FROM ALSEA.

ED. GAZETTE: The attack which lately appeared in the Blade upon Sol. King and B. W. Wilson, was in every way ungenerous and unmanly. It is true, that when a person has put himself before the public for the suffrages of the people, there can be no doubt but that his qualifications as to his fitness for the office he seeks, and his reliability and trustworthiness as a man, become proper subjects for public consideration and discussion, before the casting of votes for such candidate. Also it would appear to be the duty of any good citizen, who might be in possession of any facts or circumstances bearing against any such candidate's ability or honesty, which are not generally known, to bring the same before the public by newspaper or by any other honorable means, but there should be no nicknames called nor innuendoes nor mean personalities, nor abuse of any kind; but the charges against such should be plainly and directly made, so that the people can judge the person fairly by them. Abuse enlightens no one, and in reality shows a bad motive in the writer; and when a person has held office, and has been again nominated for the same, or any other office, how that person behaved, and the way he administered his duties to the public during the time he held his former office, or term of office, clearly are matters for the people to discuss and pass upon during his re-nomination. But in the case Messrs. King and Wilson, in the attack made upon them, the writer of the same brings no charge of dishonesty or unfitness against them; nothing even against the way they have performed the functions pertaining to their office in all the years they have filled offices. He has not even attempted to discredit them (by proof) as men. It must, therefore, be conceded that he could not do so, for the temper manifested by the writer in his attack upon those men clearly shows that he had known anything in any way bearing against them, he would not have spared them—there can be no other conclusion. As men, I am not intimately acquainted with either Mr. King or Mr. Wilson, but as officers I have had to do considerable business with both of them, and some of it has been of a very unpleasant nature in itself; but the kindness and gentlemanly behavior of those officers did much to allay the vexation naturally attending such business; and such appears to be the general character in the administration of their duties as officers. I believe our country has been well served by those men, and that it will continue to be well served as those gentlemen are permitted to hold office.

The writer of this attack must have had a motive in making it; all he brings against those men is that they are re-nominated. His motive is not a patriotic one, for his attack contains nothing but abuse, and patriotism does not move in that direction. No, the whole trouble is their re-nomination; this, to the average citizen, would be evidence that the people appreciated these men as officers, and still desired their services; but to the disappointed man, the envious, or the man who held any personal ill-feeling against either of them, in either of these cases such person would be moved to make just such an attack as the writer made upon Sol. King and B. W. Wilson. To find fault with men because they have served the public well, and thereby obtained their offices for years, is simply preposterous (and this is the only thing the writer has alleged), and though some of our people might laugh at the way some one is wading into "old Bush" and going after Sol. King, they will have sense enough to see the exceedingly small politician in the writer, and vote for Sol. King and B. W. Wilson. The writers should school himself before better things.

Alsea, May 13, 1880. FAIRPLAY.

TO THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF BENTON COUNTY, OREGON.

As this year, both in England and America, will be celebrated the centennial of the establishment of Sunday Schools; the Oregon State S. S. Convention determined to gather statistics and items of interest, connected with the work of Sunday Schools throughout the State. The undersigned having been appointed to gather statistics &c., in Benton county, would respectfully call for the address of the Superintendent, and Secretary of each S. S. in the county. Will some friend in each school, please write the address of said officials upon a postal card, and mail to the undersigned? Blanks will then be mailed to those whose names we receive, by which to make out reports of their respective schools.

The Californian for June is on our table. As usual it is full of valuable and interesting reading matter.

The Boss never lets up. Here is an inscription that Tom Graham was only a part of the treasurer's office.

In voting for Tom Canthorn you are assured you are voting for him, individually, for treasurer—Blaize.

The thanks of the GAZETTE office are due to Master Leroy Lakin, for a handsome bouquet. Call again Leroy.

Messrs. Gray and Symons are fitting up a steam boiler building recently occupied by Wrenn & Holgate.

The steamer Occident brought up a large invoice of farming implements and machinery on her last trip.

Judge Burnett has had his residence moved to the block west of the court house. Jack Alphin "bossed" the job.

The ladies of the M. E. church of this city announce a strawberry festival, to be held as soon as the berries are ripe.

M. S. Woodcock has placed a fine Weber piano in his new residence. Mr. J. P. Thompson is agent for these pianos.

W. P. Keedy started for the Alsea last Wednesday. He will be absent some time, as he is census enumerator for that district.

The entire faculty of the Agricultural College left yesterday for Salem to attend the meeting of the State Grange now in session.

New and elegant stock of millinery goods just received, at Mrs. E. A. Knight's, which will be sold cheaper than they can be bought anywhere else in the city.

C. J. Bishop has bought the cigar and news depot, at the Vincent House, and will hereafter always be found ready to supply customers. See his ad.

Mr. B. R. Canthorn, of Mexico, Mo., is visiting friends throughout Oregon and Washington territory. Mr. Canthorn is a son of A. Canthorn, of this city.

Mr. Sam. Case, of Newport, went to Portland last week and returned with his daughter Nellie, who has been attending school at St. Helen's Hall.

Uncle Dave Newsome, of Marion county, is in the city. He will deliver the Good Templars, at their hall, to-night, and the Blue Ribbon club to-morrow night, at the college chapel.

The initial number of the Silverton Appeal is before us. It is a new little sheet, and will be devoted to the best interests of Silverton and Marion county. H. Guild is editor and proprietor.

Sam. Sankey returned to Corvallis last Saturday evening. He had started for Cheyenne with a drove of cattle, but was taken with an attack of rheumatism, and had to return.

Volume 1, No. 2, of the Eastern Oregon Republican, published at La Grande, Oregon county, by S. F. Wilson, is at hand. The Republican is devoted to the Republican interests in that section. Success to it.

Messrs. Miller and Scrafton, at the marble works of the former, are turning out some fine work. They make some beautiful floor weights of marble, which are a great improvement on the old style carpet-covered brick.

A certain marble cutter of Salem was heard inquiring, the other day, how much of this world's goods belonged to one of the hypocrites on the steamer Occident. Wonder if he has been ordering his tombstone already.

Mr. Geo. E. Gibson, of Philomath, Greenback publisher for county clerk, gave us a call last Monday. He was distributing copies of "The Greenback," a semi-monthly publication devoted to the interests of that party.

Mr. T. M. Follet has purchased R. Hult's interest in the City Market, and hereafter his business will be conducted under the name of Lewis & Follet. They expect, by fair dealing, to merit a fair share of patronage.

A CARD.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Some time since a query appeared in the Blade as to whether Messrs. L. G. Kline & Co., or myself was the candidate for County Treasurer. At the time I thought the above too small a matter to call for any attention. But I since find some interested parties are circulating reports to the effect that I am only a figure-head in the contest, and if elected, L. G. Kline & Co. are to run the office.

I simply desire to say that all such statements are the inventions of some one, who probably expects to make capital against me out of them, as I let Mr. Kline employ several weeks since, and, so far as I know, shall not be again in their service; and that the county treasurers office, if I am favored, by the votes of the people, with that trust, will not be kept at Messrs. Kline's store. Nor have they ever asked or in any manner sought it. Respectfully

J. W. WILLIAMS.

NARROW ESCAPE—We omitted last week to note the fact that our genial friend, T. J. Blair, came near being called to his long rest. On Thursday, the 13th inst., while engaged in helping move his warehouse, the lever on which he was working broke, precipitating him violently to the ground. In falling he struck against an iron bar, making an ugly gash above his left eye. At first it was thought that his injuries would prove fatal, but owing to careful treatment he is again able to be around. It was a very close call though.

OFFICE OF T. J. BLAIR—WAREHOUSEMAN. CORVALLIS, MAY 10, 1880.

DEAR SIR: With pleasure I call the attention of my old patrons to the fact:

1st. That by storing on the river, competition is possible.

2nd. That the Mills at Albany, Salem, Oregon City and Milwaukie, can only be supplied with wheat by the river. And frequently, in the past few years, prices paid at the Mills have been largely in favor of the farmer.

3rd. My facilities for purchasing wheat as soon as thrashed, is second to no other Warehouseman.

Relying on past experience in marketing your wheat, and by fair dealing, I ask your patronage for the approaching season.

THOS. J. BLAIR.

DIED.

In Santa Barbara, Cal., May 4, 1880, Mrs. Ann A. Belknap, wife of Rev. C. G. Belknap, aged 47 years and 4 months.

The deceased was a daughter of Rev. J. W. York, of this city. The California Christian Advocate, of May 12, has, in substance, the following: The deceased had been a consistent member of the Methodist church for many years. She had long been an invalid, but bore her afflictions with true Christian fortitude. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of many friends throughout Oregon and California.

ON THE WING.

ED. GAZETTE: I thought a few items from this section of our county will be of interest to your reader especially now the first planting season has been over and the great boom is yet reverberating through every mountain gorge of our vast county. I have been a resident here for many years, and have heard the first efforts of many candidates, but never have I known so many talented, energetic, enthusiastic and temperate candidates in one campaign before. As one of the legislative candidates remarked, they have age, experience and beauty, and he might have added energy and impudence; but this latter term applies only to the two extremists of the parties—the hanger-on or "hoop-up" element, and the great I AM, or would-be general of the Democratic party. Some of this lobbying class are making themselves emphatically notorious by ingratiate themselves into the graces of the candidates, and some of them are laboring more to defeat some one that they have a personal ill-feeling toward, rather than to elect the candidate of their choice. It is a strange fact that the moment you elevate some men to position, from that time they appear to forget any claims their constituents have upon them, and will leave their legitimate business to take care of itself, while they are trying to manipulate and pull the wires of a party that care little for their assistance, and less for their sly intrigue or influence. All did so well I could not discriminate—in fact, there was but little difference in any of their ideas. They were all for our bay, all against the Chinamen, all for reducing the salaries of clerk and sheriff, all for the Yakima railroad, all for Woman Suffrage, and a good many of the other ones, from appearances, for the ladies themselves, as they could be seen in groups discussing the great question of the day. "It is this," Dr. H. here and here and here catches another Democrat. "I must state that the doctor's issue is the decision with which he puts his foot down on the traffic of alcohol and temperance."

The candidate for joint senator from Polk county creates a very favorable impression as much of a gentleman, but there is every indication that Bennell is already chosen to represent the joint interests of Polk and Benton. However, as it takes votes to elect, there is no prophet here who can put his finger on the fortunate ones, but all are good fellows, and the sanguine of his success. To-morrow the candidates depart for Toledo.

KINGS VALLEY ITEMS.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Kings valley school district, on last Saturday, voted to build a new school house, and to vote by a two thirds vote, a tax of ten mills on the dollar to build the same. This is the only important or good thing that this district ever done. We have a prospect now of two new school houses in the valley this summer. Mrs. Nellie Scrafton is teaching an excellent school here, with an attendance of forty students.

Mr. Johnson, Democratic candidate for Sheriff was out here last week looking for something. Joseph is a splendid young man, and has some warm friends in Kings valley, and if he should be elected will, no doubt make a good Sheriff, but then King Solomon will make a better—he has more friends than Joseph, and will make away with him fearfully, on the first Monday of June.

A very sad event has just occurred. The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Long died Sunday morning early, of that terrible disease, diphtheria. This has cast a sorrow over the entire community. Fanny Long was a bright little girl of ten summers. She will be missed by her little school mates. She will be missed by her sister, who is just a year or two her senior. But who can tell the agony of a mother's heart, as she consigns to the cold grave the idol of her soul. Fanny was sick only two days. She was conscious to the last, and shook hands with her weeping friends and said she was going home. We cannot but thank God for death and the bright hope we have of meeting our friends in that home beyond the grave.

CRICKET CLUB.

MR. CRICKET: On Monday, the Corvallis Cricket Club, played the opening game of the season. The match was Mr. Coote's side against Mr. Acklom's, and after a well-contested game, was won by the latter, by 7 runs. Mr. Coote tried hard to avert defeat, by a good innings of 34 not out, but the remaining batsmen could only put together 5 runs. For the other side Messrs. Taylor, Symonds and Readman, hit about in resolute style, while Mr. Buford, showed himself likely to become an adept in the art of batting. Score—Mr. Coote's side—Yesey bl. Grey O. Nash bl. Acklom O. THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA!

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

Pendleton, Oregon, Jan. 12, 1880.

Having suffered with my kidneys, I was much relieved by GEORGE W. BAILEY'S, which I received in a short time. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe remedy for kidney difficulties.

GEORGE W. BAILEY.

County Judge of Umatilla.

Salem, Oregon, Jan. 20, 1880.

Some time ago, I bought a package of OREGON KIDNEY TEA, and after using it felt better than I had for years, and bought two boxes more, being unwilling to be without so valuable a medicine. My wife pronounced it the best kidney preparation in use.

Sad Hovee Is Created

Among the tenants of the month by allowing impurities to collect upon their surface or in their interiors. SOZODONT removes every vestige of tartar from the teeth, and renders their premature decay impossible. It not only imparts to the whiteness and vigor, but communicates freshness and roses to the gums. The breath acquires a most acceptable fragrance from its use; it is a purely botanic liquid, and it may be relied on to accomplish its beautifying effects without injuring the enamel like a gritty tooth paste.
