EXHIBITION OF THE PREP. DEPARTMENT At 7 o'clock P. M. Large audience in the City Hall. The exercises began promptly at the appointed time with Salutatory, by Carrie Baldwin. Then came in quick succession Ivie Eglin, Lulu Smith, Sarah Eglin, Lizzie Hemphill, Ella Eglin, Bertha Emery, Sarah Baker, Annie Kelsay, Arthur Polly, Arthur Manning, Lucien McElroy, Willis McElroy, G. B. Smith, Jr., Otto Wells and Arthur St. Clair. They were engaged in recitations and dialogues. Then came "Horse Dealing," by Arthur Polly, " Papa's Pet," by Sarah Jacobs, followed by the "Graces," in which many of the girls above named were engaged, and also Lilly Moore, Jennie Horning, Lucy Wiles, Lizzie Johnson, Lizzie Keesee, Ollie Kiger and Lulu Miller. These little girls spoke distinctly, and their manner was graceful. "The Indian as he is "-Essay by Edward Wites. Columbus Christopher discovered these Continentals in the wilds of America. The closing piece gave the trials of "Public Benefactor." W. Holman told how troublesome a good deed might be if made public. W. Emery well represented the part of Barney Hoolan.

In all these recitations there was very little prompting, and Prof. McElroy, the presiding genius conducted the exercises with a dispatch and ease of manner that would do credit to a veteran stage manager. From beginning to end there was not a jar. Ex-cellent music throughout by the 2d Brigade

BEAUTIFUL BOQUET .- For rich beauty and elegant adornment, nothing, in our humble opinion, graces an editor's table like a rich and artistically arranged boquet of natural flowers. While we write this notice we feel like making our politest bow to Miss Rebecca Wren, of the Vincent House, for just such a present-and if we were ever given to writing poetry or making rhymes, the readers of the GAZETTE would be regaled with one of our most sentimental efforts on this occasion. All hands, including ye "imp of the ink keg," as well as numerous visitors, unite in saying "exquisitely beautiful." May the roses on the cheeks of the fair donor never wither and fade, like the soses in this offering when subjected to the heat of an editor's sanctum.

RETURNED.-P. H. Crim, engineer, re turned from Yaquina Bay last Sunday evening. He has been absent about two weeks, engaged in repairing the little steam launch. Eureka, which burst some tubes in her boiler, sometime since, as mentioned in the GA ZETTE. Mr. Crim says she is in excellent order now, and ready for business. The late starting of the stages, this spring, has been a great disadvantage to the traveling public, as well as Capt. Carr, of the Eureka. The Eureka is a great convenience, and makes the trip from Elk City to Newport in about 2½ hours, carrying from 15 to 20 passengers. Decided improvement on the row boat system.

THE ATTENTION OF CLAIMANTS TO DON aged 11 years, 9 months and 12 days. Disease—diphtheria.

In Kings Valley, May 26th, 1879, Annie, daughter of Rowland and Lovisa Chambers, aged 14 years, 2 months and 20 days. Disease—diphtheria.

Thus within two days of each other, were these sisters called into the Spirit world. While living they were the joy of their mother's home, and only the inmates of that home can realize the severity of this heavy affliction. The remembrance of one thought brings consolation—they died prepared. Alice desired "to depart and be with Christ, which is better," and Annie felt, in death's hour, that all was "well." ALBANY, April 20, 1879.

The undersigned physicians of Albany, having seen the apparatus used in Ames' process for preserving meats, etc., and heard the manner of its use explained, together with the chemicals used, will say, that as used, we do not consider there is any danger to the health to be feared, either in operating the apparatus, or in using the articles preserved. Not having seen a protracted test of the process of preservation by the chemicals, as used in the manner indicated, we will only say that the theory sounds reasonable, and we can assign no cause why the process should not prove a success.
