TOWN AND COUNTRY.

ON THE UPPER RIVER.—The Willamette River Transportation Co.'s steamer Carrie, having been thoroughly overhauled, was to ply between here and points above, in connection with the Grover. She made a trip to Harrisburg and back this week, but, from some cause, returned to Portland. The Calliope will shortly be put on between here and Harrisburg.

FINE PAINTING.—Our attention was called, the other day, to some beautiful specimens of painting in the shop of Henry Fisher. Besides doing the finest quality of Oriental and ornamental wagon work, Mr. F. is a house painter of no ordinary ability. He has just completed the painting of the large two story building of H. P. Harris, on First street.

MAURINE WORMS.—Benj. Pilbean, Esq., has shown us a piece of wood, eaten by marine worms, which is a curiosity. It came from a log five feet in diameter, the whole of which was perforated by smooth, plastered, cylindrical holes, small at the outside, and gradually growing larger, as the worm fattens on the wood.

THE PHOENIX.—Elsewhere in this paper will be found the new advertisement of the Phoenix Fire Insurance Company. This company has a reputation for being one of the most reliable institutions in the United States. J. A. Hanna is the local Agent in this city, who is authorized to issue policies direct.

ODD FELLOWS' EXCURSION.—The Odd Fellows of Albany, having accepted the invitation extended by Barnum Lodge, of this city, will celebrate the anniversary of Odd Fellowship, April 26, by an excursion and picnic here. Rev. D. K. Nesbit will deliver an oration, and a rich feast may be expected.

NEW BUTCHER SHOP.—Mr. Nicholas Baesen opened his market last Monday morning. This establishment has undergone a thorough renovation, and the display of meats and other edibles is tempting to the eye of an epicurean. This gentleman means business and advertises.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Elsewhere will be found the proceedings of this Court, up to last night. The Court will adjourn today, when Judge Prim will go to Eugene and hold the April term, for Lane county, continuing two days and a half, closing at noon next Wednesday.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE.—Services at the Chapel of the Good Samaritan next Sunday, at 11 a. m. and 6 p. m. The subject of discourse at morning service will be a "General Summary of the Ten Commandments."

GONE HOME.—Mr. J. W. May, a student of Corvallis College, from Clackamas county, returned to his home last Thursday, to take charge of a school. Mr. May is a worthy gentleman, and we wish him success.

THE NEW SCHOONER.—Capt. Monroe informs us that the new schooner he proposes to build at Alsea will be fore-and-aft rigged, and will carry 150,000 feet of lumber.

JAMES GRAVES has been putting a fresh coat of paint on his furniture establishment, vastly improving its appearance.

MATZOH.—We return thanks to Mrs. Jacobs for a goodly present of Jewish "shew bread," or "matzoh."

PAINTING.—Alle Harris has been putting a new coat of fire-proof on Fox's store.

QUITE ILL.—We learn that Mr. W. W. Kiger of this city is lying dangerously ill.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT OF BENTON COUNTY, OREGON, FOR YEAR ENDING APRIL, 1873.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes: Number of legal voters in dists. reported (958), Number of persons over 4 and under 20 years of age (2044), Number of male scholars (1043), Number of female scholars (1001), Number of gns of school taught (52 1/2), Average attendance (705 1/2), Amt paid teachers from dist. tax (330 36), Amount paid teachers from rate bills and subscription (2779 50), Received and paid teachers, from County and State Funds (3751 27), Apportioned among districts during the year (2810 50), Incidental expenses (425 65), Total amt tax levied and collect'd (448 47), Value of schoolhouses (including Philomath College) (20359 00), Value of other school property (382 00).

The tabulated statement of apportionment was published in our issue of March 23, 1873.—[Ed. DEMOCRAT.]

Books generally used in the schools are as follows: Spellers, Sanders'; Readers, Wilson's; Geography, Monteth's; Arithmetics, Thompson's; Grammars, Clarke's and Quackenbos'; Penmanship, Spencerian. Districts Nos. 11, 16, 34 and 39 failed to report to this office, according to law; and consequently receive no benefit of the School Fund for this year; and I will state, for the information of all whom it may concern, that the law is quite plain, requiring one quarter of school taught in each District (except newly organized), to entitle the same to school funds. The Superintendent has no discretionary power in the matter. A. B. BROWN, Supt. of Schools, for Benton County.

The Concert.

We learn that the concert given by the Corvallis Dramatic Society, assisted by the Glee Club, last Thursday evening, was a pleasant affair. Miss Clara Watt, of Corvallis College, read "Red Jacket" in a very artistic manner. Prof. Johnson recited those master pieces, "Shamus O'Brien" and "Parbasius," with great credit. Mr. Baldwin's pantomimes were executed with taste, and highly appreciated by the audience. Mr. Rayburn read a very pleasing poem, by John G. Saxe. The singing by the Glee Club was excellent. Altogether the entertainment was a success. The amount realized for the benefit of a fire bell was about $40.

JURIST'S COURT.

The following business has been transacted in Justice Holgate's Court since our last issue: H. P. Harris vs. Jas. M. Monroe; civil action to recover money; judgment for plaintiff for $17 and costs. Jas. Imbrie vs. A. R. McConnell; civil action to recover money; judgment for plaintiff for $34 62 and costs. N. P. Briggs vs. A. R. McConnell; civil action to recover money; judgment for plaintiff for $25 and costs.

FROM MONROE.—"Sweet William," of Monroe, put in an appearance last Monday. He says there is nothing important from Long Thomas, except that John B. Ferguson's "double-gaered, back-action, revolving, self-cocking, patent-triggered, stand-from-under, woe-be-unto-you-oldests, stump extractor is doing a rushing business in those parts."

MASS MEETING.—The citizens of Portland held an immense mass meeting, last Monday, and passed resolutions of sorrow and condolence for the death of Gen. Canby and Rev. Thomas, and expressing indignation at the peace policy of the Administration.

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION.—A gentleman from Monroe informs us that the suit against Geo. Landerking, for selling liquor to a minor is an unjust prosecution, as the minor had an order from his father. Mr. L. is reported as a quiet, law-abiding citizen.

THE PICTURE GALLERY.—Henry Dohse has thoroughly refitted the Photograph Gallery. New paper, new tables, new carpets, and a luxuriant sofa are among the present attractions. His parlors now resemble an oriental palace. Give him a call.

HOME AGAIN.—Our good friend, T. G. Mulkey, returned last Wednesday from an extended trip to California and Utah. He looks as Chesterfieldian as ever, and says he found no place, in his peregrinations, that he liked better than Corvallis.

"OREGON AS IT IS."—We have just received a copy of this excellent work on the resources and prospects of Oregon, by W. L. Adams, a resident of the State for twenty-five years. We will notice the book more fully next week.

SADDLERY AND HARNESS.—H. P. Harris opened out in his new stand last Monday. Two expert workmen are kept busy enlarging the already fine stock of saddles, harness, whips, etc. Read his advertisement, in another column.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—For the past three weeks Hon. A. J. Thayer has been confined to his room, with typhoid fever. Dr. Lee, the attending physician, informs us that at a late hour last night he was a little better.

SEIZABLE.—Leo Fox informs us that, owing to the crowded state of the stages out south now, lady passengers are compelled to remove their india-rubber air bustles.

CATHOLIC SERVICES.—Services at the Catholic Church on Sunday next, at the usual hour, 10:30. Vespers will commence at 7:30 p. m. Lecture at 8 p. m.

POTTERY.—Henry Warrior has just received a fine assortment of crocks, flower-pots, jars, stove-joints, etc., from the Buena Vista Pottery.

GEN. CANBY'S FUNERAL.—Several of our citizens went down to Portland, last Thursday, to attend the funeral obsequies of Gen. Canby.

The Grover brought up a large number of passengers and good freights on her two trips this week.

Personal Items.

Phil Stanton came up from the Bay last Thursday. "Sweet William" was doing our city last Monday.

Hon. Geo. R. Helm, of Albany, was in the city yesterday. Green B. Smith has returned from east of the mountains.

Thos. Stoddard, of this county, left last week, for Fon du Lag, Wisconsin. Samuel Case, of Alsea Reservation, passed through town last Sunday, en route for Portland.

Lycurgus Vineyard, Esq., our enterprising agent, and Justice of the Peace at Dallas, is in town.

Hon. P. P. Prim, of Jacksonville, arrived on Sunday, and is holding the present term of Circuit Court.

Mr. Hegele the popular gentleman of Ailsky & Hegele's confectionery establishment, Portland, was in the city yesterday.

Leo Fox, Esq., was in town on Monday, having just returned from a trip to San Francisco. He looks as blushing as ever.

We had the pleasure of meeting this week, Mr. Graves, a nephew of James Graves, who has recently arrived from Illinois, to spend a season in Oregon.

Judge Tandy, John Crawford, Judge Baldwin, Judge Whitney, Rev. Wm. Gird, and Tom Monteith, of Albany, have graced our city with their presence during the week.

WRIT.—Judge Moore is certainly the wittiest member of the Farmers' Club, and sends volleys of repartee into the ranks of his opponents in debate. One of his hits was made last meeting, and is worth repeating: Mr. Elliott, in the course of a few remarks on the organization of Granges, expressed a desire to become a member, but, if all the ladies of his neighborhood were as much opposed to secret societies as his wife, he feared it would be impossible to obtain the requisite number of females. The Judge thought no such difficulty in the way, when Mr. Elliott again expressed his hearty approval of the order, and his desire to become a member. The Judge, with a sly twinkle in his eye, gravely remarked that the motives of his friend were plainly apparent—the fact of his wife's opposition to the order was probably the cause of Mr. Elliott's desire to join an organization of which women must necessarily become members.

CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY.—We are informed that A. H. Whitley, Charles Sutton and J. M. Phy were arrested, at Dallas, the other day, charged with a criminal conspiracy to take the life of Reuben or Tilman Glaze. After a preliminary examination, Whitley was bound over in the sum of $5,000; Sutton, in $10,000; and Phy, in $2,000. Whitley and Phy gave bail; Sutton is in jail. We hope to give the particulars next week.

HOUSES MOVING.—Messrs. Pixley and Stewart are making rollers, preparatory to removing the Exchange Saloon up to the corner, on Dr. Bayley's lot, and Bird's Saloon down adjoining the barber shop, on Mr. Moore's lot. Operations will commence next Monday.

ENLARGED.—Our enterprising barber, Hale Backenst, finding his shop too small for the increasing trade, has enlarged it some ten feet, and erected an addition in the rear. Mr. B. thoroughly understands his business.

NEW PRICES.—Jack Alphin announces that from and after May 1, 1873, he will be compelled to charge $5 per week for board, and $6, with lodging. He keeps a first-class house, and these prices are none too high.

FINE PRESENT.—Mr. Milner showed us, last Monday, a handsome meerschaum cigar holder, of unique and exquisite design, adjustable to a cigar of any size. It was presented to him by Leo. Fox, Esq.

REMOVED.—W. H. McFarland, Esq., proprietor of the store and tinware establishment in this city, has removed to Albany, and taken charge of the store of M. M. Harvey & Co.

THE NEW HACK.—The new hack of Messrs. Dixon & Bethers, mentioned last week, was just put into service last Monday. Daily trips will shortly be resumed between this city and Yaquina Bay.

LIVELY.—The Circuit Court being in session this week has given our town a lively appearance. A large number of persons from abroad have been sojourning with us.

OUR AGENT.—E. Holgate, Esq., is our authorized agent in this city. He will collect accounts, and receive and receipt for subscriptions for us, at his office.

DRIFF.—Chief Engineer Wrenn had the Fire Department out, last Monday, testing some new suction hose. The "throwing" was eminently satisfactory.

SPECIAL TRAIN.—The remains of Gen. Canby were brought from Roseburg, last Thursday, by a special train, in charge of military and civic officers.

THE WEATHER.—During the past week we have had most delightful weather, enabling the farmers to complete the planting of their crops.

NEW PURSER.—Sam. Barclay, of Oregon City, is the newly appointed, handsome and obliging purser of the Gov. Grover.

BOOTS! BOOTS! Bargains in fine and coarse custom made boots may be had at Irvine & Hendrickson's for thirty days. Everybody buys them.

FRESH SEEDS.—H. E. Harris has just received a choice lot of fresh flower and garden seeds, which he offers for sale cheap.

Hard on "John D."

We are told an incident which most unmistakably illustrates the tenacity of the Oregon farmer, and his determination to support the W. R. T. Company. A few days ago, a Polk county farmer entered the cooping establishment of John D. Biles, at Portland, and purchasing a number of buckets, ordered them forwarded by the steamer Grover. It will be borne in mind that John D. is the Agent of the Holiday Line, and snavely suggested that if shipped by the Alice, the goods would reach their destination sooner than by the Grover. The farmer replied that he was in no hurry, and "guessed he would have them shipped on the Grover." The polite Agent then reminded the farmer that the freight would be less on the Alice; but the honest farmer deemed the freight charges on a few buckets but a trifling matter, and refused to change the order. John D. then, with a knowing wink, informed his customer that his buckets would be landed at his door, by the Alice, free of cost! but the sturdy friend of the opposition refused the generous offer, and left the enthusiastic Agent with the parting injunction to ship his freight on the Grover.

Council Proceedings.

At a special meeting last evening, the Council received the report of the committee appointed last Monday evening to represent the sentiment of the people on the license question. The report was a request that the Council instruct the Recorder to prepare the poll-books, at the next City Election, with two columns—one "for" and another "against" license. The report was unanimously adopted. The following gentlemen were appointed as judges, at the City Election, to be held on the first Monday in May: 1st ward, N. E. Barber; 2d ward, Lewis Wilson; 3d ward, S. L. Shedd.

The Chief Engineer was authorized to procure a lock, with twenty keys, for the Engine House. Permission was granted private parties to construct cisterns at their own expense.

PICTURE FRAMING.—Henry Dohse informs us that in a few days he will receive material, and will make the framing of pictures a specialty. He will be prepared to furnish frames, and frame pictures of any size and in every style.

ANOTHER RICHMOND.

HENRY DOHSE would respectfully announce that he has taken charge of STRYKER'S PICTURE GALLERY; and is prepared to execute all orders for Latest Styles of Pictures. SUCH AS Opalotypes, Ferrotypes, Gems, San Pauris, Rembrandts, Ambrotypes, Etc. Call in the Forenoon for Children's Pictures, 251 1/2
