What a German Newspaper Says. St. Joseph Volksblatt, Aug. 22, 1881.

We Germans are in general not inclined to believe at once in great announcements and puffs; we are rather suspicious, and and humbugs. Our motto is, "What the eye sees the heart believes," and we therefore desire to see and examine ourselves be-We are now able to give the best informa-tion on the subject, based on a personal re-tion on the subject, based on a personal re-view and examination of the premises.

Our reporter found Dr. Richmond in his-office. The doctor kindly received him, and not only answered all his questions, but showed and explained everything about the place to him. His office is on the first floor of the building and its walls are cov-ered with thousands of photographs of gen-tlemen and ladies restored to health by the-use of Samaritan Nervine, among whom our use of Samaritan Nervine, among whom our reporter recognized many of his own countrymen, and its glass cases contain innumerable certificate of cures and letters in praise of this world-famous remedy.

About ten years ago Dr. Richmond cameto St. Joseph. He was then a poor young man, with but little money, and no friends to assist him. He rented a small office on Francis street, and commenced the struggle-for success single-handed and alone. He-has achieved a grand triumph, in the faceof stubborn opposition on every hand, and is to-day one of the weathiest men in our midst. This fact alone is amply sufficient to show the merits of his invaluable preparation, even though there were no other sources from which to procure valid audicaliable testimony. sources from which to procure valid aud-reliable testimony.

But besides the money which this great medicine has been the means of bringing to the inventor, the doctor receives daily bless-nentality. spection at his office, and it requires two-clerks to attend to this branch of the busness.

Dr. Richmond is a living example to be imitated by all young men who have a dis-position to reach eminence in the world by dilligence in the use of their own exertions, and besides the enjoyment of the prosperity which surrounds him, he has the satisfac-ings of thousands of patients restored to health and happiness through his instru-
