

Corvallis, Feb. 7, 1879.

THE FUTURE OF CORVALLIS.

Since it has become a fixed fact that the Oregon Central Railroad will be extended to Corvallis, next summer, real estate has perceptibly enhanced in value, and is changing hands. Several new buildings will go up early in the spring, and various improvements will be made. With railroad connection, Corvallis is destined to be one of the liveliest and most desirable business places, as it is the hub, in Oregon. Located in the geographical center of the State, within sixty miles of one of the best harbors between San Francisco and Puget Sound, it needs no prophetic ken to foretell a brilliant future.

Every person visiting Corvallis, especially in the spring and early summer, is struck with its lovely location, magnificent scenery, clear, sparkling water, healthful climate, and refreshing sea breezes, wafted through a gap in the mountains in the immediate vicinity of Mary's Peak. It is situated upon a beautiful level plateau, at the confluence of Mary's river with the Willamette, the banks of the latter along the entire city front, on the east, being very high, giving wonderful advantages for drainage. The streets, in their natural condition, are splendid, and are sufficiently inclined to the north and east for easy and natural drainage. There are no "cuts" and "fills," no grading of lots, etc. The plateau upon which the city is built extends back to the foothills, about two miles, gently rising among the hills, until it is lost in the Coast range of mountains which divides the Willamette valley from the Pacific ocean.

Possessing so many natural advantages, and surrounded by an unlimited extent of the finest agricultural and grazing land in the State, well watered and timbered, it seems marvellous to strangers that Corvallis should have so long remained in the background. But the day of deliverance from obscurity is brightly dawning, and every railroad project and public improvement in the State will, eventually, pay tribute to our beautiful city, which, as its name indicates, is the "Heart of the Valley."

We desire to see Corvallis and Benton county grow and flourish upon their merits, alone. It has never been our wish to throw cold water upon any enterprise or improvement, simply because it was not in Corvallis. We want railroads and manufactories, which will bring population and wealth to the State, and have no fear but Corvallis will receive her full share of the benefits that will certainly flow therefrom. We are on the right side of the river, as indicated by the following wasteable enterprises, notices of which we find in the Oregonian of recent date:

The Western Oregon Railroad Company, with Joseph Brandt, Jr. P. Schultz and J. N. Dolph, of Portland, as incorporators, has just filed articles of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State, the capital stock being placed at $2,000,000. The business of said corporation shall be to construct and equip railroad and telegraph lines from Portland by or near McMinnville, Amity and Corvallis to or near Junction City; also a branch from, or near St. Joseph, to point on the O. & C. R. R. between Salem and Oregon City, and also a branch from Forest Grove to Astoria, and maintain and operate the same; to purchase, lease or operate any maintain on such terms as may be agreed upon the Oregon Central Railroad between Portland and St. Joseph, and the Oregon and California Railroad on the same line; and respectively extend, the former to Astoria and the latter to the southern boundary of the State, and to complete either line; to facilitate and assist in the construction of either line, or any other railroad connecting or intending to connect with them, by the purchase or guarantee of payment of stocks and bonds of any such lines of railroads. Duration unlimited, and the principal office to be located at Portland.

The Northwestern Construction Company has also filed articles of incorporation. The business of said corporation shall be the construction and equipment of railroads, or their maintenance and operation; to receive payment therefor in bonds, stocks, real estate or money; to purchase supplies, material and rolling stock; to borrow money on mortgage or pledge of any bonds, stocks, contracts, or real estate, equipments, tools or machinery belonging to the company; to manage and operate railroads; and to do all other acts incidental or conducive to the above objects or any of them. R. Koehler, I. R. Moore and Joseph Sims are the incorporators, the capital stock being $500,000, and the principal business office being located at Portland.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The committees having in charge the Good Templar entertainment to be given on the 14th inst., are spring no pains to make it a success. We have not been favored with a programme, by the committee of arrangements, but understand it will be a neck-tie sociable and literary entertainment combined, refreshments, etc. For particulars, see small bills. The proceeds are for the benefit of Excelsior Lodge No. 9. A rare social and literary treat is promised to all who attend, and the ladies of Corvallis never make a failure when they start into an enterprise of this kind. Let the City Hall be crowded on that occasion. It is a worthy cause, and we have no doubt the citizens of Corvallis and vicinity will give old Excelsior a rousing benefit. Turn out every body, young and old, and let us have a good time. Ladies favorable to the enterprise, and desiring to furnish cake, peaches, cream, etc., for the entertainment, will please deliver the same at the City Hall, prior to 4 o'clock, P. M., on Friday, 14th inst., or inform the committee of arrangements where the same may be found. Everybody cordially invited to take part in this entertainment.

CITY TAXES.—Notice is hereby given that all city taxes must be paid, this week, as I have to make my returns, to the City Council, next Monday. Positively the last call. I will be found at the store of Myer Harris, to receive and receipt for taxes.

W. F. RAYBURN, City Marshal and Tax Collector.

W. T. AHEAD.—Crops "never fail in Oregon," and it seems, from the following, that our neighbors across the Columbia are enjoying occasional "large crops." "Born — To the wife of Mr. Shaffer, of Seabeck, W. T., Jan. 26th, 1879—triplets—two girls and a boy." All doing well at last accounts.

Have you paid your city taxes? Cheddar Cheese—new, at RAY'S. See Marshall's notice relative to city taxes. Pay, and save costs. Good Templar's neck-tie sociable on the 14th inst. I. O. F.—Rebecca Degree.—Meeting this evening at 7 o'clock.

Fresh Roasted Coffee, at RAY'S. See the advertisement of the H. & L. Co's bath in another column. Leaf Sugar Drips—very choice, at RAY'S. The drawing class of Prof. Ladner Royal will, hereafter, meet on Monday and Thursday evenings.

The Daily Oregonian has entered upon its nineteenth year. It is, beyond all question, the leading newspaper of the northwest, and Dr. Bowtell's rejoinder to Dr. Carter crowded out this week. Dr. B. says it is the last from him. R. A. Bessell, of Newport, has farms for sale for cash down, or on time, also to exchange for cattle, horses, etc.

A telegram was received from young Bradley's father, requesting that his son be decently buried. Rev. E. A. Judkins has resigned his pastorate at Skagit Creek, W. T., and returned to his home, in Eugene City, last week. Excelsior Lodge, I. O. G. T., meets at 7 o'clock this evening. Installation of officers. Visiting members, in good standing, cordially invited. John Baker has removed his meat market to the building formerly occupied by Wm. Sellers, as a saloon, on Main street.

Yesterday morning Judge Kelsey started for Jacksonville, Southern Oregon, and Judge Barnett for Salem, on professional business. A little four-year-old son of M. F. Mulkey, Esq., of Portland, was run over by a scavenger, on Tuesday afternoon. His recovery is doubtful. Cause—a drunk driver. We regret to learn of the death of President Marsh, of Pacific University, Forest Grove, Oregon. He was called in the prime of life—aged 54 years. Archie Brown, one of the Portland murderers and safe robbers, is out in a letter in the Standard against Rev. J. A. Cruzan.

Brown and Johnson are to be executed in Portland, today—unless their sentence is commuted by the Governor, which is not probable. A young lady named Cady, aged 17 years, attempted suicide, by shooting herself, at Harrisburg, last week. The shot may prove fatal. Cause assigned. The revival which has been in progress at Brownsville for the past few weeks, and which closed last week, was one of the most successful meetings ever held in the State. Nearly one hundred and fifty persons are reported to have been converted.

There will be service at the M. E. church, in this city, next Sabbath at 11 A. M. Also a praise and prayer meeting at 7 o'clock in the evening, to which all are cordially invited. The second quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church for Corvallis, will be held in Corvallis on the 15th and 16th inst., commencing at 1:30 P. M. on Saturday. It is the intention of the pastor to protract the meeting. Rev. J. S. McCain, P. E., will officiate. Mr. Joseph Blower, of Big Elk, gave us a call last Tuesday. He is a last year's emigrant, and will be located with the Yaquina country. That's the way they all talk. Give us a railroad, to the beach, and in less than ten years Benton county will double its present population.

The second quarterly meeting for Corvallis, at M. E. C. South, will be held in the college chapel next Saturday and Sunday, (Feb. 8th and 9th). Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Rev. T. B. White, P. E., officiating. Public cordially invited to attend. THANKS.—Having now recovered, so far as I ever will, from the accident which deprived me of a hand, I desire to return my sincere thanks to the many citizens of Corvallis who so kindly rendered me timely assistance during my hours of need. And especially to Mrs. Vincent, Dr. Lee, Farrar and Green, for their generous kindness during said time. GEORGE VON LANGER, Corvallis, Feb. 6, 1879.

VALENTINES.—For the neatest, most charming and original Valentines, go to E. Rosenthal, dealer in gents furnishing goods, cigars, tobacco, candies, etc., etc. The best goods and the cheapest place in Corvallis.

A REAL SURPRISE.—One of those pleasant episodes in a faithful minister's life, occurred to Rev. Joseph Emery and family, last Friday evening. On that evening some twenty persons, who reside across the river, in Linn county, made an unannounced visit to the residence of Mr. Emery, (who was not at home at the time), bringing with them a most generous free-will offering in the way of hams, flour, potatoes, butter, canned fruits, etc., and money to pay for a year. The ladies also brought their baskets full of cooked provisions, and spread a bounteous repast, of which all partook heartily. A messenger was dispatched for Prof. Emery, and the evening was spent in singing and pleasant conversation. Before parting, the blessing of God was invoked upon the kind donors. About 11 o'clock P. M., the cheerful party took their leave, accompanied by the heartiest wishes of the minister and his wife for their future happiness and comfort, both in the life which now is and that which is to come. Prof. Emery has been preaching to these people once a month for the past four years, and the above is a token of the appreciation of his neighbors. Almost every family in the entire neighborhood contributed something.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the post office at Corvallis, Benton County, Oregon, Feb. 7, 1879. Persons calling for the same, will please say, "advertised."

A TRAMP was arrested, taken before a magistrate, and sentenced for three months. The justice, in explaining the sentence, remarked that, while there was no evidence that the prisoner had been guilty of any crime, he thought it prudent to commit him, as he had the wild, haggard look of a man about to start a newspaper.

Never loan a borrowing friend more than you are willing to lose if he can't pay.

TIED OF LIFE—SUICIDE. Last Tuesday afternoon our quiet city was thrown into excitement by the announcement that a young man, named Charles Brailley, had committed suicide, by shooting himself, through the head, with his own pistol. The young man is almost a total stranger in this place, arriving last summer from Ohio, in company with two sons of Mr. Casteel, at whose residence, on the State Agricultural farm, the terrible deed was consummated. But little is known of this young man, except that he was of steady habits, quiet and retiring in his manner, and apparently in robust health. He has been stopping with Mr. Casteel most of the time since his arrival in Oregon, last August, we believe. His father is represented as quite wealthy, and had sent this son to Oregon in order to break off some love affair. So rumor says. He was expecting money with which to return home—but it did not come. During the forenoon of the fatal day, he wrote a letter home, and upon returning from the post office, gathered all his letters and papers together and burned them—leaving not a line to indicate the cause of his self-destruction. The whole matter is involved in the deepest mystery—as no sufficient cause has been discovered for the terrible rash, mad act, that cut him off in the very bloom of manhood—being probably only about 25 or 28 years of age. He was a Roman Catholic, and had united with the Church at this place, we understand. Judge McFadden, assisted by Timothy Donhue, and other citizens, took charge of the remains and gave them decent burial in the Catholic cemetery. The following report of the attending coroner, and coroner's jury, are kindly furnished us for publication:

STATE OF OREGON, COUNTY OF BENTON, ss. CORVALLIS, Feb. 4, 1879. I hereby certify that on the 4th day of February, 1879, the undersigned, acting coroner for the county of Benton, State of Oregon, held an inquest on the dead body of Charles Brailley. A jury of six men were summoned, whose names and verdict are herewith enclosed. Two witnesses were sworn, Nelson Casteel and his son William. Nelson Casteel testified that deceased was preparing to leave his house; had taken his trunk out on the porch; that he had some unimportant conversation; that he (Brailley) seemed to be out of humor; considered that he (Casteel) had ordered him off; went out into the yard; in a short time he heard the report of the pistol, but supposed he had fired for amusement, as he never did; but on coming to the door saw him lying on the ground as the jury found him.

On examination of his effects there was nothing found of any value, except a small silver watch and the pistol with which the deed was done; also a small valise, a trunk, and some clothing, all of which are now in my possession. Respectfully submitted, this 4th day of February, 1879. W. H. JOHNSON, J. P. and Acting Coroner.

In the matter of the death of Charles Brailley. STATE OF OREGON, COUNTY OF BENTON, ss. I, the coroner's jury, summoned and sworn to inquire into the causes producing the death of Charles Brailley, found dead in the yard of Mr. Nelson Casteel, in said county and State, on the 4th day of February, 1879, and the following facts: That we repaired to the yard of Mr. Casteel on the afternoon of said day; did proceed to examine, under oath, Mr. Nelson Casteel, and Wm. Casteel, his son, and on said examination of said persons and from the appearance of the deceased, as to the manner of his death, we do find, under our oaths, that the said Charles Brailley came to his death in said county by his own hand, to-wit: By firing a pistol ball into his temple, from a five-shooting pistol, then and there held in his right hand.

Given under our hands this 4th day of February, 1879. JAMES EGGLETON, T. J. CRIGG, T. VINEYARD, S. L. HENDERSON, A. I. GO, J. R. HOWLAND.

If every individual and every family would bestow a title of the requisite in an ordinary attack of acute disease, in striving to prevent and ward off its attacks, there would rarely be any use for calling in the aid of the physician. In all ordinary derangements of the stomach, bowels, liver or kidneys, you need only a few doses of Fress's Hamburg Tea.

Should have pretty teeth in them, but it is not unusual to see between rosy lips, teeth discolored and decaying through neglect. This disgusting defect should be repaired without delay, by using fragrant SODA-DENT, which removes every particle of tartar from the teeth and renders them snowy white. This admirable aid to beauty is perfectly harmless and exhales a most delightful aroma, and is in every respect preferable to the ordinary tooth pastes and powders. Try it and see for yourself.

ISSANE.—Adam Weidener, who has been working on the farm of W. R. Calloway, in this county, for some time past, attempted suicide, about two weeks ago, by trying to drown himself in the creek, in that neighborhood. Failing in this, he then attempted to amputate his arm, and in this was successful to the extent of inflicting a very severe gash, from which he would have probably died through loss of blood, but for the timely aid of physicians, Drs. Lee and Farrar having been immediately summoned. On last Saturday the unfortunate young man was brought to Corvallis, and after examination, adjudged insane by Judge McFadden, and on Monday Sheriff King took him to the asylum, at Portland. Mr. W. is a German by birth, possessing a good education, a pleasing address and considerable property. Mr. Calloway was appointed his guardian by the County Court.

Consumption Cured. An old physician retired from active practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. The receipt will be sent free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Address with stamp, naming this paper, Dr. J. C. Stone, 44 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Liver is King. The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved, Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the nervous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Don't Forget It. If you are troubled with nervousness or indigestion, or feel of life, fear death or feel out of sorts as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid this season of the year as persons arising from stagnant water or decaying vegetation are more numerous and are through inhalation taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not healed, end in more terrible diseases and death. Green's August Flower, its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents.

NOTHING short of unmistakable benefits conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation of Green's August Flower, enjoyed by it. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial or blood diseases. Its action is rapid and certain in its remedial effects, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Sores, Boils, Humors, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases and all diseases arising from impurity of the blood. By its invigorating effects it tones up the system, restores and preserves the health and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and the cheering testimony of the suffering sick, everywhere. For sale by all dealers.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. For Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases. Eruptions, Pimples, Boils, Blotches, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Sore and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhoea, arising from internal ulceration, and Uterine disease, Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, General Debility, and for Purifying the Blood.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives—Stillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock—with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure. Its ingredients are so skillfully combined, that the full alterative effect of each is assured, and while it is so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome diseases. The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the confidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it, prove their experience of its usefulness. Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sarsaparilla over every other alterative medicine. So generally is its superiority to any other medicine known, that we need do no more than to assure the public that the best qualities it has ever possessed are strictly maintained.
