ben. Simpson was in town last Monday. Sam. Kliger returned from the Dalles on Thursday evening.

Jack. Crouse and Wm. Gird paid Corvallis a visit yesterday.

Mrs. C. M. Stryker is recovering from her recent severe illness.

Rev. J. H. Babcock, of this city, preached in Eugene last Sunday.

E. C. Holden and family arrived on the Alice last Monday evening.

W. W. Thayer and family, of East Portland, arrived by Thursday's stage.

Hous. R. S. Strahan and F. A. Chenoweth returned from Albany last Saturday.

L. Shipley, of Philomath, passed through town on Monday, en route from Portland.

R. S. Allen, of Halsey, went over to the Bay, last Monday, on a visit to his father-in-law, Phelps.

Haman Lewis returned from Portland last Tuesday. He has been collecting money for wheat.

Frank Dodge, Henry Ahple, and James Dixon, of Yaquina Bay, have been in town a part of the week.

Jno. Clark, brother of D. C. Clark, returned this week from a trip up north. He is much improved in health.

E. D. Thorne and family left for Portland on the Gov. Grover. Mr. Thorne thinks of going into business in the metropolis.

Jeff. Cline, of Albany, formerly a student of Corvallis College, is visiting friends in this city. He gave us a friendly call yesterday.

Mrs. R. S. Strahan departed on the Grover, for a visit to her friends in the East. She was accompanied as far as Portland by her husband. A number of friends visited the boat to bid this lady farewell. We wish her a pleasant journey and safe return.

JUSTICE'S COURT.—The following business has been transacted in Justice Holgate's Court since our last issue:

S. E. Rosentock & Co. vs. Ben Simpson; judgment for plaintiff, for want of answer, for $234.90 and costs.

Charles M. Parmenter and F. I. Babcock vs. A. R. McConnell; judgment for plaintiff, for want of answer, for $300 and costs.

Samuel Trimble vs. John Overman; attachment suit, amount claimed $71; settled by parties.

DR. T. V. B. EMBREE.—We inadvertently omitted, last week, to notice the new "ad." of Dr. T. V. B. Embree. This gentleman had announced that he would locate in Corvallis, but his many friends of Lewisville, Polk county, could not think of parting with him, and offered him sufficient inducement to remain among them. The Doctor is a successful physician, and an accomplished gentleman. Read his card, on the first page.

FOR THE WESTSIDE.—H. F. Smith, who has been for two years employed on the Eastside road, passed through town, with his family, wagons and teams, last Sunday, having been ordered to the end of track on the Westside. Mr. S. will put twenty teams at work, clearing and grading for the proposed extension of this road.

A PETITION.—A couple of ladies have been perambulating this city during the week, soliciting the names of our female population to a petition for an increase of the license for the sale of liquors in less quantities than one quart. Dr. Boswell has been calling on the masculine portion.

SCHOOL ELECTION.—At the school election, held last Monday, Sol. King was elected Director, and Wm. Groves, Clerk. In the South District. In the North District, Wm. McLagan was chosen Director, and S. L. Shedd, re-elected Clerk.

LIQUOR SALE.—John Steers, of Portland, sold, last Monday, the entire stock of liquors, together with the building of the late Exchange Saloon. Dr. Bayley was the purchaser, who yesterday removed the liquors to his drug store.

OLD CURRENCY.—By the next trip of the Grover, Henry Bird will receive another cask of this fine whisky, which has become such a favorite among his patrons. He always strives to keep the best.

NEW HACK.—Messrs. Dixon & Bethers are just having completed a new and handsome hack, to run between this city and Yaquina Bay. H. P. Harris is putting on the finishing touches.

FOR PORTLAND.—The little steamer Oneatta, formerly plying on the Yaquina river, is to be taken to Portland. Her place will be supplied by a new boat.

GOING UP.—Harris' new saddlery shop is rapidly approaching completion, under the skillful hands of Messrs. Russell, Barber, Pixley, and Rayburn.

OPENED.—The croquet season has opened briskly, and we are in a fair way to learn how to play "Temperance Pool" or "Methodist Billiards."

NEW STOCK.—J. A. Hanna, at the Post-office, has just opened a fresh assortment of pipes, tobacco, and notions. Go and see them.

A PRESENT.—Rev. J. A. Hanna has presented us with a fine pipe, which we puff in honor of the donor.

QUITE ILL.—Hon. A. J. Thayer is quite ill, and unable to hold the approaching term of the Circuit Court.

BUSY.—Our farmers are all busy, putting in their crops. The acreage sown will be quite large.

PAY UP.—Robinson & Bro. desire all those indebted to settle up. See notice.

From Ochocho.

Our Ochocho correspondent, writing from Prineville, under date of March 29th, says the weather in that valley is pleasant, though windy. Farmers are about done putting in their crops. Grass is good, and cattle are getting fat. A number of store-houses are being built at Prineville. The Odd Fellows are having a hall erected. Crooked river is very high.

OUR POSTMASTER.—We are no apologist for Grant's office holders, but our sympathies are awakened when we see an officer attacked by his own party for doing his duty only too faithfully. The Gazette man goes for Brother Hanna, in his last issue, in a style unbecoming the "high moral organ." He is incensed because a letter directed "W. D." instead of "W. B." was not delivered to him instantly. It is well known that "W. D." Carter is a farmer in Linn county, not many miles from this city. Mr. Hanna has frequently met with complaint for not being strict enough with the mail matter of individuals, and in this instance acted from a firm conviction of official duty.

FEARFUL LEAP.—A gentleman from the country informs us that, one day last week, as two men were driving a team attached to a wood wagon, along a precipice on the south side of Oliver's Butte, the horses took fright, and plunged over an almost perpendicular wall some thirty-five feet in height. The team escaped unhurt, but the wagon was shivered to atoms.

ADJUSTED.—Mark A. King, of Portland, Agent of the Liverpool and London & Globe Fire Insurance Company, came up last Saturday, and paid Dr. J. R. Bayley $1,500, the amount of insurance on the City Hotel, destroyed on the morning of March 29th.

CLEARED.—Elias Keeney, who was tried at Albany, last week, for the killing of Billy Peltou, was acquitted, on the ground of self-defense.

AT WORK.—During the present week, the Agricultural Students have been sowing grain, and taking practical lessons in farming.

THE GROVER took one thousand sacks of wheat from this city, last Wednesday, together with a large miscellaneous freight.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge P. P. Primm will hold the April term of this Court, in this city, opening on Monday morning.

FINE SKINS.—Fox Bros. have some of the finest and handsomest deerskins ever brought to Corvallis.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to the obliging Deputy County Clerk, Jas. Yantis, for favors.

RETURNING.—Leo. Fox will reach his home to-day, overland, from San Francisco.

PROMPT ADJUSTMENT.—On Saturday last just one week after the burning of the City Hotel, Mr. M. A. King, agent for the Liverpool and London & Globe Insurance Co., came up and paid Dr. J. R. Bayley $1,500 in gold, the amount of his policy. Other companies require sixty days in which to settle losses. Let those who have risks make a note of this promptness on the part of the above company. Wallace Baldwin, Esq., is the gentlemanly agent of the Liverpool and London & Globe, and will furnish policies on short notice.

HENRY DORSE, having refitted and refurnished the Photograph Gallery, is prepared to take all kinds and styles of pictures on short notice. Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases, or no pay.

"THE CHRISTIAN MESSENGER" is a first class family newspaper. Sent to any address, until January 1, 1874, for $2. Address T. F. Campbell, Publisher, Monmouth, Oregon.

BOOTS! BOOTS! Bargains in fine and coarse custom made boots may be had at Irvine & Hendrickson's for thirty days. Everybody buys them.

FRESH SEEDS.—H. E. Harris has just received a choice lot of fresh flower and garden seeds, which he offers for sale cheap.
