A. HURLBURT, J. L. LILLY. For Sheriff, SOL. KING. For Clerk, B. W. WILSON. For School Superintendent, E. B. McELROY. For Treasurer, J. W. WILLIAMS. For Assessor, SILAS HOWELL. For Surveyor, GEO. MERCER. For Coroner, DR. F. A. JOHNSTON.

TO THE VOTERS OF BENTON COUNTY. As this is the last issue of the GAZETTE before election, we would like to say a word or two to you. On next Monday you will be called upon to cast your ballots for the various state and county officers. Let every man do his duty. We would not attempt to dictate to you, for you are all able to think and act for yourselves, but we would simply call your attention to a few facts in relation to the candidates.

Of course every man has his own political views and friends, and he is apt to follow them in spite of arguments that may be brought to bear against them. Knowing this, we have endeavored to keep clear of all petty spite work, and have to keep all mean personalities from the columns of the GAZETTE. We would say, however, pay no attention to the various "electioneering yarns" so as seditiously circulated by designing and unscrupulous men, who are strangers alike to honor and honesty. It is needless for us to particularize, but simply put Republicans on their guard. There have been studied efforts and deep-laid schemes, on the part of political tricksters, to cause dissatisfaction and distrust between the voters of Benton county and certain prominent men on the Republican ticket. But you are too old birds to be caught with such chaff. These men have lived too long among you, and have served you too faithfully, for you to be turned against them by the petty growlings of one who would sell his birthright for a mess of political pottage.

The hue and cry about "corruption in office" is the merest bosh, and resorted to in order to avert attention from Democratic malfeasance. We just refer to these matters, lost, in an evil hour, Republicans should listen to the vile outpourings of the Democratic "leaders," and forget the principles of their faith.

On next Monday let every Republican go to the polls and do his duty. Do not scratch your ticket or trade off any of your candidates. There is not a man on the Republican ticket that is not well worthy of the position to which they are nominated, and they must all be elected.

The political speaking at the Court House in this city to-morrow, will commence at 10 o'clock a. m. This will be the last effort of the candidates and a large crowd will be in attendance.

W. P. Lord is well known as a lawyer of profound ability, a thorough scholar and a gentleman of culture, and will be elected by a handsome majority next Monday.

In voting for R. A. Bursell for joint Senator you vote directly for the interest of Yaquina Bay and Benton county.

The people of Benton county want E. B. Watson re-elected County Clerk.

THOS. B. MERRY, Democratic candidate for State Printer, favored us with a call on Monday.

A CORRECTION. The Flale says: "Bensell, you were in the legislature of 1879, why didn't you have the lock bill repealed?" For the single reason, Mr. Blade, Lock Bill, No. 77, never became a law; there was nothing to repeal. Mr. Clow, however, voting for the passage of the bill ALL THE TIME, and refused to support Patton's amendment, to pay for the locks in ten annual payments, of $25,000 each. He also refused to support Langell's amendment, to leave the question to the PEOPLE at the November election (only a few weeks), as to whether they would pay $480,000 for the locks (then incomplete) or not. Mr. Clow voted in opposition to Hons. J. C. Allen, Jas. H. White and R. G. Chrystal, of his own county, the two former gentlemen signing a protest against the passage of the bill by the senate.

Mr. Clow voted for the "Fee Bill" that increased the fees of the clerks and sheriffs, and repealed in 1874. These statements have been made by Mr. Bensell in his canvass, and Mr. Clow has not been able to successfully clear his record. It is well enough for the people to consider the actions of Mr. Clow while a member of the House in 1872. His judgement is certainly at fault.

OUR SUPREME JUDGES. Next Monday the voters of Oregon will select the Judges who will compose the next Supreme Court of this State. The Democrats have placed on their ticket for re-election, two of the present Judges whose past conduct on the bench has been censured by the press, both the Republican and Democratic, in the most unqualified terms, and while we have never expressed ourselves on this subject before, we will now simply suggest that this manner of openly charging improper conduct to a man occupying this high position, is entirely new in the politics of our State, and when so many make the same charge it should at least put the voter on his guard and cause him to consider well the importance of the position before giving his vote for any one who is under even the shadow of reproach.

The people will have an opportunity of supporting candidates for this important position who are known to possess the necessary learning and ability for the position, and whose integrity has never been questioned. The only charge that has been so far made against the Republican candidates is that they are young men. This is one of the very best evidences of their fitness for the position. His story shows that the best judges the world has ever produced commenced their judicial career while yet in their thirties.

E. B. Watson, who is perhaps the youngest man of the three, is thirty-five years old, a man of good moral character, possessed of a fine legal mind, and who has spent about ten years in the practice of his profession, was two years ago elected County Clerk of Jackson County by three hundred majority when that county was three hundred Democratic. E. B. Watson will be one of our next judges.

TWO of the most important offices to the taxpayers of the county are District Judge and District Attorney. For these positions the Democrats have nominated J. J. Walton, Jr., of Eugene City, for Judge, and J. W. Hamilton, of Coos Co., for Attorney. Of these men very little can be said, one way or the other. Mr. Walton has lived in Lane county for a long time and is not known outside of it, and has never distinguished himself as a lawyer. Mr. Hamilton is a young man, admitted to the bar about a year ago, and must of necessity, be lacking in experience.

The Republican candidates are well known to our readers. Hon. J. F. Watson has for four years been the incumbent of the office for which he is now candidate, and has exhibited by the prompt manner in which he conducts the business of his Court that he is the right man in the right place. It does not require a lawyer to see that the slow drag of the Circuit Court in the tardy transaction of its business, costs the county hundreds of dollars every day of its session, and the taxpayers will not forget that Judge Watson is a constant guard to their interest in that respect; his decisions are just and seldom reversed by a Superior Court. Voters will remember that a ballot cast for Judge Watson is cast directly in their own interest. Our candidate for District Attorney it is not our province to speak. The people know him and he is pushing the pencil that indicates this article.

A vote for Judge Watson for district Judge is a vote for low taxes in Benton county.

PHILOMATH VICINITY. EDITOR GAZETTE:—Once more I shall intrude on your kindness with the request for some space for a few remarks expressed by many of the mountaineers of Benton county, in regard to the approaching elections. These mountaineers are, as a class, unmistakably known as a working class, consequently these remarks come not from persons who idle their time away on the street corners of Corvallis in expectations of receiving a free "candidate drink." The great showing carried on lately by the Democratic party, that Sol. King hadn't delivered the money in his hands over to the treasurer, had not the least effect on the people. The Democrats erred again if they thought Sol. King could fly to pieces from their excess of efforts to bring him before the public as a people's wronger.

The voters of Benton say that, even if honest (?) Grover was the executing Sheriff of theirs they would not expect him to deliver the money of the county which should go through his hands, more minutely than Sol. did. The fact is they fear that those who rake the actions of the present Sheriff so much, if in his official place, would keep not only greater amounts back from the treasurer, but even try to pocket it altogether.

A Diogenes with a lantern, to search for honesty among those fault-finders, would meet with the same success as that Grecian sage did on the streets of Athens. Promises are all very well yet proof goes a good deal farther, and Mr. King gave all the proof as Sheriff, as far as his official participation is concerned, the welfare of Benton, requires.

Another candidate for an important office is looming powerfully up in the minds of our citizens, and that is nobody less than Mr. James Yantis, the candidate for Prosecuting Attorney. People want a strictly moral man for that office, as only a man of that kind is apt to prosecute all the low residents that are among us; and therefore Jim Yantis has become the choice of all candid men of this county. His opponents reproach him of being too slow and sleepy; as answer I shall let a lady speak of him, when Mr. Yantis was on one of his trips to the Bay, sometime last year, he was expected to make his appearance in one of the houses on the road to the Bay; but staying out a little longer than they expected he would, some one made a remark accordingly, which by the landlady was answered with: "Jim may be slow, but he is sure."

Sure, moral, and a lawyer of ability. What more can the people of Benton long for? LIBERAL. May 31st, 1880.

HON. E. WOODWARD, our candidate for State Senator has not been out on the canvass but stayed at home and attended to his business, he will be elected all the same. He is well and favorably known in every precinct in the county, and as his friendships have been formed through business or social intercourse, they are strong and enduring. When elected he will make a diligent and efficient officer; not one who will occupy the whole time in making long speeches, but who will quietly but constantly watch and faithfully labor for the best interest of his county and State.

F. M. WADSWORTH is making it lively for his opponents on the canvass. He is a fluent, forcible speaker and will, without doubt, represent Benton county in the next Legislature. He is a resident of Soap Creek precinct and will receive a large local vote independent of his party strength. Every one who knows Frank respects him, and those who know him best like him most. He was a soldier in the late war and was wounded in the defense of his country. He has been in Oregon since 1865 and most of that time in Benton county; his private character is above suspicion, and he is just the man the people love to honor. Mr. Wadsworth will be a faithful and influential member of the Oregon Legislature.

SILAS HOWELL, our candidate for County Assessor, is a man of good judgment, a practical farmer and well acquainted with the value of land and stock. He is yet a young man and full of the energy of youth, but possessed of the knowledge and judgment of mature manhood. He is a resident of Alsea and identified with the interests of that portion of the county; and will receive the cheerful support of the Republican party of Benton county, which means, in other words, that he will be elected.

GEORGE MERCER has been Surveyor of Benton county "time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary." He is capable and prompt in the discharge of his duties in office; a practical surveyor, he does his own work and does it well, and will be elected again on the 7th of this month by a good majority and will continue to perform the duties of the office with the same satisfaction to the people he has always given.

WILL KING returned from the Bunch Grass Country last Friday, looking well and hearty.

THE OFFICE OF CORONER is by no means an unimportant one. It is often that very important business is to be transacted by that office, and it is but fit that the people elect a man to that position who is qualified to perform its duties, by they ever so responsible. The Republicans have placed before the people for that position Dr. F. A. Johnson, who will be elected and will discharge any duties that may devolve upon him with careful dispatch.

DR. F. M. CARTER is fully up to the expectations of his friends, who expected from him good service in the present campaign. The Dr. is on hand and his strong, vigorous mind makes him many friends who feel assured that in his election to the legislature Benton county will be honestly and faithfully represented. Dr. C. was raised in Benton county and is well acquainted with its wants. He will be particularly acceptable to the people of the Yaquina, in which section he spent a great portion of his early manhood, he will be elected next Monday by a handsome majority.

GEO. A. WAGGONER is on the canvass and has made a large number of friends. He is affable and pleasant and possessed of a large amount of good, sound sense and has the happy faculty of talking both in public and private in a genial and logical manner. The Republican Convention exercised good judgment in placing him on their Representative ticket. Mr. W. lives in Monroe precinct but is known throughout the county, and will run ahead of his ticket and be elected next Monday, and when elected possesses the disposition and ability to do a great deal for his county and State.

J. L. LILLY will be one of the next County Commissioners of Benton County, and is in every way the right man for the position. He has resided in Benton county for more than twenty-five years; is a good, careful business man in private affairs, and will be equally as careful and discriminating in conducting the affairs of the county. He is thoroughly acquainted with the different portions of the county and therefore qualified to judge of their wants and protect the county from imposition. His vote on the second day of next week will be a large one.

R. A. HURLBURT is one of the early settlers of Benton county. He came here when the county was in its infancy, and knows its needs. He is a tax payer and will have a personal interest in conducting the affairs of the county on an economical basis, and yet be sensible of the wants of the county and not parsimonious. No man in Benton county would make a better County Commissioner than R. A. Hurlbert and the voters will appreciate this fact and say so on the 7th of June.

E. B. McELROY has been the Superintendent of public instruction in this county for four years, last past, and under his management the educational interests of Benton have greatly improved; his reputation has gone out from his own county with credit, and the vast recommendation of his fitness and popularity is evidenced by the fact that he has no opposition on the Democratic ticket, and we cannot be charged with being over certain when we state that he will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

J. B. WALDO stands at the head of his profession in Portland as a councillor, and though he has not figured in the counts as conspicuously as other lawyers in that city, there is now seldom an important case tried in Portland but one side has the brief of J. B. Waldo. He will not be forgotten by the voters on the 7th of this month.

CHAS. H. WHITNEY, formerly of this city but now in business at Meigs in Polk county favored us with a call on Monday. Charley seems to still have a pleasant spot in his heart for Corvallis.

M. C. GEORGE will be Oregon's next representative in Congress.

THE COMING STATE FAIR. ED. GAZETTE: The time is not far distant when our state fair for this year will be held at Salem. From every indication it will be a complete success. The managers of the fair have placed its commencement July 1st. For the last three years heavy rains fell during the time of the fair, rendering them very disagreeable and deficient in receipts. Fine improvements have been made on the fair grounds lately, and the broad walks, fine parks, elegant pavilions, the fine shades and great supply of pure water on the grounds, present great inducements this year to campers and visitors. But there is one feature of the approaching fair that commends it to the sober, moral and religious people, and that is that no license will be granted to any persons to sell or give away, on the grounds, during the fair, any beer or other intoxicating liquor. Gambling will be prohibited as far as possible, and the Chief Marshal and all his aides are reliable temperance men, who will enforce the rules.

It is true that grains and vegetables will not be matured in time for the fair, but flowers, machinery, minerals, stock, poultry, ladies' handiwork and works of art will be an exhibition in profusion. Roads will be good, and bright summer weather will, no doubt, prevail. Such will be the good order prevailing, from the absence of dram shops and gambling dens, and a decrease of roughs on that account, that we expect and hope that there will be the most agreeable and successful fair this year ever before held in Oregon.

Rev. I. Dillon has arranged for a grand national excursion from the states to the fair grounds at half fare, and no doubt this will add several thousand persons to the fair this year. The anniversary of our national independence will be celebrated on the grounds on the 5th of July. Either Dr. Watts or Hon. J. L. Caples will deliver the oration on that occasion, either of them being well-qualified for that position. It is to be hoped that all good citizens will come up this year and spend ten days together agreeably on that occasion.

BASE BALL.—The young men of Corvallis met in F. A. Vincent's office last Monday evening and organized a baseball club. There were nineteen names signed to the constitution. The initiation fee was placed at one dollar and the dues twenty-five cents per month. The club was christened The Altas, of Corvallis. The following are the officers for the ensuing year: Pres., J. R. Bryan; Vice Pres., Al. Ray; Sec., C. J. Bishop; Treas., R. M. Johnson; Managers, Ground Com., Jas. Orr, Geo. Moon and E. McLagan. The boys think they will have the best club of the state.

J. W. WILLIAMS will manage the office of County Treasurer with promptness and ability. His business ability is well known and needs no words of commendation at our hands. He has lived in Corvallis for more than twenty years, and no man can be found to question his integrity. He will receive the support of many Democrats on personal grounds, and his election is sure.

CAMP BURNED. ED. GAZETTE: Some two weeks since some young rascals, residents of Blodgett's valley, about sixteen miles west of Corvallis, thinking themselves mighty hunters, concluded that they would go elk hunting. So, accordingly, Messrs. Sam Wood, Ab. Wood, Frank Wood and Russ loaded up their mustangs and started for Drift creek, a tributary of the Alsea putting in from the north. Arriving at their destination they pitched their camp in a deserted cabin. The next morning the hunters all started out to look for game, but met with poor success; they found elk sign but no elk.

On returning to camp in the evening they found the cabin in ashes; not only was the cabin burned, but also about $100 worth of property, including three valuable saddles, blankets, cooking utensils, ammunition, provisions, etc., leaving the boys to get home as best they could, without saddles, bridles or grub. How the fire caught is a mystery, unless it was from a burning match, thrown carelessly down by one of the men who had lit his pipe as he was leaving the cabin. T. H. P. Oak Creek, May 28, 1880.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—Two years ago Hon. John Burnett was elected State Senator from Benton county to serve the people, as was supposed, in the capacity of Senator for four years. Mr. Burnett employed his time during one session principally in getting a law passed creating our present Supreme Court. I believe Mr. Burnett even neglected the Yaquina R. R. Bill, so much was he interested in having a new Supreme Court. Could it be possible that "honest" John was looking ahead? If Mr. Burnett should be elected to the Supreme Bench, have the people any assurance that he would serve out his time? Or would the gentleman try to step from the Judgeship into the U. S. Senate. He was once County Judge and, while holding that office tried to be Congressman. He resigns the office of State Senator and runs for Supreme Judge. In the name of Sam Patch, what next? CASAS. May 31st, 1880.

INTER-OCEANIC CANAL.—We acknowledge the receipt of the report of the special committee on the Inter-Oceanic canal. The report was made to the Board of Trade of San Francisco, and is a very comprehensive document. This committee, after mature consideration, reported it as their conclusion that "the projected Inter-Oceanic canal via Nicaragua, as surveyed by the United States Naval Expedition of 1878, should receive our decided preference." They say that it has been proved by competent engineers, that this proposed canal offers no engineering problems that are insurmountable, and that as it can be demonstrated to be a paying investment, such a canal will not hesitate to furnish funds for its construction. See our issue in city or county promptly attended to.

A BIG SMOKE FOR NO FIRE. Several of the best issues of the Benton Blade have devoted a large portion of space to charges against Sol. King, present Sheriff of Benton county, claiming that his published statement made in July 1879, shows that he had in his hands at the time of his settlement with the County Court as said time, something over $1900 00 in county funds, and that the books of the County Treasurer shows that said amount has not yet been paid, these charges have been reiterated on the canvass by Mr. Johnson, Mr. King's opponent, and on every occasion met squarely and fairly by Mr. King. The facts in the case are these: At the time Mr. King settled with the County Court in July 79, he had in his hands the sum of $1900—not in money but in county orders—these orders being in the hands of Mr. King, as Sheriff, these orders were not drawing interest and the county was neither gainer or loser by Mr. King holding them. They were just as much redeemed when they went into the hands of the Treasurer as when they were turned over to the Treasurer, and they were not therefore turned over to the Treasurer until in January, 1880. These orders had been collected on the tax of 1879, but when delivered to the Treasurer with other money collected on the taxes of '79, he gave his receipts to the Sheriff for taxes of 1879 and placed the whole amount to the Sheriff's credit on his account of 1879, thus leaving an apparent discrepancy in the Sheriff's account of 1878. The foregoing is the plain, unvarnished facts concerning which so much fuss has been made. And as an unanswerable evidence of this fact we call attention to the fact that the County Court, composed of men ever on the look out for the interest of the county, knew the condition of affairs on the first Monday of July, 1877, as well as they know it now, and if Sol. King had in his hands over $1900 of Benton county funds they would have long since compelled him to pay it over to the Treasurer or would have commenced an action against him on his official bond. But the County Judge knows that Benton county has no cause of action against Sol. King, else, in his anxiety to defeat King, he would have commenced the action and compelled King to answer in a court of justice and not on a political canvass.

Voters will take the proper view of this matter on Monday next, and Sol. King will be re-elected by a larger majority than he has ever before received.

BASE BALL.—The young men of Corvallis met in F. A. Vincent's office last Monday evening and organized a baseball club. There were nineteen names signed to the constitution. The initiation fee was placed at one dollar and the dues twenty-five cents per month. The club was christened The Altas, of Corvallis. The following are the officers for the ensuing year: Pres., J. R. Bryan; Vice Pres., Al. Ray; Sec., C. J. Bishop; Treas., R. M. Johnson; Managers, Ground Com., Jas. Orr, Geo. Moon and E. McLagan. The boys think they will have the best club of the state.

NOTICE OF FINAL PROOF. LAND OFFICE AT OREGON CITY, OREGON, May 25, 1880.
