F. H. SAWTELL, A Curious Effect of a Seaside Visit.

One of our townsmen famous as an expert with paste pot and scissors, while on a trip to the sea-shore recently, it is said, found personal attractions in the cooking department of one of the principal hotels, where he was stopping, in the person of a young lady. So much so did these allurements attract him that he found it no use to attempt to count the sands upon the seatered that department of eatables as assis- tends to return again. tant to the object of his attractions.

A Bad Sewer.

Mrs. James Taylor has been sick at her residence for about two weeks, and also her sister and Mr. Taylor during last week. Their sickness is said by the doctors to have been caused by the effects of a sewer which the city attempted to build just across the street from their residence, but failed and They came "all the way from Maine" and neglected to complete it, and have left it as we are informed enjoyed the trip well unfinished in the middle of town as a poisonous and festering sore to contaminate all to Oregon. A little before noon on last Friday the darm of fire was given. In a few mor Young America with her engine and the Hook and Ladder Co. was on their way owards the south part of town where i was found that the alarm was occasioned by some sparks catching in the roof of Mrs. Monteith's house near the kitchen flue. Before the engine could be set and water get to the flames the H. & L. boys had extinguished it by throwing a few buckets of water upon the fire.

Good Grain Cutting.

Mr. Gilbert Quivy formerly of some ewspaper notoriety in this place and elsewhere, has turned to be a horny handed farmer, and during the present harvest has been running a McCormick twine binder. During one day it is said that he cut wenty-five acres of heavy wheat and also during a 3 days run he averaged twenty acres per day and during several days cutting he averaged nearly twenty acres per day. He works three borses to a seven foot binder and finds that it is not near so hard on them as ordinary plowing hardly raising the sweat on them at all.
