Don't stop my paper, printer; Don't strike my name off yet-

You know the times are stringent, And dollars hard to get ;— But tug a little harder, Is what I mean to do

And scrape the dimes together-Enough for me and you. I can't afford to drop it-I find it doesn't pay To go without a paper,

However others may I hate to ask my neighbors To give me their's on loan— They don't just say, but mean it, Why don't you have your own?

You can't tell how we miss it, If it by any fate, Should happen not to reach us, Or come a little late:

Then all are in a hubbub, And things go all awry, And, printer, if you're married. You know the reason why. I cannot do without it : It is no use to try ;

For other people take it,

And, printer, so must I.

I, too, must keep me posted On what is going on, Or feel, and he accounted, A fogy simpleton. Then, take it kindly, printer,

If pay be so nemhat slow, Lor cash is not so plenty, And wants not few, you know; Int I must have my paper, Cost what it may to me. I'd rather dock my sugar, And do without my tea.

So, printer, don't you stop it. nless you want my frown, For here's the year's subscription, And chalk it right down ; And send the paper promptly And regularly on, And let it tring us weekly It's welcome benison.
