THE WHEAT SURPLUS. The San Francisco Journal of Commerce says: It has come to our knowledge that they who have been putting down the surplus of wheat for the State this year to half a million tons have attacked the accuracy of the statement at the close of the half year made by the Produce Exchange—maintaining that it was too high.

A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE. Lawyers are sometimes put to their wit's end to discover a plausible defense in a breach of promise case.

GENERAL NEWS. A Lynx was killed last week in Curry county. Several business failures in Portland were reported last week.
