THE PROSPECTS OF THE POLE

The San Francisco Journal of Commerce says: Though we have not had as much rain as in 1880 or 1881, notably the latter, we have had it come in a better time than during the latter year. The soil, so tar as crops are concerned, has benefited more by it than it did a year ago. We have had no devastating floods to drown out the dwellers on the lower Sacramento and San Joaquin, and to ruin their crops. These islands will produce abundantly beyond all precedent. The San Joaquin valley acre for acre will not be anything behind 1880, while all over the State the acreage is much more than it was then. We may then expect a much larger yield of wheat and barley, at least 10,000,000 bellion," as follows: bushels more of the former.

Prices have been pretty steady for the past month or so, and in the face of a great harvest, and they will probably remain steady after the usual decline contragent on the near approach of the new grain to market. In England it is thought that bed rock has been reached, and, indeed, the recent advance in Liverpool seems to predict as much. We look therefore, for a steady market. The wheat crop will be worth, at a low calculation, $60,000,000- he highest value ever placed on a wheat crop in this or any other State in the

Our gold placers yield steadily along about the same quantity of the precious metal; but the rains and melting snows of this year render the situation more favorable than for many years past.

The total value of our products and manufacturies this year will not be less than $190,000,000, a jump of $20,000,000 from last year, This will help wonderfully and will be reinvested in new enterprises and new space were packed the bones, which, orated drunks and two assault and industries which will be themselves roproductive.

The Population of Itah.

It will doubtless surprise most people to learn that nearly two-thirds of the population of Utah was born in that territory, but such is the fact according to a census bulletin; just sened. Out of a total population of 144,000 no less than $1,000 are set down as natives of Utah, while another 20,006 were born in different states of the Union, New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Iowa and Missouri furnishing the largest quotas the family of Jones a month ago at and in the order mentioned.
