LOWER ALSEA AND YAQUINA.

MR. EDITOR: I shall not attempt to give a glowing description of these two valleys; for, people would not believe it. No one away from there, can realize the healthfulness of the climate and the beauty of the scenery. After a residence of several weeks, I can safely say that there is no place like Alsea and Yaquina. The man who can leave his business and run away from the heat and dust of town, will derive great benefit from the air, the water, and the diet of this delightful (I could'nt help it) country. These adjectives will come up: hence I must say no more about the country. The people are kind and hospitable; and, although we may find them in small houses, they have large hearts. Some on lower Alsea have large houses and take great pleasure in entertaining visitors. Mr. Russel and wife, noble and generous, are always ready to give away anything they have, even the fine house they live in. Mr. and Mrs. Peak are never happier than when they are doing a favor. Mr. McKenney and family are valuable citizens in any community. Messrs. Springer, Doty, McWillis, Titus and many others are fine people to live among.

Coming from Alsea one finds an oasis at Mr. George Collins'. Courteous, refined, and well-known. Mr. Collins is the most prominent man on the Coast. On the South Beach of Yaquina Bay we find Mr. Lem Davis and Mrs. D. excellent people. Here we had the pleaure of meeting with Mr. W. B. Carter, whose health is improving. I went from Corvallis to Newport with Mr. C. and Mr. B. W. Wilson, and I hereby tender them sincere thanks for their numerous acts of kindness to my sick family. They are the best traveling companions I have ever had.

At Newport, the Bay View House is full to overflowing; another house had to be rented. Mr. Abbey and his excellent wife are sure to provide for all that come. Naturally kind-hearted people, they make one feel at home all the time. Starting from Newport late in the afternoon Monday, we reached Pioneer at supper time—good supper. The steamer with all of its past mishaps, is evidently a success. It is in good running order, and under a competent engineer. The conductor, Mr. Mack Crow, is as polite as Chesterfield. Tuesday morning, the old Crow took us under the shadow of his wing and flew (?) over the mountains to Corvallis.

Aug. 15th, 1879. PILGRIM.

UP A TREE.

One evening last week, as a Corvallis juvenile was smashing a commandment by depredations on an apple tree into which he had climbed, at a farm south of town, he was discovered by the owner, who made tracks for him with loud threats of vengeance. In the urchin's hurry to reach the ground and "scoot," the broken end of the limb caught in the dilapidated rear of his trousers as he was about to jump from a lower bough to terra firma, and securely held him. In vain did he twist and struggle to free himself from his unhappy position, for speedily the irate citizen reached the spot, and, seizing the sinful little fellow, who was now wailing bitterly, by the leg, gave a vigorous pull. Rip went the breeches, completely devastating the seat thereof, and down came the boy. As if the destruction of apparel was not sufficient punishishment, the angry owner of the tree placed the sorrowful lad across his knee and wreaked his vengeance.

BOARD OF ENGINEERS.—The members of the Board of Pacific Coast Engineers have completed the work of observation and returned to San Francisco. Nothing definite is known concerning the conclusions reached by the board in relation to the point selected for a harbor of refuge. Some significance was attached to the fact that after having examined the various points along the coast, the board ordered that Lieut. Payson make a survey of Coos Bay. This does not indicate that the harbor of refuge will be built at that point, as Congress at its last session made an appropriation for the improvement of Coos Bay, and Lieut. Payson's duties are in connection with that appropriation.

WHO WAS IT?—The Crucible says "that on last Saturday night a citizen of Philomath went out about the hour of eleven to get some water, and during the few moments that he stood at the well drinking, some person broke from the rear of the premises and ran down the street. Now, the question is, what was that fellow doing at that place at that time of night?" We can't answer positively, neighbor, but if the party had a phosphorescent cheek and was clothed with a pair of brass-mounted spectacles, it must have been our friend Yantis, who is at present running at large somewhere so the westward. He was probably seeking something good to eat.

INSURANCE PAID.—Mrs. A. L. Stinson, widow of A. L. Stinson, deceased, received on Saturday last by the hand of Hon. I. R. Moores, grand receiver A. O. U. W., two checks for $1000 each, the same being the amount due her as insurance by virtue of membership on the life of her husband, who it will be remembered died in Salem about the 1st of June last. This is the first death that has occurred among the membership of the order in this State.

COMING.—Mrs. P Annetta Peckham, the celebrated temperance lecturer, will speak in this city next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The time and place will be duly announced by small bills. Mrs. Peckham comes highly recommended by the press, and we trust the temperance people of this city will all turn out and give her a cordial reception.

Dame Rumor says there is to be a wedding in this city before long. The GAZETTE job office is ready to print wedding cards in first class style. The "devil" can also eat cake.

Rev. J. A. Hanna has organized a Presbyterian Church on the Yaquina Bay, this summer, and at a recent session received into Church membership, at Newport, six persons.

Pygall & Co. have taken a contract to haul 33,000 feet of lumber from McCullough's mill, in this city, for the West Side R. R., to be used for bridges and culverts. This looks like business.

LOST—a ladiy's breast pin, about two or three weeks ago, in Corvallis, style dead gold and in the shape of a half moon. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same at the GAZETTE office.

Bro. Yantis' tramp over the mountains with the allegorical glasses on his nose created quite a sensation. The girls sat on the top rails of the fences and hailed him with "Hello, Old Spectacles," as he passed along.

Kit Abbey says he met a Studebaker wagon on the road between this city and the Bay, last week, containing the principal luminary of the Benton county bar, who was whispering soft nothings into the listening ear of a sewing machine agent.

LOST.—A coal black Pointer pup, with white spot on breast, and some white on toes; is about seven months old. The finder, by leaving it at this office, will be suitably rewarded.

AFFAIRS AT PHILOMATH.

[Crucible, Aug. 7.]

The public school will be opened this fall.

Mrs. G. W. Bethers is having a new house built.

Four students are coming from California to attend the college.

The editor's house caught on fire last Monday, but no damage was done.

On last Sabbath the grass in the college campus caught fire; no injury done.

Miss Alva Holgate, of Alsea, at present residing here, is seriously attacked with fever.

Two new departments will be added to the college this season—Primary and Commercial.

Persons who scout around the neighbor's premises in the dead hours of the night have been sported.

The appointments of Rev. I. Belknap at Philomath will be changed from the third to the fourth Sabbath in each month.

Rats and mice are quite troublesome in the community. They have knawed the bottoms out of some of Mr. Harris' chairs and explored the mysteries of Masonry in Rev. A. Bennett's library.

PROLIFIC YIELD.—Mr. Sam. Daw, whose farm is ten miles south of this city, has twenty acres of wheat which, in the opinion of all who have seen it, will yield sixty bushels per acre. This crop comes from one pint of seed that Mr. Daw procured at the Centennial in 1876, and planted two years ago; it grows on ground that has been cultivated for twenty consecutive years. It is known as the Russian variety, and is entirely free from rust, while grain immediately adjoining on all sides is more or less affected. In our opinion this is the "boss" crop of the Willamette valley this year, and if anybody can beat it, let him step to the front.

SENTENCED.—Dr. C. A. Smith, who was indicted some time ago for manufacturing and uttering counterfeit coin, was arraigned in U. S. district court on the 6th inst. Defendant entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to the penitentiary for the period of three years. Just before the sentence was passed, Smith fell to the floor in a fit and was borne from the room in an unconscious condition. He was taken into the U. S. marshal's office and soon revived.

TWENTY-ONE.—Last Tuesday Mr. Geo. Gerhard, our popular tobacconist, celebrated his twenty-first birthday, and the GAZETTE force sampled his choice Havanas. George starts in life under the most favorable circumstances, and we wish him abundant success in all his undertakings.

We watch the gossamer wreaths that rise
From the fragrant folds of a good cigar,
And dream of the Cuban isle that lies
Ever embraced by the seas afar.

LONG TOM INGENUITY.—An inventive sort of a man on Long Tom has fixed up a contrivance to stop hens from scratching up the garden. A long, sharp spur inclining backwards and downwards, is strapped on the hen's leg. When she lifts her foot to scratch, the spur digs into the ground, throwing the hen forward; thus she is kept going ahead, and is eventually propelled out of the garden.

RAIL ROAD MEETING.—There will be a mass meeting of the Citizens of Corvallis held at the Court House, Saturday night, August 16, 1879, at half past seven o'clock, to take into consideration the proposition of the West Side R. R. Company in regard to the location of depot grounds and track through the city. Let every citizen turn out.
M. JACOBS, Mayor.

NEW BUILDING.—Mr. Philip Phile has commence the erection of a new frame store building on Second street, opposite the express office. It will be forty by twenty-four feet, one story high, and will be divided by a partition running from front to rear, thereby making two rooms twelve by forty. This will materally improve the appearance of that side of the street.

PICKING UP.—We have received a note from Bro. James A. Yantis, in which he says he "picked up" several "items" on the road to the Bay. That is just as we expected, and we won't be surprised to here of the organization of a vigilance committee in that section before the festive Jeems gets back to the valley.

BAY VIEW HOUSE.—P. M. Abbey, "mine host," of the Bay View House, Newport, says he does not keep a profit and loss account, or he would have gone into bankruptcy in less than a week after the advent of the editors, now at the House, but then a person can't be blamed for having a good appetite, when they stop with Pete.

APPOINTED.—R. A. Bensell has been appointed agent for the steamer Alex. Duncan, at Newport. Any information as to terms or tariffs, can be obtained from him. The Duncan will make regular trips to Newport in the future. She dischrged a large amount of freight on her last trip.

THE ST. CHARLES.—We are informed by Mr. Geo. Gerhard that Mrs. Annie Houck, who has just assumed control of the St. Charles hotel at Albany, thoroughly understands the art of hotel keeping, and that she will spare no effort in making her guests comfortable.

VISITORS AT THE BAY.—The crowd of pleasure seekers still continue their visits to the Bay. Every available place is occupied by campers, and the hotels are full. The Yaquina is fast becoming the most popular summer resort in Oregon.

They All Take It.

When the system is run down to that extent that you pass sleepless nights, are nervous and irritable, have gloomy forebodings, sour stomach, sick headache and coated tongue, do not enroll yourself as high private, in the rear rank, under General Debility, but cheer up and try White's Prairie Flower, The Great Liver Panacea, now for sale in every city and town on the Continent. No medicine ever compounded is half its equal for the cure of DYSPEPSIA and LIVER COMPLAINT. It has a specific power over the liver, and by curing the liver Dyspepsia and all other diseases arising from it, vanish as if by magic. Sample bottles are sold at the small price of 25 cents that will convince you of its merits. Large bottles 75 cents for sale everywhere.

False Impression.

It is generally supposed by physicians and the people generally that Dyspepsia can not, invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, &c. Out of the 50,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from Druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by Druggists.

Sad Havoc is Created

Among the tenants of the mouth by allowing impurities to collect upon their surface or in their interstices. SOZODONT removes every vestige of tartar from the teeth, and renders their premature decay impossible. It not only imparts to them whiteness and vigor, but communicates hardness and rosiness to the gums. The breath acquires a most acceptable fragrance from its use; it is a purely botanic liquid, and it may be relied on to accomplish its beautifying effects without injuring the enamel like a gritty tooth paste.

AN Encyclopedia of Universal Knowledge. in 20 volumes, 18,000 pages, all for $10, and equal in all important respects to any cyclopedia heretofore sold for less than $100, is announced for publication by the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street New York. They have also just issued an edition of Chamber's Cyclopedia of English Literature, complete in four volumes, neatly bound for $2.00. Their catalogue of several hundred standard publication, at very low prices, will be sent free on request.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician retired from active practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. The receipe will be sent free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Address with stamp, naming this paper Dr. J. C. Stone, 44 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Fellows compound syrup of Hypophosphites is used with good results in cases of Bronchetis, Consumption, Asthma, Nervous debility, troublesome coughs. J. C. Hamon, M. D., county physician, Los Angles, "I think highly of it, and use it largely for lung complaints." L. E. Cross, M. D. "It gives much benefit in cases of debility and bad coughs." Sold by all druggists.
