W. B. CARTER

REV. W. T. CHAPMAN—Dear Brother: Your notice inviting me to be present and speak at the memorial service, on the 2nd inst., reached me late Saturday evening, making it quite impossible to be there. None can regret this more than I do. It would have given me great pleasure to have been present and contributed some humble part in honor of the worthy dead. When a good man dies, it is right and proper that the good he has done should be held up to view as an incentive to others, to follow in his footsteps. The life of William B. Carter, has perhaps, left as deep an impress on Benton county, as that of any other man. Her interest he espoused as his own in the social circle; in the Church; in the Sabbath School; in the Good Templars Lodge and in the Masonic Lodge; and in every good word and work he was ever active, ever ready. In all of these places I have met him and can bear testimony to his untiring zeal. But to fully know and appreciate his worth was to know him as an intimate and confidential friend, which was my privilege during my residence in Corvallis. Here you come in contact with that inner life from which, as the fountain, his outer life was formed. The test of christian faith and christian character is its trial. It was my lot to stand by Brother Carter in the severest trial of his life; when three of his loved ones were, as it were in a moment, snatched away. It was my privilege to witness the christian resignation of him and his now bereaved companion. But this was not all. It was mine to stand by him through a long and tedious night and administer, as best I could, to his sufferings, which were as severe as falls to the lot of man to endure. When he and I expected each hour would be the last. Yet no murmer escaped his lips; no shrinking from the approach of the dread monster. His faith had become a living reality, it took hold of, and was ready to meet the realities of the eternal world. Yours truly in Christ.
JOHN BOSWELL.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Mr. Jas. A. Yantis, Republican nominee for prosecuting attorney of the second judicial district, and editor of the GAZETTD, has gone South, to attend court and the ad interim will take advantage of his absence and say to our readers that Jimmy was nominated by the district convention by almost a unanimous vote, which fact, of itself, attests his popularity. He has lived in Corvallis for 10 years, has had several years practice at law, and has made for himself a good reputation as a sound thinker and able talker. He is sober and industrious, and his character is entirely above reproach. But these facts are well known to the people of Benton county, and we opine that they will express their appreciation of Mr. Yantis by a handsome majority in June. There is no political significance attached to the office, but it is important to elect a man who will fearlessly and faithfully do his duty as a prosecuting officer, and at the same time guard the tax-payers against unnecessary expense.

MURDER.

This crime is becoming almost epidemic in Oregon. One can hardly pick up a paper without seeing the heading "Horrible Murder." On May 11th a shooting scrape occurred at Astoria, in which Chas. Mitchell, a fisherman, was shot in the head by William Willliams, foreman of the Cathlamet cannery. At last accounts the wounded man was still alive, but not expected to recover. Mitchell's wife had procured a divorce from him, and it was in regard to this that the quarrel arose; Mitchell claiming that Williams was instrumental in getting it.

In addition comes the news from Heppner, Umatilla county, that on May 10th Mr. T. D. French was shot and mortally wounded by a sheep-herder named Murphy. This quarrel arose about some sheep that Murphy was engaged in herding, and which had encroached on French's fields. Mr. French is said to have been a peaceable, law-abiding citizen, and the murder was, in all respects, a cowardly, cold-blooded one, and the murderer deserves no mercy. After committing the deed the muderer fled, but, we believe, has since been captured.

NEW STAGE LINE.—Robt. Martin, of Junction City, has started a stage line curying the mail between Corvallis and Junction. Stage leaves Junction at 11 A. M., arrives at Corvallis Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 5:30 P. M. Leaves Corvallis Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 6 A. M. for Junction City, arriving at 12 M.

Thanks to Hon. John Whiteaker for various pub. docs.

The Corvallis foundry is in active operation. Look out for ad. next week.

The North Public School closes for the present school year on Friday of this week.

O. V. Motley is assisting at the Palace Market. It looks natural to see you there, Obie.

Samuel Case, of Newport, James Dixon of Elk City were in town Wednesday. Mr. Case is en route to Portland.

A picked nine of the smaller boys of this city, went down to Albany last Saturday, and got "scooped" in a game of baseball.

Glass ball shooting is all the go in Corvallis. After the boys have practised awhile we will publish some of their scores.

Excelsior Lodge No. 9, I. O. G. T., meets this evening, regular meeting. Visiting members cordially invited to attend.

R. A. Bensell returned from Polk county last Saturday evening, and reports everything booming in that section of the state.

Some of our German friends had a little shooting match last Sunday, in which a dozen bottles of wine figured quite conspicuously.

The Masonic Monthly, for May, is at hand. This magazine is a true exponent of Free Masoury, and no Mason should be without it.

Last Monday morning our attention was called to a dressed mutton, which weighed 140 pounds. Pretty good sized mutton, that.

Chas. Hughes, purser on the steamship Elder, paid Benton county a visit last week. We would like to know what he wants up here, anyhow?

Joshua Mason has his new bakery in full blast. James Drake, Jr., is at the head of the culinary department. Look out for the advertisement.

New and elegant stock of millinery goods just received, at Mrs. E. A. Knight's, which will be sold cheaper than they can be bought any where else in the city.

We are in receipt of quite a lengthy poem from the Alsea Bay, which, owing to the crowded state of our columns, we are compelled to decline publishing.

Mr. J. G. Dutcher, of Newport, gave us a call the first of the week. See his ad. next week in regard to pasturage and camping ground for parties visiting Yaquina this summer, in an other column.

Nick Baesen, of the Palace Market has purchased a bran new hack and peddling outfit, and last Monday started on his usual summer rounds of meat peddling. Look out for him.

The meeting of the Blue Ribbon club last Saturday evening, was the most interesting one that has been held for some time. There was a large turn-out, excellent music, and Rev. Atcherson delivered a very fine address.

"The Laws of Life and Journal of Health," for May, is on our table. This is a very neat magzine of 160 pages, and contains much valuable reading matter. It is published at Dansville, N. Y., and Fanny B. Johnson is managing editress. $1 50 per annum.

Go to the Post Office Store.—E. Rosenthal keeps always on hand the best of gents' furnishing goods, hats, caps, family groceries, cigars and tobacco, notions, stationery, candies, etc. The cheapest place in Corvallis. 2w

See the new ad. of the Esmond House, in Portland. This house has just been completed, at a cost of $45,000, and has been leased by H. Brenner and furnished at a cost of $30,000 more. It has an elevator, telephones, and all the modern conveniences, is fire-proof, and by far the finest hotel north of San Francisco.

TRAGEDY AT DALLAR.

There has been a statement made in relation to this matter, by the Standard. To correct some errors, we will give a brief summary of the case: W. H. C. Torr, late runner and night watch at the Occidental Hotel, in this city, went to Dallas on the 14th, he wished to see and have a, as he expressed it, "just a minutes conversation" with a Mrs. Longdon. Mr. Parsons, landlord of the Parson's House, noticing something peculiar in Torr's manner, refused him an interview. Mrs. Longdon not desiring to see Torr. This seemed to exasperate Torr. Immediately after dinner, and while there were a number of ladies and gentlemen sitting in the Hotel parlor, Mrs. Longdon being of the number, Torr walked in and stepping close up to Mrs. Longdon said, "take this" and fired, full at her heart, the ball striking a steel stay, did not seriously injure Mrs. L., who greatly frightened, fell over on a chair. The pistol a Smith and Weston calibre No. 32, was so close as to tear the lady's dress. Torr, no doubt, seeing this, supposed he had killed her—and realizing the certainty of death at the hands of an excited people—turned the pistol on himself, the first shot entered the left side, just below the nipple; the second, which he delivered while yet standing, entered the head on the left side, the ball passing into the brain and coming out close to the place of entrance, passed into the ceiling overhead. Torr was insensible and died in about fifteen minutes after the shooting.

There is a mystery surrounding the affair—so far unexplainable. Mrs. Longdon says her first acquaintance with Torr, was the occasion of her visit to Corvallis, some months since, when he escorted her to the Occidental Hotel, that from the first his conduct was disagreeable, she changed her place of abode on account of his constant attention to her, it would seem to be a case of love at large range. Mrs. Longdon, in Polk county, where she is known, bears an excellent reputation, there is no divorce pending between her and her husband, a gentleman of good standing.

FOREST GROVE.

ED. GAZETTE: It may not be generally known, but is nevertheless true, that at Forest Grove there is not a single grog shop. The lots were sold, or donated, when the town was laid off, with the proviso in each deed of conveyance to every lot, that no spirituous liquours, should ever be made or sold or used as a beverage upon these lots. The Pacific University and Tualitin Academy are located there, and all the Faculty and teachers are abstainers; and temptation to students there are not at hand to debauch their morals, and hurl them down to ruin by strong drink.

The town is laid off on a grand scale. Each lot is 200 feet square; the streets are 85 feet wide. The campus contains thirty acres of land on a beautiful eminence, nearly in the center of the city. The town in its appearance and location is charming, and well arranged. The institutions of learning there, and the cause of christianity are well supported, and are prospering.

Arrests for crime are very rare; order and quiet prevail, and the public walks and drainage show the spirit, sound sense and policy of the city fathers there. Doubts have arisen lately, in the minds of some who desired such a result, as to whether such restriction on the lots in Forest Grove would carry itself forward in subsequent sales and transfers of such lots; but a recent decision in the U. S. Court in Nevada, on appeal sets this question at rest. The restriction remains for all time to come. I had the pleasure of visiting the Grove and its noble people early in last month, and am free to declare that I have seen no place in Oregon that in all respects is superior to Forest Grove in location, health, scenery, quiet and good order. Parents may well entrust their children to the Faculty there for thorough education and moral training. The pestilential Upas does not spread its branches and send forth its deadly poison over Forest Grove. The churches there are large and commodious, and are well attended.
DAVID NEWSOME.

FROM SODAVILLE.—"J. D. W.", writing faom Sodaville, bubbles over in the following words: "Hurrah for Corvallis. Two railroads and a river. The prettiest location in the state. Good country all around it. Tear down the old houses and build new ones; fix up the sidewalks; let all its inhabitants be sober and industrious, and then, I ask, where can it be beat? True greatness and glory depend more on inward purity than outward appearances. Remember it, Corvallis, and don't get too proud."

NEW TRIAL.—The Oregonian of 15th inst., says: George Collins, who has been convicted of the crime of murder in the second degree—for the killing of Clark Hamilton—was to have been sentenced Wednesday morning by Judge Bellinger, but the time in which to file a motion for a new trial was extended to this (Saturday) morning.

COMPLIMENTARY NOTICE.—The Roseburg Plaindealer of the 15th inst., has the following and says: Mr. Jas. A. Yantis, Republican nominee for District Attorney of the Second Judicial District, is in the city. Mr. Yantis is a gentleman of more than ordinary ability. He has an experience of more than six years as an attorney and has built up quite an extensive practice. His character is above reproach. He is eminently fitted for the position selected and will make an excellent and efficient officer. We will give Mr. Yantis a more extended notice next week.

We speak knowingly when we assert that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is the best article of the kind sold on the American Continent. Personal trial has demonstrated this, and the article is an elegant and cleanly one, without which we think no toilet complete. Messrs. Johnston, Holloway & Co., 602 Arch street, Philadelphia, are the agents for the article, and when our Philadelphia friends return from Cape May, they should certainly procure some of it. We know of no such article extant for the hair, and thus speak in such decided and emphatic terms.—Ocean Foam, Cape May, N. J.

DIED.

Mr. N. Newton, agent for Benton county, is now canvassing for subscribers to the new and revised edition of the above excellent work. It is highly recommended by distinguished educators and leading newspapers, and is considered by all to be one of the most useful books that was ever laid upon the counting-room desk or drawing room table. 17:8

Sad Havoc is Created

Among the tenants of the mouth by allowing impurities to collect upon their surface or in their interstices. SOZODONT removes every vestige of tartar from the teeth, and renders their premature decay impossible. It not only imparts to them whiteness and vigor, but communicates hardness and rosiness to the gums. The breath acquires a most acceptable fragrance from its use; it is a purely botanic liquid, and it may be relied on to accomplish its beautifying effects without injuring the enamel like a gritty tooth paste.

A special notice is made in the Scientific American of all Inventions patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. By the immense circulation thus given, public attention is directed to the merits of the new patent, and sales or introduction often easily effected.

Any person who has made a new discovery or invention, can ascertain, free of charge, whether a patent can probably be obtained, by writing to MUNN & Co. We also send free our Hand Book about the Patent Laws, Patents, Caveats, Trade-Marks, their costs, and how procured, with hints for procuring advances on inventions. Address for the Paper, or concerning Patents, MUNN & CO., 27 Park Row, N. Y.
