C. B. McDONALD. ED. CORVALLIS GAZETTE: When he and I visited your city last April, and your citizens were electrified with the eloquent temperance speeches which he delivered there and I so sick, at the time, that I could not attend his lectures, little did I think that I should now speak of him as gone to the silent tomb, while I am in fair health. In due time an obituary will appear, giving some of the outlines of the life of this most gifted and talented Scotchman, who is gone from our midst. It was spring to a letter of mine, sent to him last spring at Oakland, Cal., that he came to Salem last April, to address here in the temperance work. About the 18th of that month, as we were roomed together in his favorite room in the Chemeketa Hotel in Salem—the same one which he so long occupied when editing the Oregon Statesman—he stated that just two months ago, that day, he had emerged from a long night of mental and bodily disease in Oakland, and felt that he was a redeemed man. He said that he was fully able to stand by the power of his own will. I told him that the will power sometimes was too weak to contend successfully against the power of a raging appetite. But he seemed self-confident that he should hold out faithfully to the end of his life. Alas! how little did he know of himself. I perceived that he had an intense gnawing in his stomach for strong stimulants. Over one pound of the very strongest tobacco, weekly, in smoking, and nine cups of strong coffee daily seemed to be required to appease his craving diseases for stimulation, instead of brandy. He depended not on God for help and strength to battle with that chronic appetite for strong drink. That raging desire overcome his will power, and he fell in the temperance lecture field. The struggles of his mind; in the sore temptations to indulge again in the use of strong drink were known to him alone. A bright light in the literary world is blown out. "Whisky has conquered him, as it will others." This dreadful downfall of a temperance lecturer is no stigma to the temperance cause. It proves the power of a long continued use of alcohol in the stomach to overcome the greatest of men. D. NEWSOM. Salem, Sept. 6, 1879.

PASSED THROUGH.—R. A. Habersham, U. S. Ass't engineer, and party, passed through this city last Tuesday, en route for the mouth of the Umpqua, for the purpose of making a survey of that bar and harbor. Mr. H. has been, unavoidably, detained for considerable time, at Newport, since completing the survey of Alsea bar. The detention of the Alex. Duncan and accident to the tug, caused his delay. He will go by rail from Albany to Drain, from thence to Scottsburg by private conveyance. From the latest advice, before leaving the bay, Mr. H. thinks the tug, Katie Cook, will be able to get of the sands at Alsea without serious loss. He met Capt. Parker, one of her owners, who has been engaged in rescuing the City of Dublin, at the mouth of the Columbia, going to her assistance. In the matter of rescuing vessels from perilous positions, we presume Capt. Parker has few, if any, superiors on this coast.

WORKS OF NECESSITY.—We are not in favor of Sunday work, generally, and strongly favor the execution of the Sunday law upon our statute books. But when a case occurs, like last Sunday, with large fields of wheat exposed to damage and threatening rain, we think it is quite right, if not a positive Christian duty, to save it, even though it should require the din of the header and thrasher. Thousands of bushels of grain were saved in Oregon, last Sabbath, which might have been greatly damaged, if not altogether destroyed, if permitted to have remained in the field, especially as it rained on Monday and Tuesday, followed by heavy fogs on the following days. Harvest is already some two weeks behind in this part of the valley, and it stands the farmers in hand to save every bushel of grain they can. Ordinarily, we think work on Sunday, even in harvest, entirely unnecessary, but we cannot think it right, according to Scripture teaching, to leave the ox in the ditch, or the grain exposed to storm, on Sunday.

ANNUAL ADDRESS.—President B. F. Arnold, of the State Agricultural College has been elected to deliver the annual address before the State Agricultural Society during the Fair week, at Salem. This is a good selection, and President Arnold will deliver a most able and practical address on that occasion. We are pleased, to note this manifestation of good feeling between the managers of the State Agricultural Society and the State Agricultural College. It augurs well for the future of both institutions.

WE HOPE THAT THE farmers of Benton county will manifest their interest in the success of agriculture, in all parts of the State by a good attendance, at the Fair. Their presence will encourage those who are already working, as faithfully, to promote the interests of the farmer.

COMMENTS.—The sentences of the following persons, says the Salem Statesman, have been commuted: Peter McMannus, of Wasco county, sentenced November 23, 1877, for two years, pardoned August 30th for uniform good conduct; O. E. Sawyer, from Jackson county, sentenced November 20, 1877, for two years, pardoned August 30th, 1879, for uniform good conduct; Wm. McFadden, from Linn county, sentenced October, 1878, pardoned August 29, 1879, on position of citizens of Linn and Multnomah counties; Webedo, an Indian, from Wasco county, sentenced November 27, 1877, pardoned September 1, 1879, for good conduct and on condition of waiving merit money.

Max Freindly and wife returned from Portland on Monday. Hon. W. J. Kelly, of Monroe, was in the city the first of the week. We never use the "weed" but if you want A. No. 1 sign on H. E. Harris city. Mr. W. H. Goldson returned from Eastern Oregon last Saturday.

We are under many obligations to Mr. Henry Dohse, for favors, this week. Jacob Senders started for Portland last Saturday, to purchase a fall stock of goods. Don't forget the temperance rally at Muldy Grange Hall, next Sabbath at 3 P. M.

At the sale of books on the state fair grounds, on the 4th inst., $1,710 25 was realized. A. J. Young advertises his interest in the new hotel for sale. Cause—sickness of his wife.

H. S. Maynard, dropped in and set us a "stick" of type yesterday. The first he had for so many years. If you want choice berries or fruit, from F. A. Horning's farm, don't forget to leave your orders with H. E. Harris.

Dr. Heslop has full charge of the Goldson's store, until the next week. He will make an announcement next week. Mrs. J. Mason starts to Portland, next Tuesday, for full stock of new goods. Our lady readers will take notice.

Wanted—good fresh butter, will pay the highest market price, in cash or trade, at RAY'S. Great demand for houses now in Corvallis. A dozen new houses would command good rent and steady tenants.

We understand that R. T. Motley has been promoted to the livery stable of J. M. Eglin, in this city. Morning and evening services will be held in Episcopal church on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Rosenberg officiating.

Geo. E. Good, of the Dallas Herald, announced that with the beginning of next volume he will adopt the prepay system. Good move. M. Stock and Otto Fox are among the passengers of the incoming steamer. Messrs. Brown and Smith will leave San Francisco for home next Sunday.

Call at Allen & Woodward's and get a nice bottle of perfume, for your wife, sister, or sweetheart, for 50 cts., and an atomizer thrown in. They are the latest agency. My readings from Messrs. Keady and Glass, since their departure for Alsea, one week ago. Guess they are gobbling up large quantities of vacant land.

Lost.—By a lady, in this city, last Tuesday, a large red calico shawl pin. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at this office. 16:37w2

The time of meeting of Excelsior Lodge, No. 9, I. O. G. T. has been changed from 8 o'clock to 7:30 p. m. Members, and especially officers, please remember. A man who habitually treats other men's wives more politely than he does his own will have to pay cash in advance at this office.

Rev. W. P. Nichols and family stopped at the Union Hotel last Tuesday night, en route to Siletz Indian Agency, where Mr. N. takes position as teacher. What is coming into our warehouses quite lively, and is turning out much better than anticipated.

Mr. R. A. Habersham, U. S. assistant engineer, and party, were registered at the Occidental Hotel last Tuesday night, en route to Umpqua. We are glad to learn that Col. T. Egan-Hogg, who is now in San Francisco, is expected to visit here in a few days.

The Corvallis Blue Ribbon Club has held meetings for the past two weeks on Tuesday evenings. Meets next Tuesday evening at George Gregg, Esq., traveling agent of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., gave us a call last Tuesday, and renewed the advertisements for their celebrated popular medicine.

Geo. A. Sheppard, of the firm Sheppard, Jaycox & Co., returned to the city last Tuesday, and is now busily engaged in arrangement for settlement of the firm business. I. G. Kline & Co. would announce that the first part of their fall stock will arrive this week and will continue to come until they have the most complete stock in the city. Call and examine for yourselves.

Wanted.—An owner for the first volume of a book titled "The Western Preacher." It was left at this office, by Uncle "Jack" Grimesley. Does not know how it came into his library. The partnership heretofore existing between G. A. Whitney and N. A. Thompson, druggists, at Philomath, has been dissolved, and Mr. Thompson continues the business.

"One of the boys" went to the waste barrel under our rules—no attention paid to anonymous correspondence. The name must accompany the correspondence, to insure insertion in GAZETTE.

Mr. Wallis Nash is still improving in health. The first of the week he was able to leave his bedchamber and walk about the door yard. He hopes to be able to go to the Bay, in a few days.

Mr. James Readman, who represents the great grain firm of A. M. Gillespie & Co., London, is now buying wheat and paying the highest market price. His office is in Fisher's brick, up-stairs.

The Public School, at Philomath, which has, for several years, been in connection with Philomath College, opened out last Monday morning, under very favorable auspices, in separate buildings. Some thirty scholars for a commencement. Very good.

D. M. Thompson, of Albany, was in the city, last Tuesday. "Dave" says he came up, simply because he was offered a "free" fare. We are inclined to think, however, he was looking after the Yaquina railroad and harbor of refuge.

Mrs. Mason moved into her new building, on the south-west corner of Third and Monroe, last Wednesday, when she will be pleased to see her old customers, and new ones also. Full stock of millinery goods. New ad. next week.

Just as we went to press, yesterday, we learned that a man named Copeland had work at J. A. Cauthorn's warehouse, was very severely injured by being caught by a revolving shaft. Dr. F. Canthorn was called but at the time of going to press was unable to tell the extent of his injuries.

We understand a cutting scrape occurred, in Albany, last Wednesday, between a white man and a Spaniard, over some gambling game. The white man was out in the head with a knife, thrown by the Spaniard. The latter was arrested. Did not learn names.

FROM SOAP CREEK. ED. GAZETTE: Seeing nothing from Soap Creek in the GAZETTE, lately, I thought a few lines might not be amiss. The farmers are all very busy—some few are through thrashing. The fall grain yields very well, but spring grain is very poor, probably not more than half crop. Some farmers are not cutting their spring sown grain.

We have heard of some trouble among threshing crowds, resulting in black eyes and scratched noses. A little fracas took place here on the 7th, but I will not name names. Some hard words passed, and a chair was raised, but the party did not have the sand to use it. The other party clinched and choked him, when he hollered manfully, and told his wife to bring him the shot gun—which she did not do. No great harm done—both, I believe, are ready for their hash.

SOAP CREEKER. September 8, 1879. GOING EAST.—Fred W. Vincent and Marion and Dayton Elliott, of this city, expect to leave next Monday for Ann Arbor, Mich., to acquire professions. They expect to be joined by Mr. T. J. Jeffries and Mr. Bradshaw. The latter will go to St. Louis. Oregon boys always make their mark abroad, and these boys, we predict, will not form an exception. They expect to be absent about two years. We wish them a pleasant trip and safe return.

SAD AFFAIR.—The Oregonian of the 8th inst., in speaking of the drunken row at Myrtle Creek, of which mention is made in another column, says: The death of Mr. Edmund Beick, of Myrtle Creek, which was announced in the Oregonian a few days ago, was the result of a remarkable and distressing circumstance. His father and brother in attempting to quiet a party of drunken men who were engaged near their home in a general row, were attacked and severely injured, and the shock to the deceased who was in feeble health and unable to act in their defense, produced hemorrhage from which he died.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.—On and after September 19th, Mrs. F. M. Johnson will be prepared to give instructions on the piano and organ. Special attention given to vocal music. Residence, corner of third and Van Buren streets. Corvallis, Aug. 27, 1879. 4w

TEMPERANCE RALLY.—There will be a grand temperance rally at Grange Hall, on Muddy, on Sunday, 21st inst., at 3 o'clock, p. m. Addresses by President B. L. Arnold, and others. Everybody cordially invited to be present.

A SUPPOSED MURDERER CAUGHT.—On Tuesday a letter was received by the sheriff, says the Albany Register, stating that one of the supposed parties engaged in the murder of Mrs. Hayer, near Oregon City a few months since, named Russell Bennett, was in this county somewhere. Deputy Sheriff George Humphrey went to work in the matter with such energy that before night he had arrested his man Bennett, and had him safely housed in the county jail. Bennett was found at work in a field near Mr. Jas. Finlayson's, and submitted quietly to the arrest. He asserts that the other two parties engaged in the murder did propose the murder to him, but he refused, and as his character is not the best in the world, his mere assertion may not satisfy the jury as equal for the cure of DYSPEPSIA and LIVER COMPLAINT. It has a specific power over the liver, and by curing the liver DYSPEPSIA and all other diseases, such as Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative power upon thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. The recipe will be sent free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and successfully using it. Address, with stamp, naming this paper, Dr. J. C. Stone, 44 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Consumption Cured. An old physician retired from active practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative power upon thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. The recipe will be sent free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and successfully using it. Address, with stamp, naming this paper, Dr. J. C. Stone, 44 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—A ROW of wooden buildings, in Portland, known as Sample block, came near being destroyed by fire on the night of the 5th inst. Cause of fire defective flue. Loss some $15,000. Mostly insured. S. A. Moreland, reporter on the Oregonian, was among the sufferers, but, fortunately, was insured.

MONTHLY WEATHER REPORT. Kept at the State Agricultural College, for the month of August, 1879:

MR. J. P. THOMPSON IS AGENT for the beautiful Estey Organ and Weber Pianos. Instruments sold on the installment plan, and warranted for five years. Also, a full stock of Sewing Machines. Agent for D. W. Proutie & Co., Portland, Oregon. Tuning and Repairing promptly attended to. Corvallis, Aug. 8, 1879. 16:32th

LOOK OUT! The East Don't Strike Wheat in the Warehouse. I HAD OPEN POLICIES OF INSURANCE, so that for one-third of one cent on the bushel (depending on the length of time) wheat may be insured the moment it is in the warehouse. Farmers have only to name it to warehouse men and have it so noted when wheat is delivered.

MARRIED. At the residence of the bride's parents, in Portland, on Sunday evening the 7th inst., Mr. G. Bettman, of Eugene City and Miss Bertha Simon, of Corvallis, were solemnized by Rev. Mr. May.

DIED ALONE.—For some time past an old skin manufacturer known as "Chillian Joe," has resided, or rather staid, at an old cabin on the John Stewart place, about one mile below town. He was found dead, by a neighbor, recently, and Squire Johnson was notified and held an inquest on the body. Verdict, death from natural causes. He was probably about 60 years of age. Had no effects, and was buried, by the county. But little is known of his history, although some are inclined to believe that he has been buried somewhere.

The Supreme Court of the State of New York has decided that J. C. AYER & Co., of Lowell, have the sole right to use the words CHERRY PECTORAL for a medicine, and has issued an injunction against F. V. Rushton, of New York City, for selling Rushton's Cherry Pectoral or Cherry Pectoral Lozenges, or any other use of the name to deceive the public. This decision of the high court includes all dealers who sell any similar article. —Port Jefferson (L. I.) Leader.

Wheat, NEVER HARDLY EVER. Well Rachel, when the case, I can understand why you and William are always in hot water. Emil Freese's Hamburg Tea gives superior and durable relief in bilious and liver complaints, and I know from my own experience, that it will remove the low spirits and irritability both of you complain of. And if Sarah Jane were to take it regularly, she would soon be "fair to look upon" instead of being covered with scales and sores all the year around.

Green's Anquid Flower. It is natural for people suffering with Dyspepsia and Liver troubles, and with derangement of the digestive organs, such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, palpitation of the Heart, Heart Burn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up from food after eating, low spirits, &c., to put off from day to day, buying an article that they know has cured their neighbor, friend, or relative, yet they have no faith in it until it is too late. But if you will go to your Druggist and get a bottle of Green's Anquid Flower, your immediate cure is as certain as your life. Sample Bottles of this medicine can be obtained for 10 cents to try its superior virtues.

They All Take It. When the system is run down to that extent that you pass sleepless nights, are nervous and irritable, have gloomy forebodings, sour stomach, sick headache and costed tongue, do not seek a cure as a hurried remedy, but get a bottle of Green's Anquid Flower, but cheer up and try White's Prairie Flower, The Great Liver Panacea, now for sale in every city and town on the Continent. Terms of sale, gold coin; one-half cash in hand, and one-half in six months from day of sale, with one per cent. interest, secured by mortgage on the premises. Said property will be sold in parcels to suit purchasers. Dated this 12th day of Sept., 1879. 16:37w5 C. E. WOLVERTON, Administrator.
