DISSOLUTION.

Office of Corvallis Gazette, Corvallis, Oregon, Jan. 19, 1882. All persons concerned are hereby notified that the co-partnership heretofore existing between Jas. A. Yantis and M. S. Woodcock, under the firm name and style of Yantis & Woodcock, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent...

ARM AMPUTATED.

Mr. Stanley, the gentleman who accidentally shot his hand on last Christmas while hunting, and in the act of loading his gun, having had a part of his hand amputated at the time, has not recovered by any means. On last Friday the wounded hand and arm became so much worse that Dr. Lee and Farrs deemed it necessary to further amputate the arm, so accordingly they took off the lower part of the arm just below the elbow. The wounded man is in a very critical condition and it is thought his recovery is doubtful.

A PROSPECTIVE DOG.

Rumors are current upon the street that one of the oldest physicians of our town is likely to have met his antagonist in mortal combat, each armed with a dagger. The young man declares that the Dr. must offer a retraction for certain unbecoming language said of and concerning him, or else the fur will fly cat-fashion if suitable weapons can not be obtained. The paddler of pills has taken the matter under serious consideration, as he don't care to lose his eyes or to leave his estate to be administered on so soon.

WOOD A SCARCE ARTICLE.

Heretofore wood has been plenty in this market, but choppers had to wait until their wood was sold before they could get remunerated for their labor, consequently they have become tired of that and will work at something else where they can get their pay more promptly. However, they have missed this season for maple wood is worth $8 per cord, ash $6.25, and oak cannot be had at any price. This article will command a good price in this place hereafter as hands to cut it will be scarce.

HORSE KILLED.

During the fore part of the present week Mr. M. Winkle living on one of the islands a little east of south of this place, had dug a tree so near by the roots that he had left it expecting the first gust of wind would finish the job for him. His horses were in the enclosure where the tree was and when the wind came a horse was so near that the tree in falling caught the horse and killed it.

BAND CONTEST.

The enterprising people of Dallas have determined to have another band contest. They have raised $200 for its purpose, and propose to make it the grandest affair of the kind ever held in that state. Other towns might profit by encouraging such things. It is cheaper and better than a 4th of July jubilee, and never fails to bring a large crowd from all quarters.

COAL OIL IN OREGON.

Mr. M. Probst, a native of Pennsylvania, says the Telegram, has discovered on his own farm and in his vicinity better signs of coal oil than he has ever seen in Pennsylvania. Mr. Probst resides in Clackamas county on the Willamette, about ten miles above Oregon City. This may result in the development of a new industry in Oregon.

RETURNED.

Mr. Milton Hamilton, formerly of this place, arrived home on last Friday. He has been employed most of the time for the last two years up North in the surveying department of the Northern Pacific R. R. He says it is too cold up there to suit his ideas of a comfortable climate, and he intends remaining in West.

AWARDING OF PRIZES.

On Wednesday evening the second term of Prof Garrison's writing school closed and the successful competitors were as follows: Best lady writer, Miss Nettie Finnes; best gentleman writer, Sol M. Stock. Chas. Rogers received the prize for making the greatest improvement.

VESSEL CHARTERED.

Mr. W. A. Wells, of this city, has chartered the British iron bark, Abney Cowper, carrying capacity 40,000 bushels. He loads it with wheat for Liverpool. This makes the third vessel Mr. Wells has chartered and loaded with wheat. Such enterprise deserves success.

OUT AGAIN.

Mr. Jas. Yantis was out on the streets Tuesday, the first time since his relapse. The recent attack of fever has reduced his fighting weight down to—well, at least 180 lbs.

PRICE REDUCED.

Tickets for Young America Engine Company's dance have been reduced to $1.50. Remember this event which occurs on the 22nd inst. Everybody invited.

BITTER AND THICKER.

BEAUTY'S BOWLER. This famous cigar is only sold at T. J. Buford's. St. Valentine's day next. Valentines at E. Rosenthal's. New goods at A. J. Langworthy's Cash Store.

The finest brands of cigars at the Post-office store. All kinds of Blanks in stock and for sale at the Gazette office. Stationery and books of all descriptions at Postoffice Store.

The Corvallis GAZETTE for sale on the counter of Buford's news depot. Mr. Staley whose arm was amputated last Friday died last Tuesday. Cheapest and best boots and shoes can always be found at S. H. Look's.

The steamer Occident took 2,000 sacks of wheat from here last Tuesday. An Iowa editor tells a rival he is lillious and "needs a new fit for his liver." A sign in the window of a store up street reads, "It's a butter for sail here."

The weather has been a little "off its bangs" during the past few days. Money to loan on real estate, or good personal security, by M. S. Woodcock. Novelties of all kinds at Postoffice Store.

The steamer Columbia on her last trip in, brought 258 passengers and 1850 tons freight. Twenty dollar piece will be taken in exchange for job work, subscription, etc., at this office.

Go to the Palace meat market and get the best, freshest and cheapest meats of all kinds. Nick Baesen proprietor. Webster was an aesthetic, because he enthusiastically says in his dictionary that the rest "apeak" is to utter.

The McMinnville Brass Band have concluded to have a band tournament, at that place, to come off some time in May. A man can get into good society in Salem if he hasn't had the jim-jams, but he'll have to stand being regarded as rather fresh.

The latest stockings we read of are of three or four colors. This ought to make our crossings glisten like rain-bows. The Columbia was blockaded Monday and Tuesday with ice. The "oldest inhabitants" didn't think such a thing possible this "year."

The swift execution of the Seattle murderers has been the object of considerable comment by the press and pulpit. Be careful how you tear off your postage stamps. Our Naaby says postage stamps with a portion of them missing will not be received on mailing matter.

Under the head of new this week will be found a notice to rent the well watered and nicely situated camping ground near the town of Newport on Yaquina bay. The wife of T. J. Nelson, of Amity, Yamhill county, on Wednesday night of last week gave birth to three children, two boys and a girl weighing seven pounds apiece.

George Washington never told a lie and he got to be the president of the Republic. Boston Post. Geo. could not get elected to the Legislature from this county if he lived in these times. His name is Johnny Baxter; he was removing a load from a shot gun, but the load removed itself—consequence, a lacerated arm. He will recover, although he may lose his arm.

Bam has learned a new song. He was heard repeating the following on a street corner the other day: "Hurrah! hurrah! the country's rising for Henry Clay and Fröhlinghuysen." We have just received a large and complete printing stock, consisting of note and letter heads, bill heads, envelopes, wedding cards, etc., and can print them in all colors cheap as the cheapest.

A. S. Powers, sub-contractor on the mail route from Eugene City to Eastern Oregon has been summoned to appear in Washington by the 12th of February as a witness in the star route cases. A letter from Capt. Guyer, superintendent of the Custer mill, Idaho, under date of January 1st, says: "We have just moulded our last bar for 1881, which foots up $1,002,183 18 taken out since February 1, 1881, one even month's run.—Ex."

A young boy of sixteen or seventeen years old was arrested and brought before Justice Wrenn, last Wednesday, for attempting to invade the virtue of a young seventeen year old girl. Both of this place. If the charge is proven against him the result will not doubt be an entertainment for him for a term down about Salem.

New Corporation at Albany.

Articles were filed in the office of the secretary of the state last week incorporating the Albany Manufacturing Company with a capital stock of $30,000, and S. H. Alt-house, S. Finn, Dan. Best, A. B. McIlwaine and W. H. Goitra as incorporators. The enterprise the corporation proposes to engage in is to purchase the right to manufacture and sell the "Daniel Best Improved Grain Separator," and the "Daniel Best Thresher and Separator combined," as well as other agricultural implements.

RAILROAD PARAGRAPHS.

The railroads built last year cost at least $160,000,000, and probably $200,000,000. Railroads are carrying wheat from St. Louis to New York for 85 cents per bushel.

Four directors in the San Francisco road have given place to Huntington, Stanford, Gould, and Sage. The Southern Pacific offers to carry wheat from San Francisco to New Orleans for $12 a ton—or four cents a bushel.

The O. R. & N. Co. will soon receive seven new locomotives, weighing twenty-seven tons each. The O. R. & N. Co. propose to build a depot in Portland on a grand scale. Its dimensions are 500 by 600 feet, and will cost $1,500,000.

The N. P. R. R. tunnel at Millan pass will be 3,800 feet long, and will cost, says Railroad Gazette, about $350,000,000. Work commenced Jan. 6th. There is a locomotive in the Tacoma iron works, undergoing repairs, that is said to have hauled an amount of wheat greater in value than its own weight in gold.

Four hundred thousand persons, according to the Railroad World, are employed on the railroads in this country, and five times that number depend upon the roads for support. About 2,000,000 feet of lumber will be used in constructing the bridges and trestle work on the first 30 miles of the O. C. & R. R., South of Roseburg. A. S. Miller & Son have the contract.

The Canadian Pacific lines have been consolidated in such a way that all west of Lake Superior to the Pacific coast will be known as the western division, and east to the intended Atlantic terminus as the eastern division. The Oregon Railway and Navigation company have concluded negotiations with J. B. Davis, C. D. Estes, R. M. Steel and others, composing the newly organized Oregon Construction company, and awarded them a contract for constructing the railroad grade from Pendleton to a point near La Grande, a distance of fifty-seven miles. This includes the heavy work over the Blue Mountains. As originally surveyed there were four tunnels, but the company now think they will be able to get through with one, which will be less than four hundred feet long. The contract requires that the work be completed by the first of October 1882. Operations will begin immediately.

PERSONALS.

Dr. Smith was telegraphed to Albany the first of the week. W. Dittenhoefer, of Independence, was in the city the first of the week. Wm. Bagley of Onestata, is in town this week looking after business.

Geo. Chamberlain, one of Albany's rising young attorneys, was in town last Tuesday. T. P. McKnight, the Cascade Ranger, was in the city the first of the week. Miss Lottie Monteith, of Albany, has been visiting friends in this city this week.

Messrs. Ala Harris and Simon Seibenbach, of Albany, were in the city last Sunday. Hon. A. Parker passed through this city the first of the week, on route for his home at Onestata. Dr. F. M. Carter, was in town this week and reports that he has lately purchased the Wm. Dixon farm on the Yaquina Bay.

F. M. Wadsworth, was observed on the street this week evidently making preparations for house keeping in our town. Charley Cohen, the well-known "commercial tourist," of San Francisco, spent last Sunday in this city. Chas. has a weak-ness for Corvallis.

Mrs. J. M. Garrison, of Forest Grove, wife of our talented parson, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Shedd of this place during the week. Mr. G. should his school Wednesday night, and they leave for Salem to-day.

Mr. Ed. McKenstry, the efficient agent for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Co., made Corvallis a flying visit last week on business. Wonder if he came up to have the judgment in his case reversed. L. P. Malkey, formerly of this place, and late of Pomeroy, W. T., lately arrived in this place to pay a short visit with relations and friends. He reports everything lively in Pomeroy since the county seat was located there. He has a nice piece of land adjoining Pomeroy. When he returns he intends to lay off forty acres of it in town lots.

DAVID NEWSOME.

Few men have done more to place the resources of Oregon before the public and assist in obtaining deserved recognition than the late David Newsome. He was for many years employed by the Agricultural Department at Washington and contributed largely to that institution. He was a constant writer, interesting and truthful, and never advocated a wrong principle, and the example he set was on the side of good laws and good morals. He was here in '67-'8, a pioneer in the settlement of the Bay. His writings at that time, viewed by the light of today, reads like the prophecies of the olden time. He was a man of energy but the force of it was spent in a direction that seldom brings personal profit. The men who use the pen to tell the world of advantages in a new country, invite emigrants, but received nothing for his outlay of patient toil, save the satisfaction of having performed a duty. The last time I saw David Newsome he was feeble and poor, yet he traced with palsied hand his advocacy of an enterprise that to him had been a "revenge by day, and dream at night" for 15 years, the building of the Oregon Pacific R. R.

To him who was a fast friend and faithful counsellor, I pay the last sad tribute. The grave has claimed an honest man and a pure Christian. Peace to his ashes. REALTO.

WHI FREASH.

T. F. Campbell, of Monmouth, will preach in Corvallis on next Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night, so says a brother.

TELEGRAMS.

New York, Jan. 28.—The Mineral Creek mine of Arizona was sold in the exchange sales rooms to-day to Samuel Turk of New York for $14,000.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The secretary of the interior has transmitted to congress the report of the government directors of the Union Pacific R. R. Co. for 1881. The directors claim enormous benefits have resulted in the west from the completion of the road in developing its latent resources. The losses sustained by the company are said to be ninety per cent. of its surplus earnings, while at the beginning of its operations through freights represented seventy per cent. of the earnings.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The Sunday Gazette published an anti-monopoly journal, contained a well considered editorial to-day on the Chinese question, in which the evils of unrestricted mongolian immigration are clearly stated, and various reasons are given for the exclusion of Chinese. Referring to the proposition now pending in congress to suspend immigration of Chinese from the form of trichinosis, the Gazette says: "We earnestly hope in the true interest of our civilization that the measure may speedily become a law and be enforced to the full extent of its intent."

Washington, Jan. 28.—Vice President Davis entertained at dinner this evening President Arthur, Secretary Frelinghuysen, Postmaster General Howe, ex-Secretary Blaine, Speaker Keifer, Chief Justice Waite, Associate Justices Gray and Matthews, Allison, Bayard, Dawes, Ferry, Beck, Cockrell, Aldrich, Camden, Blair, Farley, McDonald and Butler.

As an indication of how little weight is attached by prosecution to the motion of acquittal, the District Attorney, Mr. Corkhill remarked to-day before a number of gentlemen that Guiteau will undoubtedly be sentenced and as surely executed not later than June 10th.

Montreal, Jan. 29.—The National Club, of young French Canadians, which is affiliated with the liberal party, unanimously passed resolutions in favor of the full independence of Canada, and asking the liberal party to do what they can to support their platform.

New York, Jan. 28.—The World's London cable: The persecution of the Jews in Russia continues to awaken the deepest sympathy among all classes here and to provoke strong feeling against Russia. Gladstone's policy in regard to the Jews in Russia is strongly condemned. When the bastard and mongrel population of Bulgaria was badly treated the premier of England refused to do anything for the unspcakable Turk, but he was in power then. The Rothschilds and other powerful Jewish families are raising a fund for the emigration of Russian Jews to the United States. The United States cannot do anything without active aid from the government, and this Gladstone declines to give them. The Russian authorities appear to be encouraging the Jews to emigrate, probably because Jew baiting is leading to the outbreak of Diapetiches relating to the brutalities perpetrated upon the unhappy people are suppressed by the military censorship, but the tales told by fugitives show that they are being subjected to the vilest treatment and tortures. The czar, who is said to be personally well disposed toward the Jews, is too timid to do anything for them, and is providing for his own safety, and his chief officers prefer that the peasants should murder the Jews rather than stir dynamite powder in the air.

London, Jan. 28.—Six Mormon elders held an open air meeting at Kings Cross yesterday. The last speaker was Mr. Soper, a large crowd who attacked the Mormons. Dublin, Jan. 28.—Twenty arrests have been made in the city of Dublin by the military and police, in County Galway.

Washington, Jan. 28.—This afternoon Scoville filed in the supreme court of the District of Columbia papers upon which he based his motion or motions for a new trial. The last affidavit was by Mr. Scoville, setting forth newly discovered evidence upon which he bases a motion for a new trial upon the following ground: First—By reason of uncertainty in said verdict, the jury returned a verdict of defendant guilty, whereas the indictment consists of different count variant from and inconsistent with each other in matters of substance. Second—That such verdict of the jury does not specify which count or counts of the counts being materially different. Third—That the verdict was not advised by the form or substance of said verdict as to the finding of the jury upon the material facts of death or place of death of deceased.

Fourth—That the trial of this case was commenced at the June term of this court and was not concluded in the same term of court but was extended into the December term without authority of law. Fourth—That this court had no jurisdiction of this cause by reason of deceased having taken place outside the District of Columbia. Fifth—That the court erred in overruling each and all prayers upon questions of law asked by counsel for defense, and in refusing to instruct the jury as requested in the following prayer proposed by the defendant:—That the court erred on trial of this cause in excluding proper evidence offered by defendant as set forth in bill of exceptions.

Sixth—That court erred on trial of this cause in admitting to go to the jury improper evidence on the part of prosecution, the defense being innocent, as shown in bill of exceptions. Eighth—That the court erred in committing improperly during the trial upon the conduct of the defendant in entering into an arrangement with the district attorney (without knowledge of counsel for defendant), whereby the jury thereby witnesses for prosecution during a portion of the trial might observe certain conduct of defendant, to subvert the purpose of the prosecution, the defense being innocent, without the restraining power of the court, being exercised with those purposes were accomplished, to the great prejudice of defendant.

Ninth—Misbehavior of the jury in reading, or having read to them, newspapers calculated to prejudice their minds against defendant, as shown in affidavits of Frederick H. Snyder, George Scoville and John W. Guiteau, filed herewith.

Tenth—By reason of new and material facts unknown at time of trial, and not shown to the jury with due diligence on the part of defendant and his attorney, having come to light since the trial, and shown in affidavits filed herewith.

Eleventh—That the verdict is contrary to the law of the case. Twelfth—That the verdict is contrary to the law of the case. GEO. SCOVILLE, Defendant's Atty.

San Francisco, Jan. 29.—Two opposition anti-monopoly meetings were held this afternoon, one presided over by Denis Kearney at the said lot, and the other by Dr. C. O'Donnell at the new city hall steps. The meetings were addressed by Kearney and O'Donnell. Both were ably attended and very little enthusiasm was manifested.

Corinth, Ky., Jan. 28.—A family named Romano, living in the outskirts of town, were poisoned before last at supper. Arsenic was in the corn bread some of which they ate. Five of the family are lying at the present time. No investigation.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 28.—In addition to three persons died from trichinosis recently in Minnesota, five more of seventeen who were stricken are despaired of.

Pittsburg, Jan. 28.—The lower parts of Pittsburg and Allegheny are under water. There is no great damage yet and the river is stationary.

New York, Jan. 30.—Elder Cannon of Utah, believes that in the contest in which he is now engaged for his seat with Campbell he will be successful.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—An Inter Ocean correspondent has interviewed all the Guiteau jurors and obtained a statement from each of them never had a paper while on the jury, that none of them wrote their names; that only one was a piece of newspaper found in their rooms, and then it was delivered to the bailiff; that they were more cruelly guarded and observed than the prisoner; that one whose name was found in that paper spoken of in the Guiteau affidavit was compelled to read the name of the defendant written in German, a thing he never did unless by special request; that another man's name appeared who had been unable to handle a pen, and another who had written in German, that there was no ink in the room, whereas the writing on the papers was in ink, that J. W. Guiteau called on the jurors and got their names and an autograph album and asked leading questions whereon to find his affidavit.

The four jurymen whose signatures, it is alleged, appear in the Critic appended to affidavits filed by defense in the Guiteau case Saturday, with the motion for a new trial, declared positively that a copy of that or any other paper was ever in their apartments or hotel. They say they never had a pen in their hands during the whole trial, except to write autographs for outside parties, and that this was always done in a room occupied by the bailiff, and in the immediate presence of the officers. The general impression of those who have examined the matter is that it is a clever piece of forgery.

The bill prepared by the judiciary committee of the Senate, for the suppression of polygamy, which will be vigorously pushed to a vote, provides that no polygamist shall sit on a jury or exercise the right of suffrage, or hold office. Cohabitation with more than one woman will be accepted as a proof of a polygamous marriage. Another section provides for the appointment of five registrars of election by the president.

Washington, Jan. 30.—It is stated with much positiveness that President Davis of the senate favors the admission of Dakota into the union. He thinks, it is said, the southern portion of Dakota is entitled by reason of population and other considerations to admission, and that it is not a question for partisan consideration. Judge Davis' vote, combined with that of the republicans, would give the bill a majority, and as an explicit control of the house, it would appear that the measure has a good prospect of becoming a law the present session.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The Post has an interview with ex-Secretary Blaine upon the subject of diplomatic correspondence relating to Chili and Peru. The secretary says the statement published that his instructions to Mr. Trescott signed by him had been drafted and committed to Trescott without the knowledge of the president, has absolutely no foundation in truth. The instructions were not only talked over fully with the president, but when written were twice read by him for criticism and change. I have the original draft in my possession with modifications desired by the president clearly noted. It is inconceivable that an extraordinary mission, important enough to be mentioned in the annual message to congress, could be allowed to leave the country without the president knowing the instructions by which its action should be governed. No president of the republic could possibly make that suggestion, and on his behalf I reply that the president specifically referred in his message to the instructions given to Mr. Trescott.

San Francisco, Jan. 30.—The British ship Cochin which arrived here yesterday from Dundee, brought seven men who were picked up in an open boat. The men belonged to the British ship Milton, bound from Newcastle, England, to San Francisco, with a cargo of coal. About 1 o'clock on the 22nd of December, smoke was discovered coming through the after hatch and it was soon known the vessel was on fire. The men stood bravely by the pumps until 2 o'clock the following day, but the fire spread and officers and crew were forced to abandon the vessel. They stayed by her for nearly a day after being taken to the boat. The vessel was commanded by Capt. McArthur, who was accompanied by his wife and two children, and manned by 20 men. The first boat contained the captain, his wife, children and five sailors; second boat, first officer and seven men, and the third boat, the second officer and five men. After abandoning the vessel, the 3 boats separated. On the 15th of January the third boat containing the second officer and five of the crew was picked up by the Cochin, bound for San Francisco. Nothing since has been seen or heard of the other two boats, and strong fears are entertained that all have been lost. Those picked up reported having suffered great hardships from thirst and hunger and were too weak to stand alone when rescued. They had lived for days on only a few dry biscuits, and for three days before being picked up had drunk nothing but salt water and kerosene oil. On the day following their rescue the Milton crew had separated from the other boats.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Bills were introduced in Congress by Berry proposing a constitutional amendment prohibiting state legislatures from voting on ratification of constitutional amendments, except at the regular sessions held following the close of the more numerous branch of the state legislature; also to regulate the railroad fares. The latter bill makes it unlawful for any railroad company to charge fare for transportation of passengers in excess of the following rates per mile: Under 100 miles, 45c; over 100 and under 300 miles, 40c; over 300 miles, 35c.

By Cook, proposition of all laws granting lands to certain railroad companies, and declaring said lands forfeited. The bill relates to a large number of railroads, including the Atlantic and Pacific, Texas Pacific and Northern Pacific, and was, after a contest as to a proper reference, referred to the committee on judiciary, by a vote of 161 to 58.

A Sad Calamity—Destructive Fire.

New York, Jan. 31.—About 10 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in a building formerly occupied by the N. Y. World in which was situated many new and valuable offices including the New York Times. Several persons were burned to death. The loss of property is supposed to be about $1,000,000. The buildings were also occupied by a great many of other kinds of business. There was probably 400 or 500 people in the building when the fire broke out. Many of them had to jump from 3 to 4 story windows. Some were fatally injured while others escaped with less harm. The Times building was saved with considerable damage to material.

Spalding has been appointed collector of customs at Chicago much to the disappointment of Seneca Grant and his supporters. Chicago, Jan. 31.—Spalding's policy is now said to be to drive Logan from northern Illinois, which would mean his eventual retirement from politics.

St. Louis, Jan. 31.—The anti-polygamy meeting called some days ago was held at Pilgrim Congregational church to-night. The house was filled to overflowing with the best citizens of the city. Rev. S. H. Nichols, presided and spoke. Speeches were made by several persons mostly ministers, all of whom took strong ground against the iniquitous practice and called upon congress to root it out. The committee on resolutions reported a long address to senators and representatives in congress from Missouri, asking their earnest influence in the preparation and passage of such measures as will enable the government to put an end to polygamy in the territories. The address treats polygamy simply as a felony, but as one of the most baneful influences, and asserts that congress has authority and power to abolish it, and demands that measures shall be taken to crush it.

Salt Lake, Jan. 31.—Gov. Murray has returned from Washington fully satisfied by the administration. He is very hopeful of the work which congress proposes to do for Utah, and while in Washington urged congress to pass the bill providing a legislative commission in place of the present polygamous legislature, which will govern Utah the same as the District of Columbia.

George B. Curry was confirmed receiver of the late office of the District of Oregon. It is certain in every case. For Incontinence; Impotency; Pains in the Loins, and all Similar Diseases. It is a safe, sure and quick Cure. It is the only known Remedy that has cured Barrenness. As a proof of the purity and worth of this Great Natural Remedy, read the following:

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS: S. A. LATTIMORE, Ph.D., Professor of Chemistry in the University of Rochester, N. Y., knowing the popularity and merit of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, after a thorough chemical analysis, has furnished the following statement: UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER, Chemical Laboratory, ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 8, 1882.

Mr. H. H. Warner has placed in my possession the formula of the medicine manufactured and sold by him under the general designation of WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE. I have investigated his processes of manufacture, which are conducted with extreme care and according to the best methods. I have also taken from his laboratory samples of all the materials used in the preparation of this medicine, and upon critical examination I find them, as well as the medicine into which they enter, to be entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances.

This Remedy which has done such wonders, is a pure and natural product of the earth, and is sold up to the LARGEST SIZED BOTTLE of any kind, and is sold by the Wholesale and Retail Dealers at all Dealers at $2.50 per bottle. For Diabetes require only a few drops of WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE. It is a POSITIVE Remedy. H. H. WARNER & Co. 189-8y. Rochester, N. Y.
