THE RESULT

The election is over and we can now only quietly await the returns to see who are the fortunate candidates. The state, so far as time. heard from, is largely Republican, and although no news has been heard from Eastern Oregon, there can be no doubt but that the whole of the Republican state ticket is elected by a considerable majority.

In this judicial district, Judge Watson (Rep) is elected by a handsome majority, but the vote on district atterney is not reported, and from the best information we can get, will be very close.

For joint senator Mr. Bensell (Rep) has carried Benton county by 15. Polk county not heard from. Mr. Clow, Democratic candidate, resides in Polk and the result is doubtful with chances in favor of Clow. doubtful, with chances in favor of Clow.

On the county ticket the Democrate have sessor, and it will perhaps take the official count to decide the matter between Waggener and Herron, representatives. The Republicans have elected everything else.

The whole fight in this county was made on cylinder, and 10 Horse Dingee Power. The whole fight in this county was made on clerk and sheriff, but the people came up and, by their votes, said they were satisfied with the men who had faithfully served

THE OREGON SWAMP LAND CASE DECIDED. -Secretary Schurz has recently decided the Oregon swamp land matters arising in the Oregon City land office, which were appealed last November by Gov. Thayer and argued by Capt. Mullan, state land agent for Oregon. The Secretary reverses the decision of the The Secretary reverses the decision of the several land offices and holds that the Oregon swamp land grant was one in presenti, that there has not been any forfeiture, either as to land surveyed prior or subsequent to March 12, 1860, or whether selected within March 12, 1860, or whether selected within two years from the adjournment of the legisto said state. This and also the Dennis Crow-ley decision terminates in favor of the state of Oregon all disputes between the United States and said state, that have been peuding under the swamp land act of March 12, 1860 for 20 years.

LIST OF GRADUATES.—The following are the graduates of the University of Oregon, at Eugene City, for the years of 1879 '80. This is the largest class that has graduated from this insitution since its doors were first opened. The class numbers twenty, all taking the degree of B.
