THE ELECTION.—The election is now a thing of the past; speculation is no longer of any avail, we can only deal in facts. The full vote is not at this time reported, but enough is already received to fix the result beyond a peradventure. Garfield is elected and the country safe.

As has been conceded the Solid South supported Hancock without dissenting State, and in the North the States of Nevada and New Jersey and perhaps California will also cast their electoral vote for the Democratic nominee. This, however, gives the election to Garfield by twenty-nine electoral votes. As yet the report of majorities in the different States are not full enough to ascertain the popular majority.

Oregon has gone for the Republicans, but by a smaller majority than was expected. The reports from Eastern Oregon are very meager, and in Multnomah county there is a considerable falling off in the Republican vote, this is also the case in most parts of the State. Election day was very stormy and doubtless many voters remained away in consequence thereof. The election in Benton county was as we anticipated, i. e., in favor of the popular candidate, Garfield.

A MURDEROUS CHINAMAN.—On Thursday last, says the Silverton Appeal, Mr. John E. Woods, foreman on the narrow gauge, and having in charge a gang, discharged one of the number, Ah Joe, a pugilist. He soon packed up his bundle, including a tent belonging to Hop Sing, a diminutive fellow laborer, to which Sing objected by laying hold of the pack. This so incensed the burly Ah Joe that he picked up a club and knocked the other down, beating him into insensibility; and had not Mr. Woods interfered, would have murdered his victim outright. After commission of the dastardly deed, Ah Joe began to measure time in the direction of the peaceful Sanitium. The barbarian crowd stood mute spectators of the fight, evidently fearing the savage Ah Joe. The wounded man lay insensible in his cot for three hours, his comrades refusing to render the slightest assistance, beyond carrying him to camp by order of Mr. Woods.

A SAD ACCIDENT.—While the Republican demonstration was in progress at Halsey on last Tuesday, a sad accident befell four boys. They were engaged in aiding in the firing of an avila. One had just been fired and Clyde McCoy attempted to recharge it with a can of powder. Some sparks remained in the anvil, which ignited the powder and it exploded, severely burning him, Geo. Bassett, —Brandon, son of Thos. Branden, and Isaac Blevena. McCoy received the worst injuries, having all his hair singed. At last accounts they were all doing well except McCoy, with whom there was danger of inflammation of the throat. If that is avoided, he will shortly be all right.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—The Lafayette "Courier" of the 29th inst. says: "Judge Boise decided, at the term of Circuit Court in this county just closed, in the case of E. R. Poppleton vs. F. A. Fletcher et al., that an agreement in a promissory note providing for the payment of an attorney fee in case of suit is intended to collect the same, is void and not enforceable, and cannot, therefore, be enforced. This is a very important decision and affects the entire business community, as nearly all the notes and mortgages executed within the past few years contain these agreements. The case will probably go to the Supreme Court."

EDITOR GAZETTE.—I wish through your columns to call the attention of the people of Corvallis, and especially those in authority, to the necessity of taking some measures to prevent that dire disease Diphtheria. There will be less of inconvenience to the public, and far less of interruption to the business of our place, if arrangements are made to isolate each case as it occurs, providing nurses and needed comforts for the indigent, than by the neglect of sanitary and preventative measures to allow its ravages to become wide-spread and beyond control. Very Truly, F. A. JOHNSON.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA.—If your back aches, or if you are any trouble with your kidneys or urinary organs, don't buy a nostrum that you know nothing about, made in some distant city to sell, but buy a remedy that has never been known to fail, made from herbs produced in Oregon and put up by a firm known all over the Coast. Patronize home industry and be cured at the same time.

THEATRE.—Frank Cleave gave one of his popular variety entertainments at Hamilton's Opera House last evening to a good audience. We were not able to be present during the whole performance, and can only say that the audience seemed well pleased. Admitted entirely new change of programme will be given this evening.

INSANE.—Mrs. Israel Eddy, of this county was examined by W. S. McFadden, County Judge, and Dr. Bayley and Farr, and pronounced insane, and taken to the Asylum at East Portland last Monday.

S. H. LOOK.

Owing to the fact that the election returns were not sufficiently full on Thursday evening to give a positive statement as to the result. We delayed the issue of the GAZETTE until Friday evening instead of Friday morning as usual.

W. P. Kealy, ex-state printer, arrived at his little camp ranch, on the Alsea Bay, last Tuesday. He says the people of that section are in excellent spirits over the railroad prospects. The weather here, and roads in very good condition.

The attorneys in the law suits against the late Democratic State officials have charged for their services the neat little sum of $5,000, and the referee $2,500. $5,500 is quite a lot to pay for the pleasure of finding out something we already knew, which is about all we are likely to realize out of those cases.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, loss of spirits, general debility, etc., yet the introduction of GREGG'S PEPPERMINT FLAVOR we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 30,000 doses sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents.

It is a fact well established by unquestionable testimony that Hall's Hair Renewer restores, cleanses, brightens, invigorates and restores to its original color and lustre, faded gray or discolored hair, cheaply, quickly and surely. The poorest people should buy it and use it, rather than to proclaim in a manner more forcible than words can delineate, through blanching locks or grizzled beard, that they are aged and passing to decay. A very small trial will convince the most skeptical that it does eradicate the scalp diseases which rob the hair of its color and life.—Fort Scott (Kan.) Daily Monitor.

Sad Harve is Created.

Among the tenants of the month by allowing improprieties to collect upon their surface or in their interiors, SOZODONT removes every vestige of tartar from the teeth, and renders their premature decay impossible. It not only imparts to their whiteness and vigor, but communicates hardness and rosinness to the gums. The breath acquires a most agreeable fragrance from its use; it is a purely botanic liquid, and it may be relied on to accomplish its beautifying effects without injuring the enamel like a gritty tooth paste.
