THE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Good Templar Neck Tie Sociable, musical and literary entertainment, at the City Hall, last Friday evening, was a grand success, in every way. The attendance, not, withstanding the inclemency of the weather, was very large, and everybody seemed happy. Many of our leading citizens, not connected with the Order, gave us their hearty support and approval, and contributed liberally toward its complete success. But the committee are under special obligations, to the Second Brigade Band. Prof. McElroy, Prof. Brotherhood, and the young people who so cheerfully aided in the attend. Grand march at 9 o'clock. musical and literary part of the programme, and to the citizens generally, for the true sociability exhibited on that oceasion. To Mrs. H. W. Vincent, of the New Eng'and House, who prepared and superintended, in person, the ice-cream department, is due much of the financial success of the entertainment; also to Dr. F. A. Vincent and wife for efficient services. In fact, we can't particularize, where the entire community seemed so cheerfully willing to aid in makin the entertainment the most successful and enjoyable one of the season. The net proceeds amounted to about $50. Pretty good for a stormy night, and an admission fee of only twenty-five cents. Being Valassistants, was a very important feature, adding to the fun, as well as the finances. Taken altogether, it was one of the most satisfactory and pleasant social entertainfrequent repetition would be most desirable and beneficial. In order to correct any wrong impression that may have gone abroad, we will take the liberty of stating the adage "Absent, but not forgotten." that the "social dance," which followed, Their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, last was entirely separate and distinct from our entertainment, and for which the Lodge was in no wise responsible. The committee happy throng present on that occasion. of arrangements, by resolution, decided that it should not wind up with a "dance." After we c'osed our entertainment, of course the Good Templars responsibility ceased. ED. The following adjoining farmers have, during the last two months, cleared and put under dultivation forty-two acres of land, altogether Mr. Drury Davis, about fifteen aeres; Mr. William Hood, ten acres; Mr. Joseph Gray, three acres ; Mr. James Lewis, eight acres; and Mr. Todd, who lately came to the country, has cleared six. Much fencing has also been done.

IMPROVENENTS. - Every hour of sunshine is vigorously improved by persons contemplating improvements. The old building north of Haskins' hotel, has been torn down and removed, leaving a clear space from the old hotel to Young & Polly's corner. Nick Baesen has had workmen engaged in tearing away the front and removing the old Empire market building to the rear, preparatory to erecting his new shop. Everything indicates' important improvements in early spring. The future of Corvallis and Benton county never seemed so bright and hopeful. There is no longer any doubt, in the minds of informed persons, that Corvallis will become the railroad center of the Willamette valley. Let every citizen of Benton county work to this end. "In union there is strength." Corvallis is one of the most beautiful and healthy places in the State, and Benton county possesses advantages, agricultural, mineral and commercial, surpassed by no county in the State, and is filling up, very rapidly, with solid, industrious, enterprising people.

TOO MUCH CREDIT-

EDITOR GAZETTE: Your notice of Wm. Reid's Portland Board of Trade Report and his neglect to mention the ten miles of railroad, as connected with Yaquina Bay, was courteous; but in this case courtesy is worse than wasted. There is a class of men, who, in public matters, allow selfishness to control them; and no man in Oregon, occupying a position to give important enterprises correct standing and encouragement, can be as genuinely small and contemptible as this Secretary of the Portland Board of Trade, Mr. Wm. Reid of Dundee. In 1876, workthe passage of the bill to assist this same railroad, he insisted on calling Yaquina Bay years and 8 months. ing with all his mighty (?) influence to defeat "a hole in the ground." Probably he still feels spiteful, because he failed, and because his overbearing manner and insufferable conceit made it necessary for a resolution keeping that worthy gentleman, and his kind. from within the bar, learning members how to legislate. He has done some commendable things. For instance, he figured how long it would take $1,000, borrowed of the Scotch Loan Co., at 10 per cent. per annum, to eat up an average Oregon farm. This to eat up an average Oregon farm. This was exactly like him; it never occurred to Rev. J. S. McCain, P.
