THE SOUTHERN PLAGUE.

Indications are that the worst of the ye low fever scourge has passed, and that the funds in the hands of the various relief com mittees will be amply sufficient to meet the mittees will be amply sufficient to meet the present demands. We have just received, through the politeness of L. G. Kline & Co., agents in this city, a circular and report of Aaron Stein, treasure of Wells, Fargo & Co. relief committee of San Francisco, bearing date of Sept 21st, from which we learn the following in relation to the receipts and dis-bursements of the funds passing through the bursements of the funds passing through the hands of that company, all of which have been forwarded free of charge, throughout the Pacific Coast: Total receipts, $36,957.35; amount disbursed, $34,395.10. The various localities relieved are as follows: New Or-leans, $4,750; Memphis, $18,458.50; Vicks-burg, $4,825; Grenada, $1,700; Port Gibson, $500; Jackson, $250; sundry, $3,911.60; leaving a balance of cash on hand of $2,-562.25. Since the above provided of $2,- leaving a balance of cash on hand of $2, 562.25. Since the above report was made, circulars have been sent, bearing date of Sept, 30th, to the various agents of the com-pany, stating that the grand total of receipts amount to $43,500; that the wants of the sufferers are all supplied; that the funds on hand are amply sufficient, and that agents will desist taking further contributions. As indicative of the feeling pervading the following from the New Orleans Pickayune of September 22d: "The relief which comes

FIRE AT JUNCTION CITY.

The heaviest blow ever dealt at the business interests of Lane county, and one from which the citizen of that county will not soon recover, was the fire which laid in ashes a whole block, excepting Gilmore's on hand.

Hotel, in Junction City on the 7th inst. The fire, supposed to be the work of an in-cendiary, was first noticed about 1 o'clock by parties who were in Craig's saloon, and originated in the back pirt of B. Cohen's Oregon Legislature. store, about seventy feet back from Front street. Before the alarm could be given the street. Before the alarm could be given the complete stock of goods than they have ever fire had passed beyond control, and the kept before, and will sell them for less than flames were shooting up the side of the building and through the roof as if the walls in Corrollia had been saturated with coal oil. The city was without fire engines, and every man, was without fire engines, and every man, woman and child fought bravely to subdue the flames. The total loss is estimated at $55,375, against which there is not to ex-cede $18,000 insurance. Several persons are a subset of the subset of th cede $18,000 insurance. Several persons were arrested for setting fire to B. Cohen's building, but the evidence seemed to be in-sufficient to fasten the guilt upon any one.

PASSED THE SENATE. - The Senate bill.

FROM THE CAPITAL

THURSDAY, Oct. 3, 1878. EDITOR GAZETTE:-In the Senate, the forenoon was occupied in the reading of bills first time, and receiving of reports of committees. The afternoon was consumed in discussing Watt's bill on Insane Asylum, over which there was a lively and animated feeling rather unfavorable to the bill. In the House, the forenoon session was occupied mainly in amending and discussing the Pilot and Harbor bill. The lobby at the Capitol is increasing, and a great pressure is brought to bear upon important measures, for and against. The business of the session will necessarily be hurried through for want of time, and the members will go to the Fair.
