In bangs I never can delight, My gentle Phyllis dear; Why will you hide from mortal sight That forchead white and clear?

I do detest that halo hat Whose wide umbrageous rim Encircles like a pancake flat And hides your face from him Who fain would gaze upon your face, Where beauty sits enshrined; I do not like the easy grace With which you free your mind Of jargon, prattle, small talk, Slang; These things do sadly mar--But spite of these, big hat and bang, Fil take you as you are.

These degrading habits are by in the worst evils that have ever befailen sufferi the worst evils that have ever befallen aufering humanity. Thousands die annually from these onzous drugs. The drunkard drinks liquor not be-onne he likes it, but for the pleasure of drinking and treasing his friends, little thinking that he is on his road to vain. Like the Opium Eater, he first uses the drug in shall quantities as a harmeless an-ildote. The soothing influence of the drug takes strong hold upon its victim, leading him on to his own destruction. The habits of Quium Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely whet esting is to alimentiveness, as over-eating first fames the stomach, which redoubles its caavings fidell it para-lyzes both the stornach and apetite. So ever, drink of liquor or dose of opium, instead of satisfyez, only adds to its fierce fires, until it consumes the vital force and then itself. Like the grittonous tape-worm, it eries "Give, give, give!" but never enough until its own rapacity devours itself. Samar-itan Nervine gives instant relief in all such cases. #### DR. J. C. YOUNG

DR. J. G. TOURG Opened his now celebrated Institute in 1850 for the puryose of affording the afflicted the certainty of bonorable and skillful treatment and perfect and permanent restoration, and for over 30 years it has sustained the first rank not only upon this Coast but throughout the civilized world. I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the DECAY OF SEXUAL VIGOR the provem may amerse my motive, but norant may asperse my mot the desire to inform those who are suffering through ignorance, or who by care-essness or want of knowledge that a cure can be had, are not only hurrying them-selves to an untimely grave, but giving sexuel weakness as an inheritance to future genera-tions, is two great an incentive to permit me to be slight.
