

M. S. WOODCOCK, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

OUR APOLOGY.

Having succeeded to the sole proprietorship of the Corvallis GAZETTE and job-printing office by purchase of the entire interest of Mr. Jas. A. Yantis in the same, I shall continue to publish the paper and as heretofore its columns shall be particularly true to the development of this country, the Willamette valley and to the general interests of the State at large.

I shall endeavor to always be prompt in calling attention to any irregularities and abuses when I know them to exist in the ranks of any party. In short I shall be at liberty to say whatever I please regarding any political measure as I feel under no special obligation to any party otherwise than a desire that right and justice shall prevail.

The columns of the GAZETTE, so far as our space will permit, will be open to a free discussion of either side of any question of public importance, whether of a political nature or otherwise.

From reasons in which the public are not interested we find it necessary or at least for our own best interest, to retire from the GAZETTE.

We have been connected directly or indirectly with this journal for several years and can not leave our readers without feelings of the most profound regret, yet we trust that the same uniform courtesy and kindness that we have so long received will be continued to our former partner and now successor, to whose efforts since we have been together, in a large degree, the improvement and success of the GAZETTE is due.

ALMADA, CALIFORNIA, JAN. 8th 1882.

THE RIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE.

YACQUINA HARBOR IMPROVEMENT.

The Opinion of an Experienced Sea Captain.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—On my last trip to Yaquina Bay I intended to write you a few lines in regard to the harbor improvement but in my hurry neglected to do so.

The work so far can only be considered preliminary and yet I was agreeably disappointed in the amount performed. To those unacquainted with that kind of work it might seem that the appropriation had been expended to but little purpose and but little good accomplished.

No trifling sum will accomplish any thing in this kind of work. The amount must be sufficient to carry the work along thoroughly and substantially or it may be money wasted.

During the summer of 1875 I had two Schooners on the beach which had been driven ashore and which I was desirous of launching.

From reasons in which the public are not interested we find it necessary or at least for our own best interest, to retire from the GAZETTE.
